Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Advancement of the Christian faith in Egypt, the UK and any other parts of the world and to relieve persons who are in conditions of need or hardship, aged, sick etc

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The raising of monies and payment of grants, in support of paying the deprived slums and rural areas for help to education for young children, especially girls and the disabled, through the local bishops of the Dioceses.

Consideration of the increased number of refugees from Eritrea, Ethiopia, Sudan to Egypt. The churches have to support them in many cities in Egypt.

The trustees confirm they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission. The trustees have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the trust's aims and objectives and in setting the grant making policy for the year.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Consideration of the increased number of refugees from Eritrea, Ethiopia, Sudan to Egypt. The churches have to support them in many cities in Egypt.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We managed to achieve support for the poor in young students through Bishop Raphael in Cairo. Unemployment in Christian communities is up to 70%.

In areas outside Cairo like Helwan, Malawi, Abu Korkas, Matai, Qena, El Marg, Sohag, we were able to send cash (sterling) with people who are travelling there and bring us back the exact documented receipts.

We also managed to cut out activity costs to a minimum as we work on voluntary basis.

The devaluing of the currency made work more challenging this year.

Section EFinancial review*Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Distribute when sufficient funds available. It is not the policy of the trustees to hold large sums as the money can be for used immediate distribution.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 5 April 2025.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below *~~) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 5 April 2022.

Responsibilities and

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below~~*) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Advancement of the Christian faith in Egypt, the UK and any other parts of the world and to relieve persons who are in conditions of need or hardship, aged, sick etc

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The raising of monies and payment of grants, in support of paying the deprived slums and rural areas for help to education for young children, especially girls and the disabled, through the local bishops of the Dioceses.

The trustees confirm they have complied with the duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission. The trustees have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the trust's aims and objectives and in setting the grant making policy for the year.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We managed to achieve support for the poor in young students through Bishop Raphael in Cairo. Unemployment in Christian communities is up to 40%.

In areas outside Cairo like Helwan, Malawi, Abu Korkas, Matai, Qena, El Marg, Sohag, we were able to send cash (sterling) with people who are travelling there and bring us back the exact documented receipts.

We also managed to cut out activity costs to a minimum as we work on voluntary basis.

Section EFinancial review*Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Distribute when sufficient funds available. It is not the policy of the trustees to hold large sums as the money can be for used immediate distribution.

Details of any funds materially in deficit
