Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Our core activity and priority continues as always to be supporting our individual Helpline Callers, families of elderly people receiving care and whistleblowers raising concerns about the care sector, and sometimes those receiving care themselves. The line is open 10:00 to 16:00 Monday to Wednesday throughout the year. The whistleblowers are not necessarily care workers but can include people who visit care settings as part of their work. This helpline work includes follow-up support, guidance and attending various meetings, inquests and tribunals arising from calls. As usual, we attended various meetings to support families whose loved ones experienced abuse in care settings and whistleblowers at tribunals in cases involving elderly people. An example of these was one with the Nursing &amp; Midwifery Council in a long-running case (in which NMC had held no Nurses accountable after clear video evidence of abuse) which many years later, is now being "reviewed in the public interest". We will request a review of another case on the same grounds as there appears to be some change at the NMC following Nazir Afzal's very critical review of NMC which was followed by resignations of the Chief Executive and the Chair.

Parliamentary engagement

We continued correspondence with various MPs, Peers and Ministers.

The House of Commons Library researchers were contacted by an MP's office with notes explaining why Compassion In Care would be a reliable source for research briefings on social care and whistleblowing issues.

In September 2024 we wrote to Department of Business & Trade re the All Party Parliamentary Group on Whistleblowing and the previous Government's Whistleblowing Framework Review. We submitted evidence on several issues:

- a conflict of interest by the company commissioned to run it (Grant Thornton)
- potentially misleading contributions given to it.
- The fact that it was not an public consultation and only contributors selected by that company were able to give evidence until we had protested.

Our volunteers also contacted various MPs about this and the APPG on Whistleblowing. This APPG is no longer registered since November 2024.

<https://compassionincare.com/news/the-whistleblowing-review/>

Kevin Hollinrake, the minister who had commissioned the Whistleblowing Framework Review in 2023, invited us to meet in February 2025 and we had a constructive meeting with him about whistleblowing issues in general and Edna's Law in particular.

Our work on homophobic abuse is now used internationally

In June 2025 we received an invitation to speak at a Dublin event to be scheduled later in the year. It explained that our reports Stripped of Pride and Stripped of All Pride are now being used in social care training in Eire.

<https://compassionincare.com/news/stripped-of-pride/>

<https://compassionincare.com/news/stripped-of-all-pride/>

Other individual messages came in during the year that our reports are being used in other countries too, such as America, Spain and Jamaica.

Journey of Injustice Part 2

There continued to be a large volume of responses following our call for evidence about people's experiences (both positive and negative) of regulators. The response by August 2025 was over 29,000 and because of the huge volume it is taking a great deal of time to process them into themes for a report which will be published in several volumes.

TIA Bill (also known as Assisted Dying & Assisted Suicide Bill)

We agreed to work with a coalition of various groups such as Not Dead Yet to oppose the Bill. We took part in regular online discussions and two protests at Westminster, always maintaining our independence when doing so. This has increased awareness of Compassion In Care's work and widened our network.

In November 2024 we published our serious concerns about the Bill ahead of its Second Reading in Parliament. We oppose it because it would put our beneficiaries at risk of coercion. Eileen Chubb gave three media interviews at the demonstration outside. Our reports opposing Assisted Dying:

Lucy Letby case

In February 2025 we had a large volume of supportive messages after The Telegraph published an article on why we were the only whistleblowing organisation which had declined to engage with the alleged whistleblowers in the Lucy Letby case. We made it very clear that we were not taking any view on guilt or innocence, we were commenting only on the conduct of the doctors involved and why we did not recognise any whistleblowing in this case.

<https://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/2025/02/01/lucy-letby-whistleblowers-red-flags-charity-testimony/>

An author writing a book on Lucy Letby case interviewed Eileen.

During the year, we also contributed to various other books and articles for future publication.

This is so that we can remain independent and able to report and challenge where necessary. Donations come mainly from individual members of the public, occasional legacies and charitable trusts
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	Not applicable
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The principal risk is due to the nature of our work in exposing abuse of vulnerable adults, the authorities' failure to act on valid concerns raised by whistleblowers and challenging Government on policies that have led to avoidable deaths and suffering in care homes. All of these aspects of our work make us vulnerable to malicious allegations and political attacks. The charity always has full evidence available to respond to any such allegations.

Responsibilities and basis of report

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31/08/2025.

As the charity's trustees of the Company (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law), you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ("the 2006 Act").

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited for this year under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the 2011 Act"). In carrying out my examination, I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act).

