Introduction

Whilst 23/24 was, in many ways, a year of consolidation for Norfolk Community Arts Limited, and the reduction in core staffing capacity implemented to stabilise the finances of the charity certainly brought challenges, NORCA once again achieved significant programme delivery to meet our goal of improving lives through arts and culture. The Sistema Norwich programme continued to develop, grow and thrive, we maintained our curriculum music delivery and had another very successful edition of Norwich Summer Sessions. Although participation in things like the Youth Samba band remained static, a large number of young people joined Sistema Norwich, as young people's engagement in out of school activity started to return to something of its pre-pandemic level. As the funding position has improved into 24/25, we have been able to restore some of our core staffing capacity, to support delivery and the strategic development of the charity.

Work to review the charity's remit and create a development plan was completed in April 2025 and has informed the strategy and targets set out in this Annual Report. With NORCA, historically, delivering activities across a wide range of artforms and ages, Trustees have chosen to focus the Charity on music (and music-related activity) and young people.

The challenge for young people in Norwich remains, with much of the disparity in wealth and education not recognised inside or outside the city. A third of children live in poverty, KS2 achievement is well below the national average, and the city languishes in the least socially mobile 10% and the most deprived 2% of the UK (young people's sub-domain of the Index of Multiple Deprivation). There remain worrying indicators for the mental health of young people, and youth unemployment has hit an 11 year high, with one in seven young people not in employment, education or training.

The need for arts, creativity and culture has never seemed more needed, yet the money to support engagement and access has become very limited, and there are no longer the opportunities that came via schools, with the arts squeezed out of education. The benefits to young people from arts participation are well-established, however it seems particularly shortsighted for an ageing population to overlook the potentially cataclysmic impact on a generation they will come to rely on. There needs to be a funded youth development initiative to address the current situation, with arts and culture part of the mix. Not only are the arts returning to being the province of the wealthy, we are missing the vital role of creativity in the UK's wider success. The creative industries make up about 5% of the UK economy (by GVA) and is one of the fastest growing sectors.

Sistema Norwich continues to grow and thrive, with over 80 children taking part in 23/24. The level of interest and uptake over the last two years demonstrates the need. We have seen significant musical progression, high levels of attendance and a strong culture of participation grow up around the nucleo. Sistema Norwich has continued to be wonderfully diverse, with children and young people from all walks of life, high levels of participation from minority ethnic communities (34%), those receiving free school meals (22%) and those with special educational needs (15%). We recognise that more work is needed to ensure that we reach and draw from the least well-off communities, but the programme remains a rare and unique opportunity for those who would not otherwise get the chance to learn to play a musical instrument. Our partnership with the Norfolk & Suffolk Music Hub to deliver Sistema remains very important, both bringing resources and linking the programme to the wider music education network locally. We want to extend our thanks to the Hub and particularly to the fantastic Hub colleagues who work alongside our staff. We have continued to build a great team of tutors and administrators, whose energy and dedication to the work has been so vital to its ongoing success.

Music education still faces very uncertain times, with music studies in schools at a historic low. Whilst the messaging from the new Labour government seems to be very positive, and there is a strong commitment to it, as a core part of young people's opportunities, the current economic challenges are making significant investment difficult and continue to put pressure on school budgets. It's great to have voices such as Ed Sheeran's being raised in support of action, and we hope that a Music and Arts Premium (similar to the current PE and Sports Premium) will be levered in to further support the funding of music, alongside ensuring there are resources to support a thriving extra-curricular music scene. The Norfolk & Suffolk Music Hub continues to be a key partner and, alongside our ongoing commitment to school music delivery, we will be looking to further develop our offer from Martineau Memorial Hall as part of supporting young people's wider opportunities to engage with music.

Norwich Summer Sessions, the free festival of music and street theatre that NORCA delivers for Norwich BID, had its 11th year in 23/24. We offered a hybrid festival with three Thursdays evenings in July and four Sunday afternoons in August. Summer Sessions continues to draw a large audience and achieve high approval ratings from that audience. Stand out performances included the amazing Scottish piper, Malin Lewis, Latin band, Sarabanda getting Gentleman's Walk dancing, and the hilarious Dan the Hat. We were really pleased to achieve a 50/50 balance of male and female performers and a strong multi-cultural presence. The event continues to offer an important performance platform for local bands and up-and-coming young musicians.

Funding is vital to NORCA being able to do its work and whilst the funding climate remains challenging, we continue to have amazing support from funders and donors. I want to offer huge thanks to all those who have supported our work in the last year, large or small. It is all important, appreciated and needed more than ever. We are particularly grateful for multi-year awards from the Garfield Weston Foundation and 29th May 1961 Charitable Trust for Sistema Norwich. These are hugely challenging times for our sector, with more pressure and demand than ever on funds and funders. Though we seem to have turned a bit of a corner, there is a need for action to support the charity, education and arts sectors, if the work of organisations like ours is going to be able to continue. More availability of core funding means we can be better at what we do, are more sustainable as organisations, and can really be the agents of change we want to be.

I want to thank the NORCA Trustee board for all the work they have done this year. I am hugely grateful for their support, and it is great to welcome Ruth Bullard to the board. I wish to offer our thanks to Abby Dalgleish, who stepped down as a Trustee in June 2024, for all her work, and a very big thank you to all our staff, freelancers and volunteers for everything they do for the Charity.

Strategic Report

Strategic planning

Strategic planning takes place through the business planning process and cycle. This seeks to ensure that all our work has a robust case for support and theory of change, that it is well-planned and resourced, that it is coherent and cohesive, that it fits with local and national priorities, that it meets the needs of our communities and that everyone in the team is able to have input. It also seeks to ensure that the charity is financially sustainable, with a diverse income portfolio that seeks to maximise opportunities to fund the charity within the scope of its remit.

Although a new 3-year business plan was put in place in September 2022, developed with the support of the Foundation for Social Improvement (FSI), the pandemic and cost of living crisis have brought about a challenging financial and fundraising environment that has required re-evaluation of our plans and ambitions. During 22/23, work focused on the new model for delivering Sistema Norwich, making that robust and sustainable. That work has continued in 23/24, whilst we look to review the wider remit of the charity, develop new areas of work, and develop a new business plan.

Our approach

The focus of our strategy is to make a real difference to people's lives through arts participation and engagement. We have made four strategic choices, which underpin our approach:

1. A focus on the impact of economic hardship, social disadvantage and lack of opportunity
 - People who face social disadvantage experience the impact of that across their lives, from educational achievement and employability, to health issues and well-being. We want everyone to have access to arts and culture, in ways that are meaningful and relevant to their lives, especially those with the least resources. We want to design programmes that meet the needs of participants and bring about positive impact for them and their communities.
2. An ethos of creativity and culture
 - Artistic practice and creativity lie at the heart of all our activities. We work to promote the value of arts engagement and to create a wider, positive environment that is receptive to, and values, cultural engagement. We want to model the creative and cultural practice we espouse in how we operate as an organisation. We know that through innovation and creativity we can create lasting change.
3. Partnership and collective action
 - We recognise we can achieve more if we work with other people, whether other local organisations, parents of participants or professional artists. We will advocate for arts and culture in all aspects of people's lives, and develop the case to support the benefits of engagement in the arts and social impact through arts participation. We want to put collaboration and co-design at the heart of all our work.
4. Being a high performing organisation
 - We seek to maximise the impact of our available resources for our beneficiaries, not only financial resources but the skills and talents of our workforce and collaborators. We aim to be a dynamic, effective and responsive organisation, thinking outside the box, challenging expectations and received wisdom, and breaking new ground.

