Activities

Objects: 3: OBJECTS
The Trust's objects ('the objects') are:
a) To advance the education of the public in the local history of the civil parishes of Birchington and Acol in the County of Kent, in particular, but not exclusively, by
• collecting, storing and displaying artefacts and associated evidence relating to the history of these parishes
• managing premises for use as a museum, providing physical and digital access to the collections and artefacts as may be reasonably practicable
• promoting and encouraging access for all to the museum and its collection, including through publications and events
b) To promote research into the history of the parishes at clause 3(a) and disseminate information to members of the Trust and the general public.
c) To promote volunteering to support the objects set out in clauses (a) and (b) above.

Activities: The Charity's work includes the preservation of material of historical interest in the Birchington area, providing information evenings, guided walks, written guides on the history of the local area. It also provides the accommodation, maintenance and extension of the archive collection already held.
