The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objectives of Brighton Youth Centre are to help and educate children and young people, to enable them to develop their physical, mental and spiritual capacities within a strictly interdenominational and apolitical framework so that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and members of society, providing wherever possible equality of opportunity regardless of sex, race, mental, physical or sensory ability or sexual orientation.

Public benefit

In shaping our objectives and planning our activities for the year, the Trustees have given consideration to the duties set out in Section 17(5) of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit and to the Charity Commission Guidance on public benefit. In particular, the Trustees have considered how the planned activities will contribute to the overall aims and objectives that they have set.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

Background

Brighton Youth Centre [BYC] is a registered charity, dedicated to offering year-round activities, support and a safe social space for young people from Brighton & Hove, and the surrounding areas of East and West Sussex.

BYC, originally the Brighton Boys' Club, was founded in 1917, and has a rich history within the city, finding its home on John Street and Manchester Street, before standing on Edward Street for almost 80 years. In the last century, an estimated 30,000 young people have benefited from the support, activities and services provided by Brighton Youth Centre. Currently, more than 1,000 young people use the BYC facilities every year.

Introduction

These accounts cover the financial year that saw a return from lockdown, numbers attending quickly returned to pre covid levels as BYC came back to life.

"My favourite part of the week is coming to BYC, having a conversation with the youth workers and interacting with all the activities put on for the day. I enjoy making new friends and having a space that really feels like my own, where I can really be myself and not have to worry about judgement" BYC member

Brighton Youth Centre (BYC) is one of the longest running and best used youth services in the city. As a team we're really proud of the young people we work with and support, and we're continually impressed by the contributions they make to their local community through the activities which take place at BYC every day.

Projects such as B.Fest, Brighton's biggest youth-led festival, facilities like Brighton's only indoor skateboard park, and the connections we offer to other services including mental health, LGBTQ+ and refugee support, make BYC a very special and unique space in the heart of the city.

Our biggest project to date has been to rejuvenate our building. After decades of service it is now vital so that we can sustain and grow all these amazing spaces and services, to provide a state of the art youth hub for the young people of Brighton and Hove.

Toby Moore, Chair of Board

Who we are, and what we do

"BYC is a social place that I feel safe in, and gives me support to actually express myself. If it was open more, I would come pretty much every day" Alex

Established in 1917, Brighton Youth Centre is Brighton's leading youth project, with a 100 year history of delivering services in the city. It's a thriving hub of activity, providing a central hub for the city's youth work and attracting over 1,500 young people every year from across the city.

It is truly a city wide resource for young people who come from every ward in the city to access its services. It is also, notably, very effective at engaging older teenagers: 57% of our young people are aged 16+

"What stands out to me the most about Brighton Youth Centre is how it is a place for young people from across the city. Different backgrounds, different neighbourhoods come together to find out about and learn from each other. I haven't experienced many, if any other places where this happens in the same way. And in this way, it becomes really important, not just for the young people, but for the whole city." Helen Barlett, youth worker, Brighton Youth Centre

Brighton Youth Centre is a safe space where young people have the freedom to be themselves, come together, learn from each other and challenge themselves to make a difference in their own lives and the lives of their community. We place their voices, aspirations and concerns at the heart of everything we do because we believe all children and young people deserve to be taken seriously.

We work with over 20 partner organisations and projects who deliver services from BYC, on the autistic spectrum, LGBTQI+, asylum seekers, experience mental ill health or homelessness such as Brighton & Hove Pupil Referral Unit, Allsorts Youth Project, YMCA DownsLink and the Russell Martin Foundation; and youth arts and creative industries organisations like UK Unsigned, BlockBuilders, Miss Represented and Art In Mind. Together, we:

- Platform young people's voices

Our work starts from young people's perspectives, focusing on their needs and agendas. We believe young people are not just adults-in-waiting, but individuals in their own rights with hopes, concerns and aspirations which deserve to be taken seriously, and provide a safe and supportive environment for them to express themselves and explore ideas they find challenging or exciting.

