Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Savayra Centre continues to expand its provision with the introduction of English language classes and a wider curriculum of IT and computer courses providing greater opportunities in skills and learning for orphan and marginalised girls. The Shopper bag project showed steady success creating much needed employment for destitute women. The Salons offering as an academy for hair and beauty courses has been popular and uptake has been strong amongst younger beneficiaries. The solar power system has been expanded to make more of the centre environmentally friendly and more sustainable. The Rickshaw program continues to be a success providing employment and a source of income for needy families. The charity continues to establish a culture of gender equality and support for womens empowerment work in a rural environment.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

Achievements against objectives set		To expand the range of skills training offered at the centre and to ensure the skills are relevant to today's job market. The expansion of the skills and training at the centre achieves this.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Savayra Foundation UK

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records [; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination] '.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention.

should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Savayra Centre continues to expand its provision and did so during this period. We partnered with a fashion design house to establish a new crafts training centre to train women in the art of block printing and hand embroidery. We created a bespoke Savayra product, the Shopper bag which is now being produced at the centre to create employment for destitute women. A partial solar system has been added to the centre to make the centre environmentally friendly and more sustainable. The Rickshaw program continues to be a success providing employment and a source of income for needy families. The charity continues to establish a culture of gender equality and support for womens empowerment work in a rural environment.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Savayra Centre has once again expanded its provision during this period. We established a hair and beauty training facility and income support programme. Women and girls were offered training programs to establish a hair and beauty salon at the Savayra centre. The charity invested in the infrastructure to establish a hair and beauty salon which now provides a regular income for local women and girls. The IT lab continues to be a success with additional training provided for the trainer enabling a broader provision of IT courses. We continue to invest in the centre including introducing green measures around waste disposal and will invest in solar power in the next accounting period. The Rickshaw program has been reevaluated and continues to provide a source of income to some of the most needy families. The charity continues to establish a culture of gender equality and support for women's empowerment work in a rural environment.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Savayra Foundation UK

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records [; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination] '.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention.

should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The Savayra Centre has expanded its provision during this period. We established a women's IT Lab at the centre with free IT training now being offered. This has been an important move to offer a more broad based and upto date provision of skills at the centre. The charity shop is now operational and has started to produce an income. We have introduced the concept of "pre loved" garments which are both sold at the charity shop to provide an income for the centre and some garments are donated to destitute women The centre has streamlined the work of the charity and has enabled us to deliver a more effective and secure offering for destitute women in rural Punjab and has provided better facilities and work environment for the beneficiaries. The Rickshaw program continues to be a success. The charity continues to establish a culture of gender equality and support for womens empowerment work in a rural environment.
