Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of Christianity.
To relieve poverty, sickness and distress in accordance with Christian principles.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Meet weekly for the purpose of worshipping God, prayer, reading and studying the Word of God and fellowshiping with one another to build each other up in the Christian faith.

Provide supplemental meetings for instruction in effective and productive methods of individual and group study of the Word of God.

Promote and encourage individual and group prayer by providing supplemental meetings for the purpose of group prayer.

Promote and encourage individual development of worship of the God head through prayer, music and service to the Kingdom of God.

Promote and encourage all other aspects of individual and group growth in service toward the Kingdom of God through the development of the gifts and talents provided by God.

Present the facts and truth of man's need for salvation and God's plan and provision of that salvation through substitutionary death and resurrection of His Son, Jesus Christ, to all who would hear and receive through regularly held church services and in various means of public outreach.

By careful and informed provision of financial assistance accompanied by advice, spiritual counsel and instruction, where appropriate, to assist needy individuals experiencing unforeseen financial difficulties with the view to their own eventual sustained self-sufficiency in the climate of their surrounding economic and cultural environment.

To intercede in prayer, according to scripture, for those with physical, emotional and spiritual ailments and to offer scriptural advice and instruction in the cure and prevention of such illnesses where practical.

To offer and provide care, sympathy and scriptural counsel to those in distress.

Many of our activities are online on our YouTube channel.

This report is developed by input from the Trustees and have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The primary day for meeting / broadcasting weekly is on Sunday mornings during which the activities of worshipping God, prayer, reading and studying the Word of God and fellowshiping with one another are engaged on a regular basis. Supplemental meetings (in person or online) for the purposes of prayer, worship, Bible study and fellowship took place throughout the week. It is during the primary and supplemental meetings that individual and group prayer, worship, Bible study and use of the gifts and talents provided by God are taught, promoted and encouraged. It is also during the primary and supplemental meetings that the salvation message has been made known and explained.

All of the above activities have been accomplished in an adult-level context during our 9.30am and 11.30am services. Our Sunday School has been meeting during both our services. Because of the expanding Sunday School work we have rented a cabin to provide additional space for classes.

Volunteers ran the local church office. Other work by volunteers during the year has been building alterations, serving refreshments, children's ministry, men's ministry and women's Bible studies.

We continued the practice of believers Baptism by full immersion. One event was held at the Church in the year.

A number of volunteers were involved in the Lighthouse holiday club week in Mansfield in August.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

We have continued with consecutive Bible teaching being shared at the Sunday morning meetings / broadcasts and at the mid-week evening meetings. The mid-week meetings have now expanded to 4 Home Fellowships meeting alternate weeks.

A men's monthly Saturday morning breakfast teaching and fellowship event take place with 40+ attending.

The ladies' Christmas tea was a capacity event.

We organised Carol Services over the Christmas period which again proved to be a very popular events with folks from the local community attending. There was also an online service.

We continue to support In Christ In Schools and promote the work of the charity All4Burma and support other missionaries.

We officiate at weddings and funerals of church members, when requested.

We provided an Alpha course for those interested and added to the Church those who came to faith through these events.

Plans for the future include:

- Review the possible use of the Alpha course for outreach
- Develop a regular event for new believers
- Building alterations to expand the capacity of the building

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Keeping in line with the Charity's future plans it has a policy to hold sufficient reserves to be able to respond in a timely manner to any opportunity presented that would allow the Charity to achieve those plans. Current reserves are minimal for meeting such possible opportunities.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The Charity's primary source of funds is from free-will offerings received from those regularly attending the Sunday and various other meetings.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Calvary Chapel, Mansfield.

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31st March 2025.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