Strategic aims

We focus on five strategic aims, which drive our work:

- 1. Creating opportunities for participation and engagement in the arts, especially for those with least access: this is where change happens, at the creative coalface, through engagement in a creative practice.
- 2. Overcoming barriers to cultural engagement, including inequality of access to opportunities for financial reasons: making sure we reach those with the highest needs and the least access.
- 3. Supporting people on their creative journey and developing a culture of creativity: creating an environment in which creativity can thrive and grow, and be sustainable.
- 4. Making a difference to people's lives: increasing social mobility, building resilience/wellbeing and generating community cohesion: putting diversity and inclusion at the heart of all our work.
- 5. Providing facilities and resources (as part of a cohesive local arts infrastructure) that further our work and support access.

Our projects, programmes and activities focus on these to different degrees, but ideally will draw on all of them. In some cases, projects are developed that focus on one, specifically.

We believe the best way to achieve our objectives is through direct work with individuals and communities, aimed at giving them more opportunities to thrive, and building their skills and capabilities. This work, however, needs to be framed within a wider culture, that nurtures and supports growth, includes partnerships to support or deliver programmes, and influences policy makers in their choices over resources and policy direction.

We seek to support people in developing the building blocks of healthy, successful, creative lives, raising aspiration and fulfilling potential. We aim to give people the skills and resources to overcome the challenges they face and live better lives, including ones rich in the arts.

Theory of change

Our work is grounded in research by the Young Foundation which identifies the fundamental importance of social and emotional capabilities in the achievement of other outcomes, including educational attainment, health and employment status. That research also establishes that these capabilities are seen as important by participants, who therefore recognise the value in investing time in developing them. Although their research is focussed on young people, it holds as being applicable across the whole of people's lives.

The arts are recognised as supporting the development of social and emotional capabilities, e.g. Sue Hallam, The Power of Music, 2010. A deeper evidence base is being developed, across a range of genres, and we will be looking to contribute to this through our own evaluation.

Focus priorities

Since its formation in 2001, NORCA has delivered a wide range of programmes across different artforms, including music, dance, theatre, video & film, journalism, visual art, opera, carnival and photography, working across all ages and with over 70 projects and programmes delivered. Although music has always been a key area of work, the development of Sistema Norwich (which started in 2009) has represented a significantly increased focus both on music and on young people, with the Sistema programme making up the largest part of the charity's work over the last 15 years.

Given our specialism in music and the significant level of need to support young people, both generally and specifically in Norwich (see section on the context of our work), as part of our review of remit the Trustees have taken the decision that the focus of charity will be guided by three priorities:

Music - NORCA's core focus will be music and music-related activity.

