OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The main objective of the charity, for public benefit, is to assist in the regeneration of the community by providing easy access to information of their social, cultural and industrial heritage. This includes educating the community and making them aware by means of exhibits and artifacts of equipment, photographs, documents, maps and literature. This awareness through exhibitions and information will continue to develop and protect the rural and cultural heritage of the South Wales Coalfield.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

The museum has recently undertaken a major refurbishment with the access road and museum building being rebuilt and the interior museum being totally redesigned. It reopened to the public in January 2009 and continues to be one of the main attractions within the Afan Argoed Country Park. The financing of the project was through grants from the National Assembly for Wales, Neath & Port Talbot Council, The Heritage Lottery, Coalfield Regeneration, Upper Afan Forum, WCVA, Wales Cooperative Centre Limited. In addition there have been fundraising activities within the Community to assist with the costs.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE TRUSTEES

The trustees (who are also directors for the purpose of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees Annual Report and the Financial Statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (UKGAAP).

Company Law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure of the charitable company for that period.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER

M.I.Morris & Co. Ltd has been proposed to the trustees and approved to be appointed as the independent examiner for the ensuing year.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS REPORT TO THE MEMBER OF: SOUTH WALES MINERS MUSEUM

You consider that the company is exempt from an audit for the year ended 31 March 2022. You have acknowledged, on the balance sheet, your responsibilities for complying with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 with respect to accounting records and the preparation of accounts. These responsibilities include preparing accounts that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year.

In accordance with your instructions, we have prepared the accounts which comprise the Profit and Loss Account, the Balance Sheet and the related notes from the accounting records of the company and on the basis of information and explanations you have given to us.

We have not carried out an audit or any other review, and consequently we do not express any opinion on these accounts.

OPINION

In our opinion the Financial Statements give a true and fair view of the charity's affairs as at 31st March 2022, including its Income and Expenditure, in the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2006.
