The Trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2024. The Trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015).

We present our Annual Report for 2023/24. Sikh Nari Manch UK, the registered charity has been in operation for 25 years. We have been operating the: Northside Welcome Centre for 19 years now, which continues to selflessly serve the wider communities, irrespective of background Mata Tripta Darbar, also for 19 years, continues to provide inclusive opportunities for worship in the Sikh tradition.

We are pleased with how the past year has gone, we have continued with the progress of providing a warm welcome space for the community where they feel welcomed to share and feel connected. We have continued to provide a comprehensive timetable of health and well-being activities, such as: Arts and Crafts, Tai Chi, Computer Classes, Mindfulness and Healthy Eating, as well as coffee morning and providing Advice and Guidance.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

Charitable Objects

The principal activity of the charitable company during the year was that of:

- empowering women from all ages and backgrounds in the interests of social welfare with the objective of raising their self-esteem through organising educational, spiritual, and recreational activities for them
- for general charitable purposes as determined by the Trustees.

This includes:

- the general mainstream 'offer' of services with the provision, maintenance, and management of a community centre, the Northside Welcome Centre (NWC) to support the social welfare of local people in need
- hosting Mata Tripta Darbar, an independent, non-political spiritual space in the Sikh tradition, named after the mother of Guru Nanak, the founder of the Sikh faith. Mata Tripta Darbar is an inclusive space that welcomes all, regardless of gender, class, age, ethnicity, background, sexuality, or culture. It is an experiential learning space providing opportunities for all to participate, serve and connect. Mata Tripta Darbar's focus is on promoting and teaching 'Naam Simran' (the treasure of meditation techniques in the Sikh tradition) to facilitate happiness, wellbeing, and personal transformation.

Our objectives draw upon the roots of the charity as a Sikh faith-based organisation but serve the whole of humanity in line with the principle of 'Sarbat Da Bhalla' (welfare of all). We are inspired by the four doors to the Golden Temple, which are open to people from all directions and all backgrounds, similarly, the centre is open to all. Locally we are known as the 'Welcome' centre.

Each year the Board reviews the objectives and activities to ensure that they continue to reflect our charitable objects. In conducting this review, the trustees have considered the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

Community Inclusion At Our Heart

An important aspect of our work is community welfare and education. All of our community facilities and activities including classes, health and wellbeing initiatives, and events are open to all and widely advertised. We are proud of our track record of being a truly inclusive organisation. It is our aim to create a harmonious, vibrant, and empowered local community with NWC at the heart of a flourishing neighbourhood. It is our mission to continue to serve our locality in the spirit of graceful self-less service, which is of high quality and calibre, non-judgemental, and without any expectation.

A cross-cutting theme of our work is the Interfaith and community cohesion work we do on a very local grassroots level. This is implicit in all that we do as we have people of different backgrounds accessing our services and attending our events. It is often through the informal and unstructured exchanges between people that the opportunities for friendships and better understanding can occur in an organic and meaningful way.

Plans for the Future and Public benefit

Continue to make improvements to the building and facilities. This is a priority for the Trustees in the coming years in order to improve the experience for our Service-Users and improve community usage and potential income generation. We have a number of capital funding applications that are pending decisions to improve the facilities and general condition of the building. This will enable us to deliver an improved experience and increase the range and reach of our services.

Longer-term projects are to:

- construct a two-storey extension in the rear yard to create a community hall and meeting spaces on both floors- install damp-proofing measures to improve community use of the basement level
- improve the access to the first floor and basement by re-configuring the staircase, improving means of escape, and installing a platform lift to the basement- improving the frontage by leveling the roofline by installing a pitch to the flat roof of the extension and installing an architectural -glass porch which will serve as a new welcoming entrance.

Revenue funding and income generation

The charity will continue to operate in a financially prudent way with day-to-day spending and procurement of goods and services through value-for-money practices. Grant funding applications are being made for activities that support our mission. Income generation through fundraising, room hire opportunities and sales of small items will be ongoing.

The Trustees are also scoping the feasibility of investment income to future-proof the charity through a property and affordable housing portfolio. This is at a preliminary stage of development, subject to the availability of suitable site(s) and finance.

Use of Volunteers

The concept of Seva (selfless service) in the Sikh tradition is an essential component of our work. Seva can be practiced through volunteering and we actively promote opportunities for people to give their time and skills to further our mission.