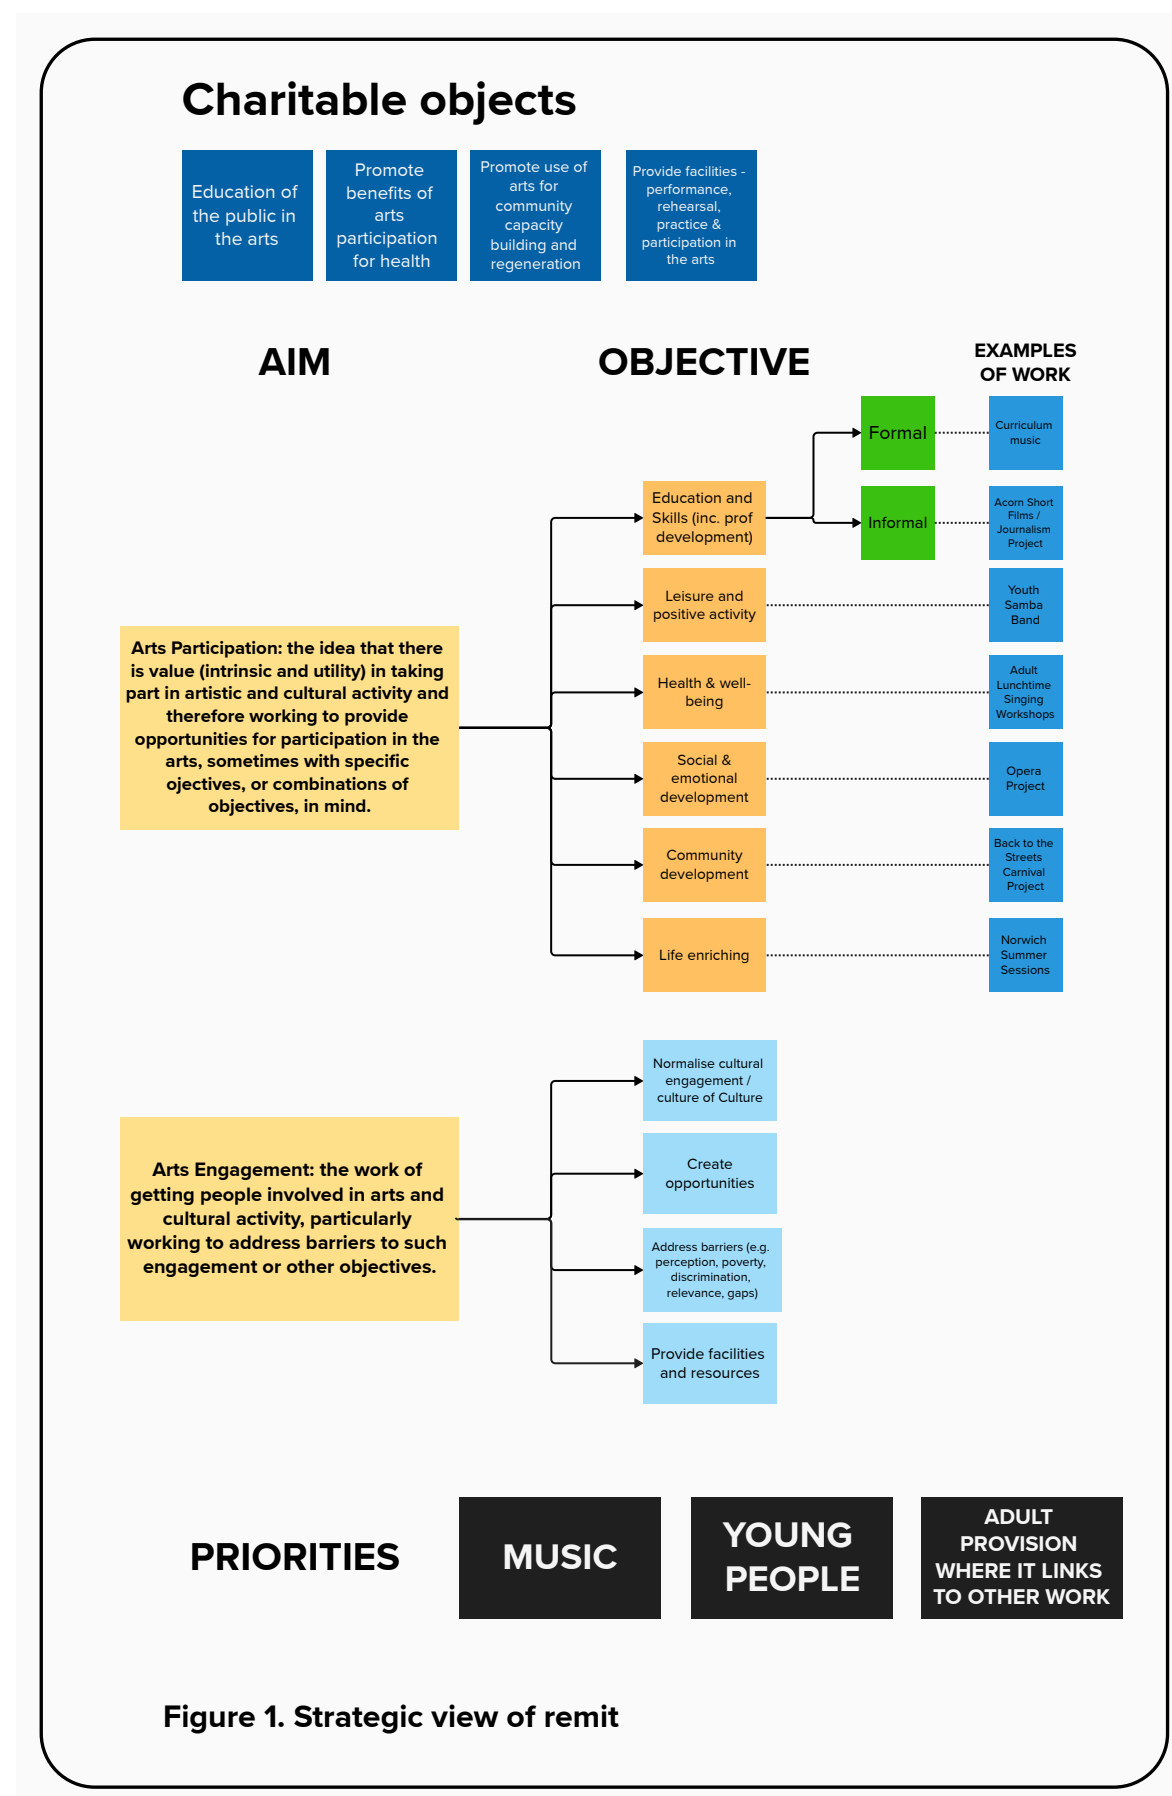

Young people - Our work will focus on young people, 0-24 years.

Adult provision where it links to other activity - work with adults will be undertaken where it links to existing provision, e.g. work with Sistema parents, or workforce development connected to music tuition.

Strategic view of remit

The difference we make

Our strategy focuses our work on improving lives through arts participation and engagement, and developing a culture of artistic engagement and practice for all. We frame the impact of our work by viewing it through four strategic 'lenses':

Artistic development and lived experience of culture

Artistic practice, in some shape or form, is at the heart of all our work. The areas where we want to have an impact include:

- Developing artistic proficiency
- Developing experience of culture
- Developing creativity and wider artistic skills

Increasing social mobility

For us, social mobility is about people having every chance to be the best they can be. It's about the opportunity to succeed; about changing the way people think, act and engage, so they can realise talents and potential. The areas where we want to have an impact include:

- Creating opportunity where people have limited or no opportunity
- Developing skills and social and emotional capabilities
- Gearing transformation towards self-sustaining and virtuous-circles, such as increasing aspiration and developing confidence
- Increasing achievement across the whole of people's lives
- Offering positive role models and positive activity

Building resilience and wellbeing

The stresses and pressures of modern life can bring all sorts of health issues, particularly relating to mental health, and socially disadvantaged areas are often seen to have greater health inequalities. The areas where we want to have an impact include:

- Mental health and emotional wellbeing
- Developing confidence, communication, agency and resilience

Creating an environment of arts participation and cultural engagement

Bringing about change is not just about focused programmes, but creating a climate of cultural participation, and recognising the value of culture to people's lives. We want to make sure people (especially young people) have pathways to further opportunities and growth. We want to be part of a thriving community with arts and culture at its heart. The areas where we want to have an impact include:

- Increasing the public profile and audience for culture, to widen exposure and engagement
- Encouraging wider participation through volunteering
- Increasing the sense of value for arts and culture
- Encouraging people to get involved in the arts
- Celebrating diverse cultures
- Developing youth leadership
- Influencing policy

The context for our work

Our work is informed by local, national and international contexts. Most of that work is focussed on the city of Norwich, as the community in which we are most embedded and therefore can serve best, as well as more widely across Norfolk. Key statistics and indicators have informed how we have developed and shaped our work to meet particular priorities, and continue to influence what future programmes we might develop. Where appropriate we look to expand our work beyond this geographical remit, especially working with key local partners in other locations in the application of particular provisions or models of delivery.

This leads us to identify some key issues and needs that our work could focus on addressing:

- The level of deprivation, particularly relating to young people - how that impacts not only on access to and participation in arts and culture, but also on wider opportunity
- Young people's mental health
- Supporting educational achievement, particularly at KS1 and 2
- Opportunities for young people to work in the arts, and access to work more widely
- Improving the status of the arts

In terms of the charity's vision, mission and aims, some of the key statistics and indicators that support, direct and influence our work are set out below.

Norwich ethnic profile

	white british	white non-british	asian	mixed	black	other
■ 2021	77.6%	9.5%	5.5%	3.2%	2.6%	1.6%
■ 2011	84.7%	6.1%	4.4%	2.3%	1.6%	0.8%

Deprivation and poverty

- 20% of the city's LSOAs* are in the most deprived 10% (40% in most deprived 20%) nationally, putting the city as a whole, into the most deprived 16% nationally
- Norwich is in the bottom 10% of areas in the country for social mobility
- 19% of young people in Norwich live in absolute low-income families, the highest in Norfolk (11% for East of England) and 35% have been identified as living below the poverty line
- Child and pensioner poverty are significantly worse than the national average - the children's sub-domain of IMD puts Norwich in the most deprived 2% nationally

* LSOA's or Lower Layer Super Output Areas, divide up the UK into areas of similar population size.

Education and young people

- Educational achievement and child development are well below the national average
- 36% of LSOAs fall in the top 10% most deprived areas in England for Educational attainment
- Research carried out by Norwich City Council (Warmint Report, 1997 & 2007) identified low self-esteem, confidence and aspiration being a particular issue for young people in the city
- Only 4% of young people learning to play an instrument in Norfolk are on free school meals (whereas 22% of children in Norfolk are on free school meals)
- Youth unemployment (16-24yrs) has hit an 11-year high at 13.4% (1 in 7 young people not in employment, education or training)

Norwich age profile

Health

- Suicide higher than the national average
- 20% of children in Year 6 are classified as obese (up 5% on 2015)
- High rate of teenage pregnancy
- Personal happiness is below the national average, 6.9 compared to a UK average of 7.45, lowest for all districts in Norfolk

Arts engagement

Norwich is perceived as being higher than the national average both regarding arts participation (time spent doing a creative activity, 41% compared to 35% nationally) and attendance (attending an event or performance, 63% compared to 53% nationally). There is however, considerable variation across the city's communities, which can mean a significant proportion of the city have less access, and Government research into taking part in the arts shows a clear link between low attendance and deprivation, with lowest attendance (59%) in the most deprived 10%, and increasing with each decile. Norwich, however, is considered a cultural 'hot spot' in terms of the Arts Council's priorities.

Young people's mental health

Even before the pandemic, a number of observers reported a significant increase in mental health issues for young people, many of them associated with increasing academic pressure and the impact of social media. Figures from NHS Digital identify that 1 in 5 children aged 8-16 had a probable mental health disorder in 2023, rising to 1 in 4 for 17-24 year olds, and that there had been a 33% increase in referrals to children's mental health services since 2019.

UNESCO City of Literature / City of Stories

Norwich was the second City of Literature in the UK and the first in England. Designated as a place of one thousand years of stories and literary firsts, of debate, foment and revolution, a place whose denizens were known for their non-conformism and 'do different' spirit. Work around the designation is led by the National Centre for Writing. It has led to the rebranding of Norwich as the 'city of stories'.

Impact of the pandemic:

Covid-19 is generally recognised to have had a significant impact on mental health and social isolation.

Curriculum music

The curriculum music offer, particularly at primary school, is generally considered to be sub-standard and an area where an organisation like ours can have a significant impact. Issues include non-specialist teachers, lack of training for teachers, unimaginative realisation of the curriculum and a lack of confidence in the subject. There is a notable lack of uptake of music as a GCSE (despite 64% of young people considering themselves musical and music being one of their favourite pastimes (see below)), significantly lower, for example, than art. A new National Plan for Music was implemented in 2023 and new Music Hub regions implemented from September 2024.