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; or
- the accounts do not accord with such records; or
- the accounts do not comply with relevant accounting requirements under section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
- the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS102).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Our work for the year was severely impacted by the repeated malicious allegations made by WBUK and the disruption this caused to our daily work. See further information. The charity's work was recognized and shortlisted in the final six for The European Parliament GUE/NGL Award for our work protecting and supporting whistleblowers, the first UK charity to ever nominated. . We continued highlighting serious concerns with the Health and Social Care Department throughout this time period. We published a report called bad at being good which highlighted anomalies in a spot check of 29 CQC recently inspected homes, which all had identical failures in compliance and contradictory compliance ratings. As a result of over fifteen thousand helpline callers raising serious concerns about regulators, safeguarding, professional bodies and other investigatory bodies, we recognized that there were consistent failures to investigate abuse. We launched a call for evidence on all regulators in order to identify common themes. This is a major piece of research work and so far, we have received twenty thousand detailed responses, we aim to publish our findings in a comprehensive report as soon as possible. The trustees continued to remain in close contact via zoom and skype throughout the pandemic and subsequent lockdowns with 17

	detailed discussions. 212 hours were spent countering the malicious allegations made by WBUK We submitted formally when contacted by Amnesty International regarding the governments continuing policy of placing Covid positive Hospital patients into care homes which has resulted in many thousands of elderly deaths. Our continuing work throughout the pandemic was recognized in the subsequent Amnesty international report into UK Human rights abuses in care. We formally responded on FOI law proposals. Families of abuse victims and whistleblowers rely on accessing information. To date We have supported families and whistleblowers to make 4031 Subject Access requests and 5646 Freedom of Information requests. We published the naked truth, in line with our policy in highlighting helpline themes directly impacting vulnerable people and whistleblowers. Due to continuing demand during lockdowns, we spent 577 hours on helpline calls outside the normal helpline hours of 10 am to 4pm Monday to Wednesday. We published a new report responding to academic research and whistleblowing law highlighting serious and evidenced inconsistencies. The Charity Appeared on RTTV and LBC radio re care home nursing. Around a 35% increase helpline contacts immediately followed these November broadcasts. The Charity did interviews on Times Radio and daily Mail Radio at the end of November which also resulted in a 35% increase in helpline calls. A consistently high number of families of abuse victims requested support in the process of appealing flawed Safeguarding investigation conclusions. We published our 14th live time Covid Crisis report in November, an urgent alert that patients were being escorted from wards to hospital discharge waiting rooms. Families were only informed at the last minute; families were arriving at these waiting areas to find relatives confused and distressed about to be

Denying individuals and families time to find a suitable care homes. Due to our unique work publishing Live time Covid Crisis helpline reports we were asked to give evidence as an expert witness at the tortoise media event looking in detail at what went wrong in care homes. Published our 15th Covid Crisis report, Designated Disaster highlighting that numerous families across the UK had discovered by chance their loved one's care home was about to become a designated Covid home. That many of these homes had long histories of very poor care, poor hygiene, and infection control. Published a full response to the Serious case review into the Morleigh Care homes abuse cases. Private Eye Covered our, Live time, Covid report, Designated Disaster. This resulted in a 30% increase in helpline calls and 7 substantial donations to the charity. Over the Christmas period we responded to 2 serious incidents requiring us to contact the police. FOI health department re Vaccine implementation Karis Winton joins us as a new trustee, Karis is a trainee solicitor and has been a volunteer for the charity for a number of years. Her case subsequently featured on BBC panorama, Behind care home doors. Two abusive care staff were subsequently jailed and will never work with vulnerable people again. During the time that Panorama were filming abuse and neglect in the home, the regulator CQC inspected the home and rated the home Good. Karis brings invaluable lived experience of the issues, to our team of trustees. The other trustees, volunteers and beneficiaries want to thank Eileen Chubb for her dedication and incredible hard work, for consistently working up to 12 hours a day and longer, 7 days a week which allows this charity to help so many people and produce so much

	invaluable published work. We are the only UK abuse and whistleblowing charity that was publishing Live time, covid crisis reports, 32 reports in total so far, which have alerted the authorities and the public to identified themes for the first time. These reports have been submitted to the APPG on Coronavirus for the public inquiry which is to take place. Eileen wrote the book, Dismantling the Façade, which was published in July 2021. The book profiles different abuser types, the different types of abuse committed and the motivation for the abuse as well as much more information about the current system. Early reviews of the book from our beneficiaries are and continue to be extremely positive. Our beneficiaries feel this book offers vital in-depth information and understanding of the issues involved rather than a superficial generic tick list approach. All royalties from Eileen's Book have always been donated to this charity. January 2021, we highlighted to government that elderly people with disabilities were having to travel considerable distances for the first dose of the vaccine. By December 2021 we had published 18 Covid crisis reports. The organization Truth Defense publish their report of their independent investigation into WBUK and the report they published, fully vindicates this charity's concerns that WBUK were seriously harming our beneficiaries. Published a special Covid report on number of calls we were receiving regarding huge increase of reports of thefts in care homes. In early 2021 we gave 4 quotes on story's that appeared in the Times and the Daily mail, this resulted in a 29% increase in helpline calls. 117 hours were spent on research re social care and whistleblowing issues and all government proposals for a number of laws which will adversely affect our beneficiaries. Eileen spoke at three international virtual symposiums in March 2021 on the issues of

