St. Stephen's Rehabilitation Centre Annual Report, Year End 5th April 2022

Summary of the objectives as set out in the governing document.

To receive and manage all sponsorship money from members in England and Wales, pertaining to the educational welfare of children at St. Stephen's Rehabilitation Centre, Embu, Kenya.

Summary of main activities undertaken.

Collecting, mainly through standing orders, subscriptions from sponsors; keeping an accurate record; applying for GiftAid; transfer of funds to St. Stephen's at least three times per year; contacting sponsors when their child has finished education.

Achievement and Performance.

There were forty five sponsors at the start of the financial year. One sponsor re-joined the scheme after a few months' absence and two ended their sponsorship (due to the completion of the child's education.)

Six children gained their Primary School Certificate and eight gained their Secondary School Certificate. Four students gained degrees/diplomas and four school-leavers have entered residential vocational training (plumbing and mechanics).