Sistema-inspired programmes

Sistema Norwich grew out of a national, UK government initiative (In Harmony) that sought to apply the principles of El Sistema in an English context. Within the UK there are 8 Sistema-inspired programmes, including programmes in Scotland and Wales. Sistema has an international dimension, with programmes throughout Europe and the world.

National economy

The narrative around the worsening economic picture, with a higher cost of living, rising inflation, greater use of food banks and a widening gap between rich and poor, all speaks to a greater need and opportunity for arts interventions around health and social mobility, versus pressure on funding.

Place making and Norwich 2040

The concept of placemaking has been a growing national initiative and part of Norwich's make up for over 20 years. The approach is rooted in community-based participation, and brings together diverse people, including professionals, elected officials, local groups, residents, and businesses, to improve a community's cultural, economic, social and environmental situation. Norwich 2040 provides a vision for the city, with 'a creative city' one of five key themes.

The status of the arts

How the arts are regarded varies across different sectors, policymakers and the general public. More work is needed to test this and advocate for the arts.

- There is a trend towards a reduction in the presence of arts subjects in the curriculum (e.g. the English Baccalaureate, which has no arts subjects in it)
- In 2023, the creative industries made up about 5% of the UK economy (£126bn) and employed over two million people (7% of UK jobs)
- Music is young people's favourite pastime, with 32% classing it as their favourite activity. 64% consider themselves musical and 90% listen to music every week (with 97% engaging with music in some way in any given week)
- 24% of people do not engage in the arts at all and 15% only engage once a year

Achievements and performance in 2023/24

23/24 was focused on continuing to develop and build the new Sistema Norwich model, whilst increasing the financial stability for our work and undertaking longer-term planning. Reduced staff capacity, as a result of measures implemented to support financial sustainability, meant that only existing programmes of work could be maintained and developing a forward plan for the charity only started in Sep 24, when the charity was able to increase capacity.

A focus on disadvantage and lack of opportunity

Sistema Norwich

- Delivered 34 weeks of music provision, offering young people 4hrs/week of tuition (1,700 tutor hours) across the key orchestral instruments.
- 82 children and young people took part, with 50 children joining the programme in Sep 23. Reduced, 5-week, induction process worked well, meaning children still got to try out different instruments but moved more quickly to starting on their chosen instrument.
- Put on four performances, including a big concert at The Fisher Centre, City of Norwich School, where all children on the programme performed, and a performance at the Norfolk & Norwich University Hospital (Youth and Crescendo Orchestras). Da Capo (beginner) children performed for the first time in March 24.
- Reinstated peer-to-peer performances in the Spring term, with solo and small group performances given by young people to their peers as part of a weekly session. Some of these were then included in concerts.
- Youth voice development work lead to leadership development being structured into general musicality and the 'other' session for Youth Orchestra children.
- New team structure implemented, with Lead Tutors identified for Strings, Concert Band and General Music, and given additional hours to support planning for their sections.
- Developed a new recruitment pathways model to support recruitment to the programme and ensure we draw from communities of highest need.
- Over 60 expressions of interest to join the programme in Sep 24.

Carnival and Outdoor Arts

- Continued to run our Youth Samba Band, supported by Norwich City Council, though reduced funding meant this only ran between January and July 24. 14 young people took part from across the city.

Other

- 13 young people offered the opportunity to perform as part of Norwich Summer Sessions Platform weeks.

To be a high performing organisation

- Fundraising work was carried out to enable the charity to rebuild its core staffing capacity. From September 24 this enabled 3 days/week of staff time to be restored.
- Strategic planning to review the charity's remit and create a development plan was postponed until the Autumn 2024.

An ethos of creativity and culture

Sistema Norwich

- Continued to develop Martineau Memorial Hall as the base of the programme.

Curriculum and extra curricular music

- Delivery in nine primary schools, including five whole school offers.
- 2,100 children received provision, with over 2,170 tutor hours of music delivery.
- 35 children across 2 schools took part in after-school clubs, delivering 70 tutor hours.
- Updated our model curriculum, including ensuring that instrument focussed lessons achieve curriculum objectives and give solid grounding in all aspects of musicality.

Carnival and Outdoor Arts

- Supported the development and delivery of the Norwich Lord Mayor's Procession for Norwich City Council, via the Norfolk Carnival Collective group.
- Continued to deliver our Samba band for young people (10+ yrs), Samba Bamba, with 12 sessions delivered and 14 young people taking part. The band took part in the Norwich Lord Mayor's Procession 2024.
- Delivered a new hybrid format for Norwich Summer Sessions 2024, combining three Thursday evenings in July with four Sunday afternoons in August. 36 acts performed over 7 weeks, with 29 of these musical acts (23 local) and 7 street theatre, supporting 97 artists overall. Although the total audience was slightly lower than in 2023 (9,500 people), when adjusted for the different weeks and number of stages it was equivalent to the same, with Sundays showing a 5% increase in audience numbers. The festival, again, achieved very high approval ratings, with 99% of the surveyed audience rating the event at 7+ out of 10.
- 10 up and coming artists/bands performed as part of the Summer Sessions Platform acts.

Other

- Provided music for the Norwich Wine Festival 2024.

Partnership and collective action

Sistema Norwich

- Partnership with Norfolk & Suffolk Music Hub to deliver the programme, including in-kind staff support (tutors and coordination).
- Parental engagement maintained through sit-in sessions, lesson observations and opportunities to meet tutors. A group of parents took on organising fundraising events.
- Maintained and continued to lead the UK Sistema-inspired programmes network with two meetings over the year.

Curriculum Music

- 9 school partners for curriculum provision.
- 2 school partners for after-school clubs.

Carnival and Outdoor Arts

- Partnership with Norwich City Council, Norwich BID, Rabo de Foguete and other local carnival organisations to develop carnival and outdoor arts activity in the city.
- Partnership with New Routes supported the engagement of refugees as volunteers for Norwich Summer Sessions.
- Partnerships with Access Creative College and New Noise (a partnership of ACC, Norfolk & Suffolk Music Hub, Play Produce Promote and Pica pica, Pica pica) to support programming for the Platform stage at Norwich Summer Sessions, supporting emerging talent.

Other programme delivery

The previous table summarises our music provision during the 2023/24 academic year.

Extension activities

Whilst curriculum focussed work provides an excellent platform for introducing young people to cultural activity, including music and learning to play an instrument, long-term engagement needs a range of opportunities that extend and deepen this. These extension activities are often the focus of our programmes, so that they join up, offer progression and consistency, and ensure opportunities of access.

What we can offer by way of extension activities varies depending on the resources and opportunities available, the tutors and artists that are available, what programmes we have been able to develop and what interest there is from partners in running activities.

Key extension activities:

- Sistema Norwich

Sistema is effectively an extension opportunity. It offers young people who have had some engagement through activities such as whole class ensemble tuition (WCET) or individual music lessons, progression to a longer-term, deeper engagement in learning to play an instrument through being part of an orchestra.

Partnership with the Norfolk & Suffolk Music Hub strengthens this, with Sistema provision being part of the progression route for young people looking to engage with orchestral music, whilst we seek to further develop and improve this connectivity.

- Jazz Improvisation Group

Saturday group set up to offer Sistema children the chance to extend their experience and learn about and play some jazz.

- Performance

Performance is often part of extending activities, both taking part in performances and experiencing a range of performances. Where appropriate, projects or activities often culminate in some form of performance, or link to performance opportunities. Initiatives like Norwich Summer Sessions enable us to offer performance platforms as part of our wider provision.

Significant performance development as part of Sistema is a key area, offering the chance to work with professional musicians and ensembles, and expand the performance opportunities connected to the programme, as well as engagement with other organisations and audience development.

- Opera & other projects

Developing intensive projects that facilitate a deeper and more extensive engagement with culture, offer the opportunity to not only further artistic progression goals, but also support wider curriculum and social impact aims. Our opera work (based on the Royal Opera House's Write an Opera model) is a perfect example.

