Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document
(eg. trust deed, constitution)

The charity is governed by constitution.

How the charity is constituted
(eg. trust, association, company)

Trustee selection methods
(eg. appointed by, elected by)

Its committee is run by parents. Trustees are elected at the Annual General Meeting.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity is run under Pre School Learning Alliance guidelines and is Ofsted inspected. There is a child protection policy in place. Criminal Record Bureau checks are carried out prior to commencement of employment or trusteeship.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To enhance the development and education of children below statutory school age by encouraging parents to understand and provide for the needs of their children through community groups and by:-
a) Offering appropriate play facilities and training courses
Encouraging the study of the needs of such children and their families.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Pre-School continues to be a popular choice for the local parents and we are fully subscribed. Our funds are mainly government funding and parent fees. Our main cost is staffing. We aim to keep a better than recommended staff to children ratio.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The trustees recommend that the pre-school always has funds in the bank reserves to cover one term's expenditure.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Section F Other optional information

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Signed on behalf of the charity's trustees

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

To the Management Committee of Phoenix Pre-School

We report on the financial statements for the year ended 31st August 2023

Respective responsibilities of the Management Committee and Independent Examiner

The Management Committee is responsible for the initial preparation of the financial statements. These are checked and all transactions are verified by us. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion and to report our opinion to you. Our examination includes a review of the accounting records, consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations concerning any such matters.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention, which gives us reasonable cause to believe that accounting requirements have been met and enabled us to reach a proper understanding of all transactions.
