Trustees' Annual Report 2024-25

Charity Name: Bishop's Stortford Sinfonia

Registered charity number: 1093196

Principal address: 50 Ross Close, Saffron Walden, Essex, CM11 4AY

Trustees:

The trustees who served during the year were:

- John Bruce-Jones (Chair)
- Margaret Webb
- Simon Gilliver

Structure, Governance and Management:

Bishop's Stortford Sinfonia is a registered charity governed by a board of trustees, who are responsible for the strategic direction and oversight of the organisation.

Trustees are appointed by the board and are selected based on the skills, experience and commitment required to support the effective governance and development of the charity. The charity seeks to appoint trustees with an interest in music and the arts, and with strong connections to the local community.

Day-to-day activities, including concert planning and delivery, are managed by the Artistic Director and core organising team, supported by the trustees.

Objectives and Activities:

The charity's objective is to advance, improve, develop and maintain public education in and appreciation of the art and science of music in all its aspects, in particular by the presentation of public concerts and educational activities.

The Bishop's Stortford Sinfonia continues to deliver high-quality orchestral performances for local audiences, while also supporting the development of young musicians and contributing to the wider cultural life of the community.

Activities and Achievements:

During the year, the Sinfonia delivered a full programme of orchestral performances and collaborative projects.

Concert Season

The orchestra presented three main public concerts during the 2024–25 season:

- October 2024: An Evening of Fairytales, featuring works by Ethel Smyth, Grieg (Peer Gynt Suite No. 1) and Rimsky-Korsakov (Scheherazade), performed at Bishop's Stortford College.

- January 2025: Spotlight on the Flute, including works by Tarrodi, Vivaldi and Mendelssohn, with soloist Matthew Featherstone, performed at St John's Church, Stansted.
- April 2025: Spotlight on the Trombone, featuring Rossini, Dani Howard's Trombone Concerto (soloist Peter Moore), and Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition, performed at Bishop's Stortford College.

These concerts continued the Sinfonia's commitment to ambitious and engaging programming, combining well-known repertoire with contemporary works and professional soloists.

Collaborative Work:

In addition to its own concert series, the Sinfonia supported other local music organisations by providing orchestral players for:

- Amici Cantate (30 November 2024)
- Bishop's Stortford Choral Society (7 December 2024)

These collaborations are an important part of the charity's role in supporting the wider musical ecosystem in the area.

Education and Community Engagement:

The Sinfonia remains committed to supporting young musicians and broadening access to orchestral music.

During the year, the orchestra delivered a side-by-side concert in partnership with Bishop's Stortford College and local students in May 2025. This project gave students the opportunity to rehearse and perform alongside experienced musicians in a full orchestral setting, providing valuable practical experience.

In October 2024, the Sinfonia also held an open rehearsal, supported by Arts in East Herts, which invited members of the local community to observe the orchestra at work. The session was designed to be welcoming and accessible, particularly encouraging attendance from groups who may face barriers to attending traditional concerts, including older people and families with young children.

In addition to its concert activity, the Sinfonia runs a series of monthly Sunday Listening Cafés, which are free to attend and open to all. These informal sessions, led by members of the orchestra, provide an opportunity for audiences to explore and discuss a wide range of music in a relaxed and accessible setting. The Listening Cafés form an important part of the charity's ongoing work to broaden engagement with classical music and to create inclusive opportunities for participation within the local community.

Additional Performances:

The Sinfonia also presented a smaller-scale chamber orchestra performance at Little Hadham Hall in May 2025, expanding its reach to new audiences and venues.

Financial Review:

The charity's financial position remains stable. Income is derived primarily from ticket sales, performance fees, grants and donations.

Expenditure is largely associated with the delivery of concerts, including musician fees, venue hire, conductor and soloist costs, and associated production expenses. Across the year, the orchestra continued to prioritise paying musicians for their time and expertise, while managing costs carefully.

The charity also successfully claimed Orchestral Tax Relief in respect of eligible performances, supporting its financial sustainability. The charity has no significant debts or liabilities at the year end.

Reserves Policy:

The charity currently operates with limited reserves, reflecting its project-based model and focus on delivering concerts and outreach activity within available resources.

The trustees recognise the importance of building financial resilience and are working to increase the charity's level of reserves over time. The initial aim is to establish reserves of approximately £5,000, equivalent to the typical cost of delivering a single concert. This will provide a buffer against unexpected costs or fluctuations in income and support the sustainable delivery of future activities.

Public Benefit:

The trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty under the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit guidance.

The charity provides public benefit through:

- the presentation of accessible, high-quality orchestral concerts
- opportunities for young musicians to participate in orchestral performance
- collaboration with local music groups and organisations

These activities contribute to the cultural life of the local community and support musical education and participation.

Plans for the Future

The Sinfonia will continue to build on its established concert series while expanding its outreach and educational work, including further side-by-side projects and collaborations with local partners.

VISION OF SINFONIA
SINFONIA

The trustees remain focused on ensuring the long-term sustainability of the organisation while maintaining the quality and ambition of its artistic programme.