- Carnival & Samba

In the past a number of schools (e.g. Wensum Junior, West Earlham Junior) have engaged in longer-term carnival participation, often through project work in-school leading to taking part in the Norwich Lord Mayor's Procession.

We have continued to run our Youth Samba band and our goal remains to further develop this into a new youth carnival group, which could include costume and dance elements.

Impact

Evaluation and Monitoring

Evaluation and monitoring is vital for all the programmes and projects we run. At times we have had the resources to commission larger pieces of evaluation work, particularly in support of measuring the impact of Sistema provision, such as engaging the University of East Anglia Department of Psychology to assess the Teen Sistema Pilot, in 2014. Putting a comprehensive, long-term evaluation framework into place, and commissioning support for this, is a priority for the Sistema programme, to be able to better demonstrate the impact that our work has on participants.

Our first step has been to make our own evaluation and monitoring more robust, by incorporating the evaluation methodology developed by Nucleo, the Sistema-inspired programme based in North Kensington (London), who in turn have been working with Soundsense (a national association for community music).

Norfolk Community Arts Limited has considerable experience of measuring impact, including a raft of evaluative measures to support measuring social impact. Typical approaches include:

- demographic information at registration
- questionnaires at the beginning, end and key monitoring points of projects
- verbal feedback at the end of sessions
- self-assessment approaches, such as Shooting Star
- tutor evaluation, assessment and input
- focus group discussions
- one-to-one interviews
- tracking young people over time
- portfolios of photos and video
- youth panels / forums

We look at impact through four lenses that enable us to frame the aim of improving lives - the key differences we are looking to achieve, across artistic and social, individual and community. Our evaluation feeds into our targets and priorities for 24/25 and beyond (see next section).

Artistic development and lived experience of culture

Developing proficiency – Building experience – Growing creativity

This is about ensuring our work builds artistic proficiency and experience:

- Sistema participation had an 89% attendance level and 90% retention.
- All Sistema participants felt they had improved their knowledge (82% score increase) and 82% their instrumental playing (115% score increase). 90% of parents felt their children had improved in these areas (70% score increase).
- Though practice remains the least enjoyable area for young people, 82% felt they had improved (70% score increase), and 92% felt their performing had improved (83% score increase), reflected in similar figures from parents.
- Feedback and monitoring of curriculum delivery has seen consistent levels of engagement and enjoyment amongst children and young people (84%) and a significant number keen for more opportunities, e.g. after school activities (60%).
- Norwich Summer Sessions gave a platform to 13 young musicians and supported 97 artists.
- The Youth Samba Band supported the engagement of 14 young people in an ongoing music opportunity, and performed to 20,000 people.

Increasing social mobility

Creating opportunity – Raising aspirations – Overcoming barriers

- 90% of children taking part in Sistema stated that they would not otherwise be able to learn to play a musical instrument (mostly for financial reasons).
- Two thirds of Sistema children demonstrated indicators of increased aspiration (parental survey) with increases across the board around engagement, willingness to practice, sense of direction, and enthusiasm for music.
- 22% of children taking part in Sistema are on free school meals (well above the Norfolk average of 4% participating in learning a musical instrument).
- 45% came from low-income families (household incomes of below £29kpa)
- 33% of participants come from the most deprived 20% of the city (by IDACI) and 62% in the most deprived 50% of the city.
- 15% of Sistema participants are identified as having a special educational need.
- Sistema participants are 63% female, 33% male and 4% non-binary.
- 34% of Sistema participants are from ethnic minority backgrounds and another 17% from non-British, white backgrounds, indicating that the programme is drawing in more diverse participants than the figures for the city as a whole.

Building resilience and wellbeing

Developing confidence – Beating stress – Reducing isolation

- 85% of children reported being happy or very happy taking part in Sistema.
- Internal resilience – 82% of children demonstrated increased internal resilience based on measures of confidence and self-esteem (a 6% increase from last year).
- External resilience – based on statements about sense of place in the orchestra, interaction with their peers and performing, 72% of children demonstrated increased external resilience, with a higher range of change in score (a 5% increase on last year).
- Satisfaction with how we run the programme remains high, with a 4.6 out of 5 score, with transport to the venue being the key access issue.
- Other qualitative evidence for impact included parents commenting on improved behaviour at home and at school.

Creating an environment of arts participation and cultural engagement

Growing audiences – Building communities – Embedding in education

- Sistema continued to deliver regular public concerts, with good audience sizes (75-100% of venue capacity).
- Recruitment for Sistema remained close to capacity, with high levels of interest in taking part.
- Noticeable communities have grown around our Sistema Norwich and Youth Samba provision, with extended friendship groups and parent networks.
- The audience for Norwich Summer Sessions was broadly sustained with a slight (5%) increase on attendance on a Sunday, with 50% of the audience coming into Norwich specifically for the event and 45% not having been to it before.
- NORCA continued to deliver one-off concerts and events, e.g. Folk group, Tarren, at Voodoo Daddy's Showroom.

Governance, structure and management

Legal status and objects

Norfolk Community Arts Limited is a company limited by guarantee and a charity registered in England and Wales. The organisation was established in 2001. It is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association, with the charity's objects reviewed and revised in 2020. These are:

- To advance the education of the public in the arts (including music, dance, visual art, computer art, creative writing and theatre);
- To promote the beneficial effects of arts participation for health;
- To promote the use of the arts for community capacity building, and urban and rural regeneration;
- To provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation and leisure-time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended, by providing and assisting in the provision of facilities for the performance, rehearsal and practice of and other participation in the arts;
- To further such other charitable purposes as the Charity may from time to time decide.

In October 2022, the name of the charity was changed from NORCA and Sistema in Norwich Limited to Norfolk Community Arts Limited.

Public benefit

The trustees have a duty to report on how our organisation's charitable objects have been carried out, for the public benefit, and to follow the guidance from the Charity Commission on the provision of Public benefit requirement under the Charities Act 2011, and the Trustees confirm that they have complied with this duty.

Under the Objects of the charity, the types of benefit that the objects promote are to:

- Advance participation in and appreciation of beneficiaries in a variety of artistic forms, including music, drama, dance, carnival and media;

- Provide access to artistic activity where there may have been some barrier to participation;
- Provide educational, personal and group development opportunities for beneficiaries through specific training programmes and by participation in artistic activities; and
- Facilitate social integration and cohesion by providing opportunities for people from different backgrounds to participate in artistic activities together, fostering a better understanding of each other's backgrounds and cultures.

We demonstrate how we have met our principal objectives in our Strategic Report, by explaining why we focus on people facing disadvantage and subsequently reporting on our direct practice, work, policy and achievements with and on behalf of these people. People experiencing disadvantage face challenges that affect their physical and mental well-being. They are likely to have less opportunity and achieve less over their lives than other people. For this reason, we prioritise our work on their needs, so we can have the maximum positive impact and bring lasting change, not just for them but for our entire society.

Understanding and measuring our impact is of vital importance. It is critical in ensuring we achieve our mission of supporting people experiencing disadvantage to thrive, flourish and have better lives.

Access and opportunity

The charity runs a mixture of closed and open activity. Whilst open programmes can be accessed by the general public, closed programmes are focused on particular groups or communities. Where we can, we emphasise the widest possible engagement, as part of our ethos of social inclusion. Most beneficiaries are usually resident within Norfolk, particularly within the bounds of the City of Norwich, but we now have programmes of work in Cambridge and are in the process of discussing provision (or supporting provision) at other locations in England.

Governance, structure and management

The Trustee Board are the legal directors of the company. Membership of the Board of Trustees is under review, but there is currently no fixed term of office, with Trustees serving until they decide to step down. The Trustee Board has the responsibility for the governance and strategic direction of the charity, ensuring that it upholds its ethos and values and delivers its key objectives.

