Structure, Governance and Management

The Aisling Project is a Company Limited by Guarantee and not having shared capital and was established on 20th November 2000.

The Trust comprises the Chairman, Board of Trustees and the Secretary. The Board of Trustees are inhabitants of London who bring together a broad range of expertise and an awareness of the needs of the local Irish community. The trustees meet every 3 months or as business dictates.

The trustees who acted at any time during the year are as follows:

John Mulvihill
Aonghus Fitzgibbon
Ann Woulfe

The power of appointing and removing trustees is vested in The Aisling Project.

Training of Trustees

The Trustees are aware of the relevant changes in legislation and financial procedures and understand the requirements and guidelines relating to the performance of trustees. Any further training is arranged as required.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable objectives of the Trust are:

- a). Aisling is established for the relief of poverty distress and sickness of people of Irish origin who are homeless, isolated or otherwise vulnerable and for the advancement of education of such persons.
- b). Aisling provides supported holidays in Ireland for long-term Irish emigrants living in London who require assistance to become reacquainted with their homeland and their friends and family.
- c). Aisling gives advice and assistance to long-term Irish emigrants living in London who wish to resettle in Ireland.

These objectives are achieved through the consideration of the management committee at the periodic meetings of the Trustees.

The Trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance of Companies House general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Trusts aims and objectives in planning future activities and setting policies.

Report to the trustees/ members of

On accounts for the year ended Charity no (if any)

Set out on pages

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/11/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Structure, Governance and Management

The Aisling Project is a Company Limited by Guarantee and not having shared capital and was established on 6 March 2000.

The Trust comprises the Chairman, Board of Trustees and the Secretary. The Board of Trustees are inhabitants of London who bring together a broad range of expertise and an awareness of the needs of the local Irish community. The trustees meet every 3 months or as business dictates.

The trustees who acted at any time during the year are as follows:

John Mulvihill
Aonghus Fitzgibbon
Ann Woulfe

The power of appointing and removing trustees is vested in The Aisling Project plc.

Training of Trustees

The Trustees are aware of the relevant changes in legislation and financial procedures and understand the requirements and guidelines relating to the performance of trustees. Any further training is arranged as required.

Objectives and Activities

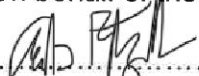

The charitable objectives of the Trust are:

- a). Aisling is established for the relief of poverty distress and sickness of people of Irish origin who are homeless, isolated or otherwise vulnerable and for the advancement of education of such persons.
- b). Aisling provides supported holidays in Ireland for long-term Irish emigrants living in London who require assistance to become reacquainted with their homeland and their friends and family.
- c). Aisling gives advice and assistance to long-term Irish emigrants living in London who wish to resettle in Ireland.

These objectives are achieved through the consideration of the management committee at the periodic meetings of the Trustees.

The Trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance of Companies House general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Trusts aims and objectives in planning future activities and setting policies.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 30/11/2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