- Increase participation and community cohesion

We firmly believe that young people are not just individuals in need of education, but have plenty to offer as educators themselves. Our building and activities provide a space for young people to come together, placing the emphasis on teamwork and collaboration, and supporting young people to learn from one another. Equality, diversity and inclusion are embedded in our activities. There is a racial, social and cultural mix within the groups and we take every opportunity to promote learning and understanding of themselves and others, providing an invaluable space for young people to explore and celebrate the rich mix of their different stories, experiences and ideas about the world.

- Support young people to make a difference in their own lives

We work with a wide-range of young people, including young people with disabilities, young carers, young offenders, young parents and homeless young people. We encourage young people to take ownership for all aspects of the centre and to engage in the life of the city. Young people are closely involved in shaping our programme, and every year, they organise B.Fest, Brighton's youth arts festival for and by young people.

Mike has been the CEO of Brighton Youth Centre for 12 years. He started in youth work as a sessional worker in 1984 and qualified in 1989. His experience includes community based drugs work in London and Birmingham and large centre based youth work for over 25 years.

The Youth Work Team & Our Projects

Helen Barlett, Lead Youth Worker Youth Club and My Space

I've been a youth worker in Brighton and Hove for over 15 years, with a focus on participation work. What stands out to me the most about Brighton Youth Centre is how it is a place for young people from across the city. Different backgrounds, different neighbourhoods come together to find out about and learn from each other. I haven't experienced many, if any other places where this happens in the same way. And in this way, it becomes really important, not just for the young people, but for the whole city.

Youth Club is our regular open session for young people aged 13-19. There's a range of activities each week - arts, gaming, cooking, music, sports, pool for young people to take part, or they can just come along and hang out. There's always food on offer and the skate park is open and free to access.

"I come here because I feel comfortable here. I eat food because I don't really have money for food and I can get food for free here. I also come here to sing and I feel better when I sing because I feel more confident. I think it would really help young people if it was open more" Jess

Currently about 50-60 young people attend each week. Most of the young people who attend have a lot going on in their lives: some are in care; struggling at or excluded from school; with special educational needs; dealing with family problems or mental health issues. For many, talking to youth workers is an important source of advice and support for issues they're having in their lives. Here they have spaces that are theirs, that are safe, where they can get a meal, try new things and learn new skills, see their mates and meet new people.

"I first started attending Brighton Youth Centre through the Youth Club sessions, and over the last 9 nine years it has been critical for my development as an adult. Growing up I didn't have a supporting family, and as a result of this, I've dealt with substance abuse and a few years of homelessness. However I was lucky enough to have people like Hannah and Mike. Throughout the years they have provided me with patience, education, advice, a safe environment and most of all understanding. I myself growing up was faced with impossible situations which could have easily led me on the path to jail. But BYC gave me the tools and knowledge needed to find better ways. With the help of BYC I got my GCSE's, worked on the B.FEST events, completed my NCS, obtained degrees in Music Business and Putting on Music Events and also mentored and provided music lessons to students. Alongside this they have provided me with over four years of live music performance experience. BYC is a needed resource for the young people in Brighton, because it is a safe haven for young people to express themselves." Lily

My Space is a monthly youth club for adopted teenagers in Brighton & Hove, established in 2017. Parents of adopted teenagers identified the gap in provision for this particularly vulnerable group, and BYC have been working with them to deliver My Space. Sessions include cooking, art activities and opportunities to chat with their peers and youth workers.

Adopted children's early experiences are often negative. Many have suffered abuse and neglect and the trauma of being separated. The project helps them feel supported, empowering them to manage relationships and increase self confidence, and providing a safe and welcoming environment where the members understand each other's backgrounds and can talk about issues affecting them.

"My Space is one of the most important things in my life, and a place I feel safe" Charlie

"It's somewhere I can talk about how I feel without hurting your [parents] feelings, everyone understands me there"
Caitlyn

"It's brilliant for me to know other adopted people. My Space keeps us together and connected" Chelsea

Liam Teague, Youth Worker and Skatepark Project Coordinator

I grew up outside of Brighton and visited Brighton Youth Centre occasionally as a teenager, as it was known in the local skateboarding community. I started working here in 2012 helping out once a week, before doing a 1-year youth work apprenticeship and taking on the role of full time coordinator at the skatepark.