In addition, for those people looking for employment, volunteering provides valuable work experience to support job applications. We have 0.8 FTE paid full-time member of staff and so volunteers form the backbone of the charity. We have over 30 people regularly giving their time and skills including the Board members. This equated to well over 2,000 hours of volunteer time which equates to over. £20,000 of added value.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Partnerships and grants

Places of Welcome

We received funding from Albert Hunt Trust to cover costs towards the running of the Northside Welcome Centre over the period of 12 months

ENNS funded a Micro project which was specific for the Celebration of the Kings Coronation.

ENNS also funded a 12 month holistic project titled 'Be the Best Version of Yourself ' which covered workshops such as Arts & Crafts, Physical Fitness, Coping with Stress, Understanding your Body, A better Understanding of Additional Needs, Men and Women's Health and Alternative Therapies.

IM Properties funded new equipment for our computer suite, providing the Centre with new chairs, keyboards, mice and mouse mats.

Warm Welcome Grants funded us to provide a Warm Welcome Space, giving us the ability to continue to support our weekly coffee mornings and safe space for the local community.

Inclusive Communities Fund (Heart of England) funded our 'Health and Wellness' project, providing holistic workshops for the local community.

Shared Prosperity Fund supplied funding for our 'Four Pillars of Wellness' project, which cover workshops such as Movement and Exercise, Coping with Stress, Social Interaction and Nutrition.

Partnerships

The Trustees confirm they have had due regard for the charity commission's guidance on public benefit when planning and delivering the charity's activities. The charity carries out a wide range of activities in the furtherance of its charitable aims. The trustees consider that these activities summarised below, provide benefit to both the Sikh community, in particular, Sikh women, by whom the charity was originally established and the wider community of Erdington and Greater Birmingham.

In providing public benefit, the charity runs the:

- Northside Welcome Centre - a community hub open to all, providing a lifeline for people seeking information, advice and guidance, employment support, formal and informal learning, health and wellbeing and volunteering opportunities.

- Mata Tripta Darbar - a spiritual space within the NWC, where the Sikh activities take place. It is led entirely by volunteers and an opportunity for Sikh women to provide leadership. The space provides a spiritual anchor for the charity enabling it to focus on its mission to gracefully serve the local community as a 'lighthouse' of support.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

- Mata Gujri Support Fund - we have established a discretionary fund, providing small bursaries for people to enable them to access our activities and classes. Funds are provided by 'dasvandh' (tithing) donations made by members and supporters. Support can be used towards transport, equipment, and any fees made for events on a discretionary basis by the Trustees. This year we continued to allocate a budget of £600, and we have made provision for four individuals to attend our annual retreats and workshops who wouldn't have been able to attend otherwise. Our long-term plan is to promote the fund more widely to increase donations and awards that can be made, particularly to specific people in crisis, but operate within the umbrella of SNM to keep costs to a minimum.

Supporting and Enabling Others

Over the last financial year, we have had just over 300 people attend one or more of our many services that we provided.

The clientele were of diverse background about 40% BME (black and minority ethnic) and 60% British European. Majority of the cliental were of mature age 50 plus, and majority have experienced a lot of hardship particular through the pandemic.

Many have said the Northside Welcome Centre has been a lifeline to them

Part of our strategy over the years is to be a catalyst to support grass-roots projects initiated by Sikhs and as an organisation to provide 'dasvandh' (tithing one-tenth of our annual income). Over the years, we have made donations to Comic Relief, Children in Need, Juvenile Diabetes Research Trust, Khalsa Aid, Pingalwara Charity in India, Scouts Association, and local hospices, hospitals, and other good causes. However, in line with the ethos of 'Sarbat Da Bhalla' (Welfare of All), we will support anyone who requests our help and is working towards a good cause in line with our objects. As a small organisation, we are not able to provide grants but are able to provide small donations, provide mentoring, know-how, access to our facilities, procurement, and opportunities to partner. In the past, we have supported a variety of local good causes including a local church, homeless project, food bank, small business start-ups, social enterprises and international aid appeals. Given the immense challenges of raising funds for our own charity, this year, we have supported a number of local individuals and organisations, particularly with non-financial support.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Key Achievements for the Year

The past year has been rewarding and successful, there have been plenty of positive testimonies from many of the Centre Users which is always very pleasing to see as that makes it all worthwhile for providing services at our Northside Welcome Centre.

We have continued to provide a warm welcome space for the community to come where they can feel safe and connected, make new friends and share experiences, giving them a feeling of belonging.

Our timetable of activities has been nice and varied, providing holistic services for health and well-being, services which include: Arts and Crafts, Tai Chi, Computer Classes and courses, Fitness sessions, Healthy Eating workshops, Well-being Workshops and a Warm Welcome Space alongside our Coffee Morning.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

Principal funding sources The charity's main sources of income are grants, room hire, and fundraising from individuals. Income from grants equated to £25,422.

