Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

1st April 2024 to 31st March 2025

We employ two researchers/lecturers, Paul Garner – PG (full time) and Dr Stephen Lloyd – SL (also now full time), as well as Matthew Pickhaver (MP) as our Communications Manager (part time). An associate researcher, Dr William Worraker (WW), is supported but not employed by the charity. We summarise our main activities below.

Study centre.

In this reporting period we launched our “Cambridge House” project, with the long-term goal of establishing a residential study centre in the heart of Cambridge, as a base for research and outreach. In May 2024, SL and PG were interviewed about the project on Christian TV. In September, SL relocated to Cambridge to lead the project and is now employed full time by the charity. In February, SL and PG began a series of student meetings that will be held regularly during term times and we continued to support other students in a mentoring capacity. MP represented the charity at an educational conference in April 2024.

Speaking engagements.

Between April 2024 and March 2025 PG, SL and MP gave about 30 talks, lectures and seminars. These meetings included church services, public events, training seminars and conferences. In June, PG was invited to address the West Sussex Geological Society and in August PG and SL spoke to about 140 students at a summer school in Staffordshire. In July PG was invited to participate in a private dialogue with other academics in Dayton, Tennessee, which culminated in a public event chaired by PG. In March 2025, SL was one of the main speakers at a public conference in Springfield, Massachusetts.

Online outreach and media.

The audience for our fortnightly podcast, co-hosted by PG and Dr Todd Wood, continued to grow. By March 2025, we had released more than 100 episodes and reached about 2,900 subscribers on

Achievements and performance

YouTube, with a similar number on other streaming platforms. PG and SL were also interviewed by a number of other podcasters. By the end of the reporting period, our own YouTube channel had about 780 subscribers and our Facebook page about 950 followers. We also maintained an active social media presence on X. We continued to communicate regularly with supporters by way of a newsletter issued three times a year alongside an email update, moving from a monthly to twice-monthly schedule.

Research.

WW continued to receive support from our organisation for his work on a quantitative geophysics project, and is working on further papers for publication. In July, PG attended two academic conferences in the USA, giving a plenary talk at one of them. In September he also participated in a geoscience conference in Reims, France, giving one of the keynote talks. He was also editor and reviewer for a number of conference abstracts, papers and scholarly manuscripts throughout the year.

Other activities.

Editorial work continued on submissions to our own open-access online journal with the second paper of the fifth volume published in May 2024. We also contributed articles to other publications and released a new educational resource in the form of an interpretive geological column chart. PG and SL continued work on a major book project, with a contract signed with a major publishing house.

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent

~~[The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]]. Delete [] if not applicable. kw~~

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination ~~(other than that disclosed below *)~~ which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