The Trustee Board understands that good governance is fundamental to the success of the charity and recognises the need for continuous review and improvement. The trustees regularly review the Charity's governance, based on the seven principles of the Charity Governance Code, with the findings either fed into the management process or the business planning process.

Norfolk Community Arts Limited complies with its governing documents and all relevant governance-related legislation, and meets the requirements of charity regulators and best governance practice.

Operational management is delegated by the trustees to the Executive Director, who is accountable to the Trustee Board for its stewardship of the charity. The Executive Director attends Board and Committee meetings, with other member of the management team attending as needed.

Recruitment and appointment of trustees (including any constitutional provisions)

Our trustee recruitment process seeks to engage and sustain a combination of specialists and generalists, to ensure that a full range of skills are included on the board for excellent governance. It is also important for us to enrol trustees who subscribe to, and are able to reinforce, our culture, our mission, policies and procedures. Our induction process involves supplying important documentation (job description for the role, most recent business plan, governing document, organisational structure, project archive report, current projects report) followed by a meeting with the Chair, deputy or other designated person, for familiarisation sessions on Norfolk Community Arts Limited's finance and existing/pending programmes and projects. New trustees are invited to visit a selection of projects to meet staff and participants and to attend a trustees' meeting as an observer. We are also investigating training for trustees to support our commitment to excellent governance.

Trustees are appointed through a transparent and rigorous recruitment and selection process and are elected by members at a trustees meeting. The recruitment of a number of young trustees is a key objective, as part of demonstrating our ongoing commitment to ensuring young people take part in the decisions that affect them.

Trustees deploy a wide range of skills, knowledge and experience essential to good governance, and the balance of expertise is kept under review. Collectively, the Trustee Board must demonstrate responsible leadership and judgement.

Trustees, Committee Members, the Chief Executive and the senior leadership team are expected to behave with the utmost integrity and professionalism, and at all times, to demonstrate their commitment to the goals and values of the charity.

All our trustees give their time voluntarily, as regards their position as trustee, and receive no rewards or benefits from Norfolk Community Arts Limited for the role. There is, however, provision in our constitution to pay trustees (so long as the number of trustees so engaged is a minimum). This was put in place to enable us to engage artists as trustees who might also at some time do some professional work for the organisation. For 2023/24, no such payments took place.

The Trustee Board held 5 full board meetings during the period, along with a half-day planning/strategy session, to review the work of the charity and consider the future. The slightly greater number of board meetings than normal (quarterly) was reflective of the need for greater Trustee scrutiny, oversight and decision-making during a financially challenging period for the charity. Trustees who served during the year are listed on p48.

Young trustees

Our young trustees will be drawn from our services and participate at Board meetings, trustee strategic days, as well as being involved in the recruitment of trustees and members of the senior leadership team. Young trustees will not have legal responsibilities or voting rights, but trustees will pay close attention to their input and advice. Their contributions will help shape the future direction of the organisation and its strategy.

Safety and Safeguarding

Norfolk Community Arts Limited is fully committed to ensuring the safety of all participants and staff, with comprehensive risk assessments for all activities, and all the appropriate policies and procedures. We take Safeguarding very seriously, with all staff and volunteers undertaking a DBS check, alongside annual training from Norfolk Safeguarding Children's Partnership, annual review of our Safeguarding policy and membership of our local Safeguarding partnership.

Delegation and sub-groups

The Board maintains a written schedule of matters reserved for the Trustee Board and sub-groups, which clearly defines specific areas for delegation. The small number of Trustees and need for additional meetings, meant that sub-groups did not operate during the year, however sub-groups that can operate include the Finance and Fundraising sub-groups, the Sistema Norwich Steering Group (to support Sistema development and delivery) and the Martineau Memorial Hall Working Group (to support the operation of the building and developing its use).

NORCA ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

Employees

Norfolk Community Arts Limited believes that we can only achieve our strategic objectives by attracting and retaining skilled and experienced people across a range of functions. To this end, we are committed to ensuring that access to employment opportunities, training, reward and progression provides equality of opportunity for all employees.

Our staff development plan builds on previous work and focuses on workforce planning and development, and developing an action plan to support employee wellbeing. Measures we are looking to implement include:

- a training programme for all staff
- induction for new tutors
- supporting learning opportunities outside our own provision and which employees have identified
- offering coaching and mentoring to staff in relation to their professional duties
- other wellbeing oriented offers and opportunities, e.g. weekly yoga class, etc.

In October 2021, the role of Operations Manager became a temporary job share, to enable the post holder (Cathie Davies) to work remotely.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) is a central component of our strategic intent, and the new plan will seek to enhance EDI throughout the organisation, taking a holistic view that considers all stakeholders both internally and externally, assessing how we can best enhance policy, practice and procedure in the context of EDI, as well as a focus on the engagement and well-being of staff and volunteers. Key focus areas in the field of Equality, Diversity and Inclusion will be identified with a two-year action plan with specific objectives around what we want to achieve.

Volunteers

The support of volunteers is invaluable to our work. We ended the year with 48 active volunteers.

We continue to expand and diversify our volunteer programme, to ensure that volunteering at the charity is accessible and attractive to all. In the year ahead, we will be investing in the volunteer journey across our organisation, to ensure that our respected and valued volunteers have the very best experience with us.

Fundraising and supporter engagement

Fundraising and supporter engagement is becoming more and more important as part of our work, particularly for Sistema Norwich in its new format as a stand-alone, community-based programme. We continue to look to develop long-term relationships with our supporters and partners, ensuring we value and maximise the contribution of every individual, group or organisation.

The majority of our voluntary income last year was raised through Trusts and Foundations, individual support through regular or single gifts, legacies, support from companies, donations from organisations, and individual fundraising initiatives. We are hugely thankful for every gift and contribution.

We proactively comply with the Fundraising Regulator's voluntary regulation scheme, aligning all of our fundraising policies and practices with the Fundraising Codes of Conduct, along with complying with all related legislation and marketing regulations.

The majority of our fundraising activity has been led by staff at Norfolk Community Arts Limited. Most fundraising work is carried out by the Executive Director, though we have, at times, engaged freelance fundraiser support for the development of a number of bids. As part of our business plan development we will continue to review and refine our fundraising strategy, including the resources needed to most effectively delivery any resulting strategy. We expect an increased reliance on supporter engagement ('Friends', business supporters and fundraising events), and Trust and Foundation income.

We proactively monitor any fundraising undertaken on our behalf to comply with the Fundraising Regulator's voluntary regulation scheme. In the past year, we have not uncovered any failure by staff, volunteers, professional fundraisers or commercial participators to comply with these schemes and standards. We received no complaints relating to fundraising activities.

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Norfolk Community Arts Limited has put in place policies and procedures to ensure we comply with the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (GDPR), following a review of how we handle information relating to our beneficiaries, supporters and staff, to ensure we are always honest and open about how we handle personal data and are taking appropriate measures to keep it safe and secure.

Remuneration

The senior management of the charity is the Executive Director, and the remuneration for this post is set by the trustees and reviewed on an annual basis.

We are a Living Wage employer and our pay system is underpinned by the Living Wage Foundation recommendations. We are committed to continuing to implement increases in the Living Wage, as directed by the Foundation.

Related parties and other key partnerships and organisations

In pursuit of our charitable objectives we work and collaborate with a range of other organisations and related parties. These are detailed below:

Related parties

Rabo de Foguete: Rabo de Foguete is a carnival and outdoor arts organisation run by Marcus Patteson. It is the vehicle through which Marcus delivers his own professional artistic practice and music specialisms, engaging a wider group of local musicians, makers, performers and carnival artists. This currently includes running the Marina Theatre Samba Band in Lowestoft. The development of Rabo has been supported by Norfolk Community Arts Limited as part of our carnival and outdoor arts remit, and the organisation is a key partner in delivering that activity.