BYC skatepark is the only indoor skateboarding space in the Brighton area. We teach skateboarding and provide a safe, friendly and supervised place to practice where young people have access to youth workers to talk to. We also run sessions for specific groups, for example girls night helps support young women getting into skateboarding. We regularly run the Go Skate Project, working with referred young people struggling with mental health, using skateboarding as a pathway to better wellbeing. Other projects include our annual board design workshop, allowing young people to design their own skateboard artwork for free, and an all-night skating marathon and fundraiser where we challenge some of our regulars to skate from 10pm - 8am.

"I first came here to skate, and then got into basketball through the Youth Club which I'd never played before. I also come to practise guitar in the rehearsal space. Thanks to BYC I've met new like minded people who share similar interests like skating, guitar and music, and have made new friendships that way. I love that there's a multitude of things to do in one visit, and it would be great if there was much more. I would love to come here more often, and I would visit the skatepark more if it was ventilated." Archie

"I come here almost every day. I enjoy the company of the staff and the people my age I know. I feel safe and protected, and I've always had a lot of help. I've met basically everyone I know here, and without BYC I wouldn't be where I am now."
Lucas

Cleo Phillips, Youth Worker and B.game Project Coordinator

I have been working at Brighton Youth Centre for 7 years. I started as a youth support volunteer, helping run the Youth Club, and since completing a youth work degree course I joined the team as a youth worker.

B. Game is a youth led gaming group open to 13 - 19 years old offering an alternative to an open youth club. Weekly sessions run on a Wednesday and focus on different kinds of interactive gaming including board games, card games, console gaming and role-playing games and learn about the gaming industry. Using a shoulder-to-shoulder approach to mental health and wellbeing, the group offers opportunities for young people to socialise and discuss topics specific to issues they face at their own pace, in an informal and supportive environment and to develop their interpersonal skills. B.Game is a very popular project: young people gave it an 8 out of 10 score for overall satisfaction, and 10 out of 10 for the support they receive from youth workers.

Hannah Coxeter, Lead Youth Worker and B.fest Coordinator

I have been a youth worker for over 20 years, and have worked at BYC for over 10 years running the youth programme and B.fest, our annual youth-led arts festival. I'm really passionate about the importance and value in the work we do, which is about voluntary engagement and where participation and empowerment is at the core. Post Covid, we have seen a massive rise in engagement from young people wanting to form human connections, and I feel that what we offer at BYC is integral to the wellbeing of young people across Brighton and Hove.

"I have been inspired to actually take up art in college and focus on myself and what I want more than what other people want."

B.fest is Brighton's Youth Arts Festival. The week-long multi-arts event is run by a board of young people who shape and run the festival, curating the content, event managing and marketing the activities. B.fest is a celebration of youth culture and it offers young people in Brighton, Sussex and across the South East a wealth of creative opportunities to perform, participate or attend over 50+ performances, exhibitions and workshops. Delivered for and by young people in partnership with over 30 professional artists and cultural organisations it aims to celebrate youth culture and bring more creative opportunities to young people, attracting 1000+ young people each year.

B.fest is about giving creative power to young people, so that they can choose what they consume and celebrate what they create. Many of the young people who have sat on the festival's board who have gone on to flourish in the creative industries, including Ella Wood, who has worked on Star Wars films, and music producer Frankie Stew.

"For every young person that gets up on the stage and sings, there's another young person that's looking at them going, Oh, they're the same age as me, or I go to school with them, and it makes all those things seem possible" Mike Roe, CEO, Brighton Youth Centre

Alex Amos, Youth Worker, Music Coordinator and Lead Youth Worker for Pupil Referral Unit Sessions

I first joined Brighton Youth Centre as a volunteer while I was studying music at BIMM Brighton. I have since completed an MA in applied anthropology and community and youth work and continue to work at BYC as the coordinator of the music project at the youth centre.

Music at BYC We use music as an activity to bring young people together, working with young people to provide musical support wherever they are on their journey and supporting them to develop skills and confidence in whatever way works best for them.

