Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The object of FOSM shall be the education of the public by promotion, support, assistance and improvement of the Sedgwick Museum in co-operation with the management and staff.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The FOSM hosted a series of fundraising geological talks given by staff in the University of Cambridge and elsewhere. The Society organised fundraising educational geology field trips, to Iceland and locally. There were two fundraising social events: an Xmas Party and Annual Dinner.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The Trustees are aware of, and follow, the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The FOSM has enhanced the geological knowledge and understanding of the many people who listened to the lectures and came on the field trips. The FOSM donation of £6,000 to the Sedgwick Museum provided support for 4 student placements working across the Museum for the public benefit, including production of a display showcasing women in geology to encourage young people into science careers; reviewing/revising family-friendly labels; reviewing/revising the handling/teaching collection and incorporating new material; and curating a recently acquired large fossil collection.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The financial position of FOSM is sound. Cash funds at year-end = £33,915. The closing balance of the Barclays community account = £20,601. Of this sum, £11,250 is held in reserve for payments due for future fund-raising trips. Therefore, the unencumbered balance is £9,350. The closing balance of the Cambridge Building Society = £13,314.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The large sum held in reserve in the Cambridge Building Society was due to a very large donation many years ago. The policy now is to gradually shift money to the current account to maintain the current level of annual donation to the Sedgwick Museum
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Cambridge Building Society, £13,314
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	N/A
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	None
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	None

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The Friends of Sedgwick Museum

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of The Friends of Sedgwick Museum (the Charity) for the year ended 31st March 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