Key partner organisations

Norfolk & Suffolk Music Hub: Norfolk Community Arts Limited has been a partner in the Music Hub since it was established in 2012. The Hub has been a vital source of income for Sistema Norwich, as well as linking the programme to the wider world of music education in Norfolk, progression pathways and other opportunities. That partnership has further developed, with the hub taking on oversight of the Sistema Norwich programme from 1 April 2023, becoming a core supporter, and linking the programme into their wider ensemble offer. NORCA has been a schools delivery partner for the Music Hub since 2012, however in 2020/21 they passed over the work we were delivering for them to us to manage directly. Since Jan 2023, we have once again been contracted to provide tutors for school delivery. The Hub also supports us by promoting our activities and concerts through their website and newsletters.

Norwich City Council: The City Council has been a key partner for the whole time that the charity has been in existence, including support for Waterloo Park Pavilion (2002-2006), our leadership of the community section of the City of Culture Bid (2011), Play Rangers (2009-2011) and the Sure Futures Consortium (2006-2008). Carnival has been a key area of partnership work, particularly focussed on the Norwich Lord Mayor's Procession, including delivering the Procession for them in 2023. Norfolk Community Arts Limited has been a core/regularly-funded organisation for a number of years, a key partner in recent Arts Council England funded projects, and continues to play a role in the cultural visioning for the city.

Norwich Business Improvement District (BID): Another important local partner, we work with Norwich BID to deliver a range of activity to promote the city centre, including a summer festival of music and street performance that runs through July and August. 2024 was our eleventh year running the festival, which has become an important feature of the city's annual calendar, and the second year under its rebrand as Norwich Summer Sessions (formerly Head Out Not Home). As well as being a platform for local bands, an opportunity to bring in national acts and a platform to support our work around diversity, we have also developed an element, through other local partnerships, to support up-and-coming acts. Other initiatives we have worked with Norwich BID on include programming live music for Norwich Wine Week, and creating and running Christmas Trails.

UK Sistema-inspired Programmes Network: Norfolk Community Arts Limited facilitates and organises this network of programmes that deliver Sistema-inspired programmes, with the aim of supporting the sharing of best practice and fostering partnership between the programmes. The network currently includes key programmes in England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland. As capacity allows we also look to engage in the European and world-wide networks (e.g. Sistema Europe).

Partnership and partner working is important to our ethos, and we have established and maintain good relationships with local arts and community arts organisations to achieve our goals and ambitions as a charity. These include Access Creative College, the Garage, Norwich Arts Centre, Creative Arts East, Musical Keys, Lost in Translation Circus, Young Norfolk Arts Trust, the National Centre for Writing, Norfolk and Norwich Festival and Norwich School. We have long-standing links with most schools in Norwich (particularly primary schools), working closely with a number through Sistema and curriculum music delivery (e.g. George White Junior School, Mousehold Infant School and West Earlham Junior School).

Environmental statement

Norfolk Community Arts Limited works at a community and local level, seeking to minimise our impact on the environment through our environmental policy. Where our activities are most likely to cause a detrimental effect is mainly through transportation of people and goods and the operation of an office. We undertake to minimise our environmental load as much as possible. We elect to work largely within the City of Norwich and Greater Norwich, with locally based practitioners, minimising the environmental impact of transportation, through shorter journeys, lift shares and encouraging cycling. As our company vans reach the end of their lives we will take full account of environmental considerations in replacing them.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The Trustees have responsibility for ensuring that the charity maintains comprehensive risk management systems and that appropriate actions are being taken to manage and mitigate risks.

We have a formal risk management strategy that provides a robust framework through a risk register model, and subsequently managing risk across the charity. Norfolk Community Arts Limited has an established system of internal controls that governs all of its operations. These controls have been designed to provide a reasonable level of assurance against the risk of error, fraud and inappropriate or ineffective use of resources. The Governance Risk Register is regularly reviewed by the Trustee Board to ensure transparency and challenge are inherent in the system.

The principal risks that have been identified in the Risk Register through their likelihood and impact on the charity are shown in table 1.

Financial review

Summary

Total income received for the year was £314,163 (2023: £285,717), which included £219,738 of restricted income (2023: £111,128) and £94,425 of unrestricted income (2023: £174,589). Expenditure totalled £322,746 (2023: £417,039), of which £216,818 was restricted (2023: £106,128) and £105,928 was unrestricted (2023: £310,911). This resulted in a deficit to funds totalling £8,583 (2023: £131,322). The carried forwards funds total £38,726 (2023: £47,309), of which £7,920 is restricted (2023: £5,000) and £30,806 is unrestricted (2023: £42,309).

Reserves Policy

The trustees will confirm and review on an annual basis the policy in respect of the reserves held by Norfolk Community Arts Limited, and to ensure that these are normally maintained at a minimum level equivalent to the essential activities of the organisation for a minimum three months, should all other income fail to materialise.

The charity’s reserves target is £100,000. As at 31 August 2024, free reserves, being unrestricted funds less fixed assets, totalled a deficit of £33,328 (2023: deficit of £59,660).

Trustees have authorised a lower level of reserves in the unprecedented circumstances facing the organisation, in order to safeguard the future of the charity and delivery of its services to its beneficiaries.

Extraordinary use of the reserves

In normal circumstances the reserve funds will not be used for the charity’s day-to-day expenditure. The trustees may, by exception, allocate reserve funding to:

- Special projects requiring material financial commitments greater than normal revenue income may support; and
- Any other purpose which is appropriate for the maintenance of and/or growth of the organisation and for which a business case is presented to trustees.

Provided in each case that:

- The allocation of reserves shall be subject to resolution by the Board of Trustees in a meeting of the Board, which shall include electronic meetings and votes; and
- The relevant investment from reserves shall be recovered over succeeding financial periods (and any decision by the Board to so allocate shall be subject to a plan for the recovery of the reserves being made at the same time).

Investment Policy

Norfolk Community Arts Limited’s funding is typically on a short-term basis of 3 years or less, with the majority of funding being annual awards or funds from the provision of services. The organisation has no permanent endowment and provides for capital expenditure within annual budgets. The financial pressures created by the pandemic, along with investment in the charity’s capacity, have reduced the funds available from the Janson Legacy meaning it is unlikely we will be in the position to invest funds. The policy is to retain funds as cash and place them in bank deposits at the best rate obtainable, taking into account the security of the deposit takers.

Small Companies Exemption

In preparing this report, the trustees have taken advantage of the small companies exemptions provided by section 415A of the Companies Act 2006.

2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a ‘true and fair view’ which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or

4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities.

I draw attention to Note 1b in the financial statements, which indicates the charity is continuing to face financial challenges and has had to commit a large proportion of the reserves to continue the core operations. They have encountered difficulties in raising funds and re-establishing the financial stability of the charity. The charity has secured funding in the short term to enable it continue in operation, however uncertainty exists over securing future funding. As stated in Note 1b, these events or conditions, along with other matters as set forth in Note 1b, indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the charity’s ability to continue as a going concern.

I have no other concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes forming part of the Financial Statements
for the year ended 31 August 2024

1 Accounting policies

The Charity is a company limited by guarantee and has no share capital. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £1 per member of the charity. The registered office is Martineau Memorial Hall, 21 Colegate, Norwich, NR3 1BN. The registered company number is 04278192 and the registered charity number is 1089916.

In October 2022, the name of the charity was changed from NORCA and Sistema in Norwich Limited to Norfolk Community Arts Limited.

a) Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019) - Charities SORP (FRS 102).

Norfolk Community Arts Limited meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy note(s).

The financial statements are prepared in pounds sterling and are rounded to the nearest £.

b) Going concern

The Trustees have considered the going concern basis of preparation of the financial statements noting the ongoing challenge of raising funding, liquidity and cash flow, and the need to continue the progress in re-establishing the financial stability of the charity.