We put on monthly events giving young people a platform to experience performing to an audience in a space that is safe and comfortable so that they can grow in confidence and inspire other young people to perform. We provide beginners instrument lessons, band workshops, rehearsal space, jam spaces, open mic and vocal groups, as well as an informal space for young people to receive constructive criticism and feedback about their music, hang out socially and connect with youth workers and other young people.

"The atmosphere is amazing, everyone has a great time at every gig and it's an amazing place to meet other people your age with similar interests. It's an open and safe space to talk, and personally I've met many of my good friends there!"

For over eight years Brighton Youth Centre has been running a Friday morning activity session with the Pupil Referral Unit to introduce young people who have been permanently excluded from school or are on programmes to avoid permanent exclusion to activities available to them at the youth centre. 71% of young people attending are in receipt of free school meals, 47% were either children in need or on child protection orders with social services, 13% were children in care and 36% were on referral orders or had worked with the Youth Offending Service during the academic year.

The range of activities offered included archery, rock climbing, boxercise, beach volleyball, various art activities, skateboarding and scooting - and are designed to support them to build confidence in their abilities, change their self perception and improve their emotional resilience and interpersonal skills.

"There is a strong correlation between the students' engagement on the programme at BYC and reintegration rates back into mainstream schools. Before working with BYC only 12% of students returned to mainstream education whereas with activity sessions at BYC 45% students were integrated back into school. A further 30% received Education and Health Care Plans and integrated into suitable special schools. Of the remaining cohort in the new academic year a further 50% have started integration programmes and should be fully integrated within 10 weeks."

Tim Self, Deputy Headteacher, Brighton and Hove Pupil Referral Unit

FUTURE PLANS

We want to rebuild Brighton Youth Centre to make it a place that is available to young people seven days a week for the next 50 years and beyond, to ensure that the building is fully accessible and environmentally sustainable and can provide the best staff, services and facilities for our young people.

To do this we're seeking £2.3 million from Brighton and Hove City Council and £3.9 million from the Youth Investment Fund. This investment would transform youth work in the city, providing a city wide hub supporting 2,500 - 3,500 young people each year and more than doubling the number of young people participating in youth work across the city. It will:

- Improve the health & wellbeing of local young people, providing new facilities for young people to come together, socialise and access vital services including counselling and healthcare.
- Empower young people to be an active part of their communities, providing a city wide hub for youth led activity and community engagement in Brighton & Hove
- Equip young people in the city with skills for life and work, delivering a holistic, joined up programme of personal, educational and creative development opportunities and pathways to employment for young people who may not otherwise access them

"For us, the most important thing about Brighton Youth Centre is the people and the community. Having a new and improved building would allow this amazing dynamic to continue to thrive and grow.?" Joe Palmer, co-founder, BlockBuilders

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, with the exception of investments which are included at market value.

At the time of approving the financial statements, the trustees have a reasonable expectation that the charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future, including taking into account any potential impact of the Covid-19 pandemic, and on that basis the charity is considered to be a going concern.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Grants and donations are only included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the Charity has an unconditional entitlement to the resources.

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the Charity is entitled to the income, the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy and the Trustees are virtually certain they will receive the resources.

Investment income is recognised on a receivable basis.

Incoming resources from charitable activities is accounted for when earned.

The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the Accounts but is described in the Trustees Annual Report.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Improvements to property	- Straight line over 10 years
Plant and machinery	- Straight line over 10 years

The Charity does not have a minimum value for the capitalisation of fixed assets.

Recognition and measurement

Fixed assets are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

The Charity is considered to pass the tests set out in Paragraph 1 Schedule 6 Finance Act 2010 and therefore it meets the definition of a charitable company for UK Corporation Tax purposes. Accordingly the Charity is potentially exempt from taxation in respect of income or capital gains received within categories covered by Chapter 3 Part 11 Corporation Tax Act 2010 or Section 256 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, to the extent that such income or gains are applied exclusively to charitable purposes.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Designated funds - these are the funds set aside by the Trustees out of unrestricted general funds for specific future purposes or projects.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
