Trustees' Report (continued)

For the year ended 30 September 2024

Activities and Achievements

The charity is managed by 6 elected trustee members, and is staffed by 13 volunteers.

The core of the charity's work is to provide basic education and other supporting services for school age children and adults in remote areas in the Horn of Africa.

We built, run and maintained a school teaching years 1 to 12 for 1436 students between the ages of 5 and 21 with boarding facilities for 227 students. This school began in 2001 and is recognised by the authorities in the Puntland State of Somalia as the highest achieving school in the State and has been used as an example of the way forward. During the past year, due to the increasing number of students from the primary/intermediate school Read Horn of Africa built two extra classes with the help of an international charity, and also carried out much needed repair and maintenance work to the borehole that supplies water to the whole school and surrounding area of the town. Also, during the past year we refurbished and equipped the Bursalah Health centre which was a much needed facility as there are no other health facilities that are close or accessible to the town's residents. During the previous we have also run a small project that involved feeding poor local individuals, to this end we have fed by providing basic food ingredients including rice, oil, and dates and sugar to poor locals.

Funding

The charity was generously funded by members of the Somali Community Diaspora all over the world including communities in Europe, North America, Africa, Asia, Australia and New Zealand. Significant support has also been received from International Development Agencies including UNICEF, WFP and UNHCR. Read Horn of Africa wishes to thank all those organisations and individuals that have contributed to its work in kind or by financial assistance.

Independent Examiners Report

For the year ended 30 September 2024

I have examined the accounts on pages 5 to 6 which have been prepared on accruals basis.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention, which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act, have not been met;
