You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Due to the restrictions imposed by the Government in respect of Covid, prevent Heartland Youth For Christ from engaging in its main activities during the first half of the year.

The second half of the year saw the resumption of most of the main activities. It was encouraging to see that the number of young people engaging with the activities provided quickly recovered close to pre-Covid levels.

The young people participating in the summer camp out, thoroughly enjoyed the experience, some of whom had never been camping before. They enjoyed in engaging with the activities that enables them to explore the Christian faith deeper, including joining in post camp activities.

Section E

Financial review

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of

Heartland Youth for Christ

On accounts for the year ended

31 December 2021

Charity no (if any) 1082117

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Chair's Report

Thank God for our sense of humour and maybe irony! I say this because I've recently re-read last years Chair report and it began " I think it would be an understatement to say that 2019 has been a challenging year." Oh if only I had known then what we know now!!!!

You don't need me to tell you that 2020 was a year like no other!

Having only just moved to our new offices in the Marlene Reid Centre we were suddenly imprisoned in our homes, churches closed, schools closed and possibly for the first time since its conception Heartland Youth for Christ was unable to operate. Indeed, nationally, Youth For Christ was stopped in its tracks.

It was with sad hearts that the trustees finally admitted there was no choice but to furlough our staff - a choice made mainly in consideration of their mental and spiritual welfare. There was a welcome but brief resumption of some work at the end of summer but this was short lived as we entered a second lockdown.

Don't get me wrong, it hasn't all been bad news. As we know, God wasn't taken by surprise in all this! In fact, never One to miss an opportunity, He has used this time to shake His church in a way never seen before. He has used this time to get His message out online, to get us all delving deeper into His word and in many ways He has been refining our faith.

But there's no doubt that while some have sadly lost loved ones, many more have been afraid, many have suffered loneliness and our children in particular have had their lives turned upside down.

Now more than ever, the good news of the Gospel is needed in our schools and homes and the work of Heartland Youth for Christ is critical in getting that message across. A message of Hope when all seems hopeless.

As far as our team is concerned, the future is wonderfully bright. We are all looking forward to getting back into our schools, restarting our after school clubs and looking at new ways to introduce young lives to our Saviour.

Furlough has protected our precious funds and supporters have continued to be generous. Zoom meetings have been a literal God send as far as us older folk are concerned. No need to leave warm homes on a wintry evening - even so we are keen to return to face-to-face gatherings, especially for prayer purposes.

So with renewed strength and refreshed vision we are looking to the future with enthusiasm.

Sarah will be telling you all about the new Genesis project, some training we're hoping to provide for potential youth workers and our new member of staff - another Sarah - as well as bringing you up to date with other aspects of our work and plans for the future.

Paul writes in his second letter to Timothy "Through the Power of the Holy Spirit who lives within us, carefully guard the precious truth that has been entrusted to you". This is our continued purpose at Heartland Youth For Christ, that standing in God's strength we will protect, safeguard and preserve the truth of His Gospel and faithfully share it with those He puts in our way.

I hope and pray that you will be encouraged by what you hear today and will continue to support us in the coming year.

Charity no (if any) 1082117

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Analysis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
