3. Trustees and their Responsibilities

Trustees have overall control of a charity and are responsible for making sure it's doing what it was set up to do. Trustees lead the charity and decide how it is run: -

- 1) To ensure the charity is carrying out the purposes for which it is set up
- 2) That it is complying with the charity's governing document and the law
- 3) Managing its resources responsibly
- 4) And to ensure the Charity complies with statutory accounting and reporting requirements

4. Annual report and financial statements (For the year ended 31/12/2024)

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP 2019 (FRS 102)
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the Trustees are aware: -

- The Trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish accuracy and transparency in reporting of the 2024 financial statements.
