Additional governance issues (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
 - relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The trustees who have been selected and appointed have specific expertise and provide advice, support and due diligence.

The trustees provide voluntary time in fundraising and administration of the charity and take no remuneration or benefits.

The charity has a policy to only spend in line with funds raised.

The trustees meet regularly to plan and fundraise for specific projects. The trustees also oversee and implement spend in line with projects.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The relief of poverty by promoting and supporting educational needs of the poor and needy.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

All the activity if the charity is delivered in line with charity commissions guidance on public benefit at our trustee meetings.

The generous donations received this year have enabled us to provide much needed support and relief to the poverty-stricken people of Bangladesh.

Our primary focus is to provide relief through the distribution and assistance of food, skills, education, medical and social support for poor families.

This year we have also provided specific support for the poor due to very bad flooded conditions and have further supported cancer patients in Bangladesh.

We also, where possible, provide sustainable support for the poor by enabling them with resources and support to enable them to be self-sufficient.

Additional details of objectives and activities (optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The trust is able to provide maximum benefit for the money raised as there are no direct staffing costs.

All of our projects are managed and delivered by volunteers.

Our volunteers are the driving force of the charity's success. Our volunteers take their time out to filter those in desperate need and provide them with the critical support and aid.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Medical

We have funded 27 life changing operations including the removal of 4 tumors & supplied an oxygen machine.

Essentials

We have built 9 new homes and built 7 tube wells, providing much needed access to safe drinking water.

Roughly 460 items of clothing were distributed.

Food

The charity provided a regular provision of food supplies to several villages and sponsored roughly 26 families all year round. During Ramadan 315 families were given food for the entire month.

Extras

- During the floods in 2020 we provided aid to flood affected areas, which included food, medicine, and clean water.
- Due to COVID we helped families with food & essentials
- We additionally promoted self-sufficiency by providing tools and cows for farming and cultivation.
- Sewing machines provided to young women to earn a living
- Through the winter we provided warm clothing and distributed blankets for the needy
- Provided support for orphan children with Clothes / food etc

Section EFinancial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

At this moment in time we do not hold any reserves or have any reserves. We currently have approximately £ 1953.00 in our account. We do not hold any reserves as we spend on projects in line with funds that we have raised.

As we do not have any staff costs or other material spends, we therefore do not anticipate to have any reserves.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- Investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Our main source of fundraising is from supporters who provide monthly donations for the purpose of meeting the objectives of the charity.

We also have undertaken specific campaigns for example - building houses for the poor where our supporters have provided additional financial donations.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of
ANWAR WELFARE TRUST
RCN: 1093503

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of ANWAR WELFARE TRUST for the year ended 31 March 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
