

Statement of purpose and report of trustees

For year ending 31.10.24

The purpose of “The Don’t Leave Me As I Am” Charity Fund is the relief of need of Jewish children and adults, in particular those with learning difficulties or suffering from illness (and in particular kidney disease), through the provision of therapy, teaching, advice and activities in a supporting environment. A focus is on helping adults with learning difficulties and autism to live independently.

During the year ending 31.10.24 a number of disbursements have been made – specifically to provide respite services for children and young adults with severe learning difficulties, to provide speech therapy and counselling services for disabled children, to assist in remedial services – including residential - for disadvantaged children and young adults, to provide therapies to learning impaired children and young adults, to directly develop speech therapy programs, to provide recreational therapies (including horse-riding) plus respite for children and young adults with special needs including hearing impairments, to assist with the placement of special needs children in mainstream school, and to aid independent living of adults with learning difficulties.