The fundraising climate remains challenging, and with a lot of NORCA’s work (including Sistema Norwich’s delivery model) reliant on funding, that remains an overriding issue for the charity’s current position as regards developing financial stability. Funders continue to see a high level of demand for their funds, and as a result, many are revising their priorities and changing the way they distribute funds. That means that, as well as doing more work around raising funds, there is an imperative to diversify income streams, and though this has also been impacted by recent challenges, including reduced school budgets, the reliance on short-term funding makes it very difficult to develop any long-term resilience, even if the trend is one of an improving position.

Significant progress has been made to rebuild Sistema Norwich’s funding portfolio, including grants from the Garfield Weston Foundation, Anguish’s Educational Foundation, Norwich Freeman’s Charity, Foyle Foundation and others. The steps taken to stabilise the charity’s finances (investing reserves, reducing the scale of the Sistema Norwich programme, reducing staffing levels and making other cost savings) have been successful in providing a platform for regrowing its work and income. Our partnership with the Norfolk & Suffolk Music Hub to deliver Sistema Norwich and wider music education work, continues to be important, with an ongoing commitment to support Sistema Norwich both through commissioned funds and ‘in kind’ staff time, even as we are able to increase our income and reduce the Music Hub contribution. The annual nature of funding cycles, with no long-term commitment, and the financial climate means that the position will continue to be challenging for the foreseeable future and will be closely monitored by Trustees.

A lot of the focus of the last year has been continuing to develop and grow the Sistema Norwich programme. We have maintained our other work, including Norwich Summer Sessions and carnival, and started to increase the use of Martineau Memorial Hall as a venue for arts activity and an office for like-minded organisations. In the light of the current position, the Trustees have put considerable attention on developing strategy and income, to create an action plan and budget that will enable the continued stability and growth of the charity’s financial position. 24/25 has seen the charity able to slightly increase the capacity of our core team and our ambition is to continue this growth (having downscaled it in 23/24 to reduce costs). Trustees will also work to rebuild NORCA’s reserves and restore them to the target level of 3 months of running costs.

BUDGET FOR 25/26 - This budget means that we continue to look to draw in funds that have not yet been secured, both through fundraising, other income development and the sale of assets that we no longer need. As part of this the Trustees have been working to renew the remit and scope of the charity and by September 2025 will put in place a new 3-year business plan. Though the year ahead has considerable challenges, the projected budget for 2025/26 shows that with successful and achievable income development the charity will have enough resources for the next 12 months, while we work to rebuild and reassess the longer-term future of the charity.

At the date of these accounts being approved, June 2025, the charity has sufficient cash to meet liabilities as they fall due, however in the short to medium term, being a period of not less than 12 months from the date of approval of these financial statements, the charity will seek to manage its costs and realise its assets, until such time that consistent external funding is secured.

As with the charity placing reliance on external funding, there can be no certainty that this funding will be secured hence creating a material uncertainty related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the entity's ability to continue as a going concern. At the date of approving these financial statements however, the Trustees are comfortable that the charity will receive the required funding. On this basis the Trustees believe that the accounts should be prepared on a going concern basis.

c) Fund accounting

Funds held by the charity are:

- Unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.
- Designated funds which are unrestricted funds earmarked by the trustees for particular purposes.
- Restricted funds which are subject to restrictions on their expenditure imposed by the donor or through the terms of an appeal.

Investment income, gains and losses are allocated to the appropriate fund.

d) Income

Income is recognised when the charity has entitlement to the funds, any performance conditions attached to the items of income have been met, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Where income has related expenditure (as with fundraising or contract income), the income and related expenditure are reported gross in the Statement of Financial Activities.

Donations, grants and gifts are recognised when receivable. In the event that a donation is subject to fulfilling performance conditions before the charity is entitled to the funds, the income is deferred and not recognised until it is probable that those conditions will be fulfilled in the reporting period. Income from Gift Aid tax reclaims is recognised for any donations with relevant Gift Aid certificates recognised in income for the year. Any amounts of Gift Aid not received by the year end are accounted for in income and accrued income in debtors.

Income from government and other grants are recognised when the charity has entitlement to the funds, any performance conditions attached to the grants have been met, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Income received in advance for a future fundraising event or for a grant received relating to the following period are deferred until the criteria for income recognition are met.

for the year ended 31 August 2024 (continued)

d) Income (continued)

Interest on deposit funds held is included when receivable and the amount can be measured reliably by the charity which is normally upon notification of the interest paid or payable by the bank.

Sponsorship from events, fundraising and events registration fees are recognised in income when the event takes place. Trading income is recognised on point of sale for both donated and purchased goods.

Rental income is recognised in the period to which the rental property is provided to the tenants.

For legacies, entitlement is taken on a case by case basis at the later of the date when the Charity is aware that probate has been granted, and either:

- the estate has been finalised and estate accounts have been received by the charity; or
- when a distribution is received from the estate.

Receipt of a legacy is only considered probable when the amount can be measured reliably.

e) Expenditure and irrecoverable VAT

Expenditure is recognised once there is a legal or constructive obligation to make a payment to a third party, it is probable that settlement will be required and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis under the following headings:

Expenditure on charitable activities comprises of the costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries, activities undertaken to further the purpose of the charity and their associated support costs.

Governance costs are those costs incurred in connection with the compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity. Irrecoverable VAT is charged as a cost against the activity for which the expenditure was incurred.

f) Tangible fixed assets

Assets which are intended to be of ongoing use to the Charity in carrying out its activities are capitalised as fixed assets. All purchased fixed assets are initially recorded at cost.

Assets donated for use by the charity are recognised as income when receivable and capitalised at their open market value.

g) Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated so as to write off the cost of an asset, less its estimated residual value, over the useful economic life of that asset as follows:

Fixtures and fittings	-25% Straight line
Fixtures and fittings - Mpods	-10% Straight line
Media equipment	-25% Straight line
Vehicles	-33% Straight line
Musical instruments	-33% Straight line
Leasehold improvements	- On a straight line basis over the period of the lease, up to the break clause, i.e. 5 years

h) Debtors

Trade and other debtors are recognised at the settlement amount after any trade discount offered.

Prepayments are valued at the amount prepaid net of any discounts due. Accruing income and tax recoverable is included at the best estimate of the amounts receivable at the balance sheet date.

i) Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and cash in hand includes cash and short term highly liquid investments with a short maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition or opening of the deposit or similar account.

j) Creditors

Creditors are recognised where the charity has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably. Creditors are normally recognised at their settlement amount after allowing for any discounts due.

k) Pensions

The Charity provides a defined contribution pension scheme, whereby the charity and its staff each fund the scheme, managed by a third party provider, the assets of which are held by the provider separately from the assets of the charity. The pension charge in the financial statements represents the amounts payable by the charity to the fund in respect of the period.

l) Operating leases

Operating leases are recognised over the period of which the lease falls due.

Benefits received and receivable as an incentive to sign an operating lease are recognised on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

m) Taxation

The company is considered to pass the tests set out in Paragraph 1 Schedule 6 of the Finance Act 2010 and therefore it meets the definition of a charitable company for UK corporation tax purposes. Accordingly, the company is potentially exempt from taxation in respect of income or capital gains received within categories covered by Chapter 3 Part 11 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 or Section 256 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, to the extent that such income or gains are applied exclusively to charitable purposes.

n) Volunteers

The value of services provided by volunteers has not been included in these financial statements. Further details of their contribution is provided in the Trustees report.

o) Financial instruments

The charity only has financial assets and financial liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value. Fixed assets are recorded at depreciated historical cost.

p) Critical accounting estimates

There are no judgements or critical accounting estimates which have been used in the preparation of these financial statements
