Annual report 2024

Norton District: Rainbows, Brownies, guides and Rangers all participated in a wide range of activities, from learning about fire safety, UK Parliament and local history, to supporting charities and taking part in camps, outdoor adventures, and creative badge work. Notable highlights included Remembrance Parades, camping trips and a Percy Jackson themed camp.

Walton District: Rainbows enjoyed crafts and themed parties, while Brownies and Guides focused on badge work, community projects, residential trips, and outdoors challenges. The Rangers balanced academic commitments with activities like Monolply Run in London, Go Ape activities, and International links.

Greenfield District: Rainbows learned new skills, took part in community gardening, disability awareness activities, and seasonal outings. Brownies enjoyed their first pack holiday since Covid, participated in crafts, theatre trips, and farewelled a valued member.

Halesowen Leasowes District: Brownies engaged in themed badge work, celebrated holidays with scruffs and gifts, but had fewer outings due to volunteer shortages. Guides enjoyed camps, trips and badge work

Lutley & Stour Vallet District: Took part in the annual carol service. All sections have participated in trips, crafts and badge work.

Trefoil Guild: Both Halesowen and Stourbridge Guilds had an eventful year, marked by social gatherings, fundraising, crafts, outings, and community support. Celebrations included Halesowen Guild's 70th anniversary and Stourbridge Guild's involvement in local charity events, flower arranging, and walks. Both groups highlighted friendship, learning, and supporting local causes.

Overall, the Districts and Guilds reported a vibrant year, full of educational experiences, community engagement, outdoor adventures and strong connections between members.
