Activities

Objects: To inform and support women with Pelvic Girdle Pain (PGP) and their families, carers and health-care professionals, and to promote effective treatment.

Activities: The main aim of our charity is to provide women and healthcare professionals with information about best practice for the treatment and management of Pelvic Girdle Pain (PGP), formerly known as Symphysis Pubis Dysfunction, and to enable and empower women to access the right treatment. We provide an information website, run a telephone helpline and produce information leaflets and booklets.