Grants towards supporting our activities are detailed above. These grants have enabled us to continue to provide support for unemployed people, promote better health and wellbeing for vulnerable people, and services for older residents.

Investment policy

Investment policy The charity owns our freehold premises outright, which we estimate to be worth in the region of £250,000. Our cash reserves are held in deposit accounts with HSBC Bank. We are currently reviewing our banking arrangements towards an ethical financial provider, which aligns with our values. NEST is used as our pension provider.

Reserves policy

The trustees approved a Reserves Policy, which requires the charity to maintain in-hand three months operating costs in reserve. The sector average is four months. The trustees recognised this is a significant risk to the Charity and are always looking to accumulate reserves to strengthen financial resilience and for unforeseen expenditure and emergencies.

FUTURE PLANS

PLANS FOR FUTURE GROWTH

Our priorities for 2024/25 are to build the resilience and sustainability of the charity to: - re-establish connection with the Job Centre to support unemployed adults. We do not receive any financial support from the Job Centre, so will need to seek external funding for this service, which is offered freely without conditionality, judgment, or expectation

- improve our offer of support for adults with learning difficulties and disabilities through day opportunities

- develop new projects for older residents as an Age Well Mini-hub to promote independence, community, friendship, good health, and wellbeing

- continue inspiring and building the Sangat (spiritual community) to receive spiritual nourishment from our programmes and services in order to spark social action / 'Seva' (voluntary service), wellbeing, and personal transformation. Improve the facilities for the sangat.

- develop our Five Year Business Plan for 2025-2030 with a focus on further building refurbishments, capacity building, development of new provision to meet needs, and better utilisation of space to maximise income and provision of services

- strengthen the skills and expertise of the Board to deliver effective governance and inspirational and transformative leadership

- expand our core offer of services and activities, working in partnership with the community and in collaboration with partners such as Birmingham City Council, WEA, Job Centre, colleges and providers, and other local agencies.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

Governing document Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006. The governing document requires the charitable company to have at least three Trustees who must also be members. One-third of the Trustees must retire at each AGM, those longest in office retiring first. The trustees hold at least two meetings each year with majorities determining decisions.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The existing Trustees and Board members are responsible for the recruitment of new trustees and Board members. In doing so, the trustees seek the views and recommendations of the wider members and beneficiaries of the charity. Although we are a Sikh-ethos-based charity, in the tradition of the Sikh faith, the concept of Sarbat Da Bhalla (for the welfare of all), and membership is open to people of all faiths and none. The Trustees believe that this approach ensures that new trustees and Board members can be recruited based on their commitment and skills-set within the framework of 'Seva'. We are actively looking to recruit new Board members.

Organisational structure

Organisational structure

The charity Trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. The Trustees are volunteers and give their time freely as Seva (selfless service) and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits. The five trustees meet together as a body on a quarterly basis as part of a wider Board of Directors, which also includes the opportunity for a wider group of individuals to serve as non-executive or co-opted members of the Board to bring specific skills and insights to shape and inform decision-making.

The Board has also included two service users who have provided a direct link back to our beneficiaries and have championed their voice. In addition, other service users, John Bennet, Lisa Green and Lesley Smith have attended meetings and enriched our understanding of local needs. Our Centre Users help to keep us 'grounded' in the reality of the local context. They have also provided the link with the locality and representation at the local Ward Advisory Committee.

Our funding adviser, Jane Bailey is also in-attendance at some Board meetings. Jane also chairs another large local charity and is able to share good practice and provide a valuable external challenge to advise us on our continuous improvement.

Jane is actively involved in local inter-faith networks and the Birmingham Council of Faiths and brings this wider network into our orbit.

The day-to-day running of the Centre is delegated to the Development Officer who oversees a team of volunteers and any sessional workers who deliver sessions at the Centre.

Induction and training of new trustees

Following their appointment, new Trustees and Board members are introduced to their new role and given copies of the Memorandum and Articles of Association and a guide to the policies and procedures adopted by our charity, in particular the safeguarding of vulnerable adults. A number of good practice publications from the Charity Commission are also issued including the role of Trustees, guidance on charities and public benefit, and on the advancement of religion for public benefit. This ensures that new trustees are aware of the scope of their responsibilities under the Charities Act.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Sikh Nari Manch UK (All Sikh Women Org.) ('the Company')

I report to the charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's Trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Pension costs and other post-retirement benefits

The charitable company operates a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions payable to the charitable company's pension scheme are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities in the period to which they relate.