Filing the incoming evidence re the call for evidence on regulators, which is the largest task we have undertaken, and which will help to identify themes and will go to the root cause of why so many people are failed by these authorities. This will be the largest investigation into regulators ever undertaken in the UK . We gave a quote to the Telegraph re a story about DNRs based on our helpline evidence on the issue. 29% increase in helpline calls. Like all our books the royalties will go direct to the charity. We are considering this proposal as it would highlight some very important issues that affect our beneficiaries and would be in a format that would reach a very large audience. Our work has been recognized in a new play about elderly care and whistleblowing which we look forward to seeing in the near future. Huge response from the public re the Private Eyes stories on the Charity Commissions Misconduct. Published 10 further Covid reports highlighting themes emerging from our helpline data Submitted detailed evidence to the House of Commons Public Standards select committee inquiry into lobbying and APPG dishonesty affecting our beneficiaries. Submitted detailed evidenced submissions to the DMCS select committee Press release circulated ahead of book publication. Book published and selling well. The malicious allegations made by WBUK, and the conduct of the Charity Commission have taken 212 hours of the charities time, time that would have been spent helping families of abuse victims and whistleblowers. See further information section Quotes given to The Times and various other nationals led to around a 30% increase in helpline calls and donations from the public who supported our stance on the issues. We published a report on the Gables Care home highlighting specific issues. We Published a report on Tall Trees Care home, which due to our archive of care home reports. We were able to present the previous history of the home which led up to the events covered by BBC news. We have responded to many individual Tribunal cases, highlighting relevant issues and

	how important it is that only genuine whistleblowers can access the law. In August we held the first international Edna's day, remembering all those who lost their lives, or were abused or subjected to other wrong doing because whistleblowers were ignored. We scheduled dozens of tweets in the weeks leading up to the day, so that on the day dozens of tweets went out every hour, with the onus on the victim's story's as its often lost that whistleblowing is not just about the whistleblower, but the message they carry, the lives at stake. This event was a huge success, and we received a huge number of messages of support from across the world. We will continue this event every 4th of August. The Gavin MacFadyen Award 2021, the only award in the world for whistleblowers to nominate a journalist was won jointly by Dr Justin Schlosberg and Andrew Feinstein of Truth Defense for their work exposing whistleblowing organizations who have exploited and failed whistleblowers. Ali and Lucy Tabrizi for Seaspiracy and Netflicks for Seaspiracy. The award event was cancelled due to the Pandemic and will be held virtually. We have continued to avoid events or unnecessary gatherings and have carefully followed all Covid Guidance. We have spent a daily budget of £49, we are happy that our work continues to be effectively tackling the root causes of abuse and that we give value for money in the work we do each day. A lot of our planned work such as the Richard Turner Award has been delayed because of the malicious allegations, we have all worked very hard to ensure that the helpline is our priority. Important further Information	Para 1.41	Whilst we are restricted in what we can say, as there is an active police investigation into the malicious allegations made by WBUK Halford Hall, and the Charity Commissions subsequent conduct, which featured in 3 issues of Private Eye. We can only highlight what is already in the public domain, namely that this charity was attacked specifically because we raised, robustly evidenced comprehensive concerns that WBUK had caused harm to whistleblowers and allowed the continuing abuse and neglect of vulnerable people. We would take the same action again without hesitation. Our case also raises a number of very important issues, charities who challenge wrongdoing that directly affects their beneficiaries are vulnerable to political attacks and there needs to be specific protection for such situations in future. We have experienced harassment, malicious allegations, bullying, abuse of power and injustice. As a charity run by whistleblowers, our very heartbeat is speaking out about wrongdoing, what kind of charity would we be if we remained silent on issues of serious abuse? This charity has no paid staff, it is run by those who have witnessed abuse and have suffered for reporting it. We are effective in the work we do because we really listen to whistleblowers and families of abuse victims and all our policies are based on the experiences of whistleblowers and families of abuse victims. Our work is aimed at challenging the root causes of abuse and we identify those issues by listening to those who are directly experiencing them. As a result of the WBUK malicious allegations and the Charity Commissions political attack on us, we have endured what can only have been an attack with intent to silence us permanently by trying to exhaust our small resources, taking 212 hours away from our vital work and attacking until we were forced to spend £43 a day on legal fees. We are trying to recoup this via crowd justice, and we are so grateful that so many came forward to donate from the little they had to spare. This charity has and will continue to exist by the goodwill of those we have directly helped.

		Our typical donations are from previous helpline callers such as Sue, who every year donates on her father's birthday and thanks us for saving his life and giving her an extra six precious years with him. We want to thank all our volunteers who give so much time and love, we want to thank all those who support us because they have seen first-hand the work we do, our volunteers are those we have helped and want to give that same help to others. Our funders are predominantly those we have helped in the past and who remember us in the future. This is testament to our work and says everything about who we are and what we do. We run on a daily spend of £49 but we run-on love, dedication, passion, zero tolerance of abuse, and lived experience and we cannot measure that in money, but it is that which is the true meaning of the word charity

A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The principal risk is due to the nature of our work in exposing abuse of vulnerable adults, the authorities' failure to act on valid concerns raised by whistleblowers and challenging Government on policies that have led to avoidable deaths and suffering in care homes. All of these aspects of our work make us vulnerable to malicious allegations and political attacks. The charity always has full evidence available to respond to any such allegations.
