Property Purchase

It has been an aim of the Charity to be able to conduct its activities from its own premises.

In early 2018, the Charity has successfully raised funds for acquisition of a community centre to enable the charity to conduct its operations and activities from the centre and provide it with a recognisable identity.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

Due to a lack of funds the Charity has not been able to arrange the following activities, but plans to do so in the future:

- Additional Programs for the community

Other activities

- a) Providing information to members through group discussions and presentations about life in the United Kingdom and to educate them about the culture, rules and regulations in this country.
- b) Arranging English classes in order to teach the members to read, write and speak English and to learn about the local culture, communicate with other members of the community and integrate in the society that they live in.
- c) Printing leaflets and arranging presentations to provide awareness about the use of banned drugs.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD:

MR ABDUL KARIM

BEDFORD SHIA COMMUNITY

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Bedford Shia Community.

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2022 set out on pages seven to ten.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination as required.

It is my responsibility to:

- a) examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- b) to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- c) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements

- a) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
 - b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
