Governing Document

The Charity is a trust constituted under a Trust Deed dated November 15, 2001 as amended by a deed dated January 6, 2013.

Trustees are appointed by the existing trustees.

Objects

The objects of the Charity are the propagation and practice of the Christian Faith as described in the historic Reformed confessions such as the Westminster Confession of Faith.

Activities

In planning activities the trustees have considered the Commission's guidance on public benefit and, in particular, the specific guidance on charities for the advancement of religion. For the Charity to achieve its objects satisfying public benefit requirements, the trustees have determined that the Charity's principal activities necessitate gathering in person for the provision of charitable services.

Blackburn Evangelical Presbyterian Church ("Blackburn EPC") is committed to enabling as many people as possible to worship and serve the living God, and to be instructed in the Christian faith. Services of public worship are open to all without charge, and are prominently advertised on the noticeboard outside the church building in Blackburn, and in the Christian press. Recordings of sermons are regularly uploaded and freely available to all via the Internet.

To facilitate this work it is important that the fabric of its premises is maintained.

To conduct the full range of its activities the church relies extensively on volunteer support.

Achievements and Performance

During the course of the year Blackburn EPC conducted over one hundred services of public worship at its church building at Fecitt Brow, Blackburn. Weekly Bible studies and prayer meetings were maintained, and the Lord's Supper was observed monthly.

Pastoral visitation was undertaken by the minister, the Rev. Norman Green, being the only trustee who is also a paid office holder.

The three charity trustees are also Elders of the church and attend regular meetings of the Presbytery of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in England and Wales, of which this congregation is a member.

Financial Review

Accounts have been prepared on a cash accounting basis in accordance with Section 133 of the Charities Act 2011, reporting receipts and payments with a statement of assets and liabilities. Under this convention, asset sales and purchases are classified as receipts and payments, but not as incoming and expended resources.

Total incoming resources of £26,849 (2020/21, £28,359) for the year include donations of £24,198 (including a grant of £4,500) and Gift Aid tax refunds of £2,651. As is usual for a charity of this type and size, a significant proportion of the total expenditure of £35,173 (2020/21, £36,418) relates to stipend and ministerial support.

Resources expended exceeded incoming resources by £8,324 (2020/21 £8,059), the deficit being funded from reserves.

Investment assets are invested for capital gains, to be liquidated to fund expected future deficits. To support cashflow, investments to the value of £5,989 were sold during the accounting period.

Reserves Policy

The policy of the trustees is not to accumulate reserves but to use reserves in the promotion of the Charity's objects, and maintain a balance on unrestricted funds that equates to at least six months' unrestricted payments to cover unforeseen situations that may arise from time to time. In light of the main risks facing the Charity, the trustees consider the current level of reserves and their use (as required) to fund annual deficits satisfactory.

Signed by all Trustees

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Blackburn Evangelical Presbyterian Church

I report on the accounts of the Church for the year ended 31st March 2022, which are set out on pages 3 to 5.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
