Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

ToheedUI Islam Association is catering to the community's education, religious and social needs in both English and Urdu. The Mosque run by Association effectively works with members of the Muslim community, young and old, both men and women. As of today, hundreds of children attend the mosque regularly to learn Quran and practices of manners.

The mosque is encouraging the broader participation of women in all aspects of social life and religious activities. It also served as a sanctuary for them where they could mingle with their fellow sisters away from their everyday chores.

For youth, the mosque is a place of worship and learning and a platform of socialising. The mosque provides an excellent place for healthy activities and the youth interact with the best of an educated lot from the community. The results are encouraging and many youngsters are aiming for higher education and taking up professional career paths.

We take this opportunity to thank all the volunteers who tirelessly serve this beautiful place.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

(Remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view, and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act have not been met: or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
