The report of the trustees

The trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Name, registered office and constitution of the organisation

The full name of the unincorporated charity is Dar Ul Hadith.

The non-profit organisation was formed on:	28/04/2004
The organisation is a registered charity.	Number 1103493
The registered office	2 Dudley Street, Manchester, M8 9DA
The telephone number is:	1613171481

The Objects of the organisation and how it is attempting to achieve the objectives

The charity is governed by a written constitution in which its objects are set out .

The objectives and restrictions in the activities of the charity imposed by its governing documents are:

- (a) to promote the furtherance of the knowledge of Allah (God) as portrayed in the authentic sources of Islam via structured teachings and education.
- (b) to providing facilities for the local community in practicing Islam and improving mental health.
- (c) to provide charitable support by donating to other organisations or communities (national and international) in the furtherance of islamic education and fighting poverty.

Objectives achieved in the year, a review of activities and significant changes and developments and plans for the future

The board of trustees are satisfied with the performance of the organisation during the year and the position at 31st December 2023 and consider that the charity is in a strong position to continue its activities during the coming year, and that the charity's assets are adequate to fulfil its obligations.

The particular ways in which objectives have been achieved are describe below

Achievement of objectives and review of activities

The charity has achieved its objective of continuing to highlight the importance of sports and health education to the Community by:

- * Addressing the under performance of education in youths.
- * Encouraging activities and delivering food to the poorer members of the community.
- * Carried out information sessions on immigration and legal matters.

Significant changes and developments and plans for the future

Important developments during the period included the support from local community.

The charity will continue to support the community and children who require education and help improve their environment through various activities advocated by Islam.

The organisational structure and how decisions are made

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust and constitutes an unincorporated charity. The charity constituted by the Trust Deed dated 26 December 2013

Trustees and local community meet regularly (the intention is quarterly) to discuss and plan objectives and implementation thereof. Matters of general concern are raised with all members .

Method of election of the members of the board of trustees

The members, who are Trustees are elected and co-opted each year under the terms of the Trust Deed.

Relationships with other groups, charities and individuals

The organisation works closely with the local authorities and Partnership Agencies around Manchester in order to address under representation and support the retention of ethnic minorities.

Details of related parties and transactions with related parties

There were no transactions with related parties.

Transactions and Financial position

The financial accounts are set out on pages 6 to 11.

The financial statements have been prepared implementing the Charities Act 2011 issued by the Charity Commission for England and Wales and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard 102 and Charities SORP.

The trustees consider the financial performance by the organisation during the year has been satisfactory.

The Statement of Financial Activities show net outgoing resources for the year of a revenue expenditure nature of £440,255 (expenses) and net realised incoming resources of a £461,620 (income).

The total reserves at the year end stand at £102,503 (accumulated funds c/f).

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees is satisfied that the organisation's assets are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations.

Policies on reserves, investment policies and investment performance

The trustees have resolved to establish reserves to provide for future activities, and the trustees estimate the reserves shall cover any emergency for three to six months.

The grant making policies

The intention is to utilise the income from the funds to make grants and donations to various charities and causes known to the Trustees or in respect of which Trustees may receive specific applications. In certain cases capital sums may be distributed as well to good causes.

The major risks to which the organisation is exposed and reviews and systems to mitigate risks

The organisation is exposed to risks involved in fundraising because its activities are supported by the local community, grants and donations. There are no investment risks.

1. Financial

The organisation is open to the usual financial risks of any organisation, and it has introduced controls to minimise these risks, such as two signatures being required for payments from the bank account. In addition, the accounts are regularly explained to members of the charity and are open for member's inspection at any time.

2. Other

Work with the public is open to risks. The policy is that visits and counselling is done in pairs or

Legal Status

The organisation is an unincorporated charity governed by a written constitution adopted by its members. There are restrictions in the way it is governed and operates.

The members of the Board of Trustees during the year ended were:

- 1) David Anthony Stonehouse
- 2) Imadeddeen Almenghawi

We wish to thank all committee members and staff team who served the charity during the year.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice. The trustees are required to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- * Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- * make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- * observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;

- * state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

- * Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the organisation will continue to operate.

The trustees are also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the organisation and which enable them to ascertain the financial position of the organisation and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the requirements of applicable law and regulations (Charities Act 2011 and SORP). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the organisation and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions in the Charities Act 2011 and SORP applicable to charities subject to the small entities regime.

This report was approved by the board of trustees on

Dar Ul Hadith Independent Examiner's Report

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2023

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the administrators of the charity for the purposes of charity law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act, to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records.

It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention to indicate that:

- accounting records have not been kept in accordance with Charities Act 2011
- the accounts do not accord with such records:
- where accounts are prepared on an accruals basis, whether they fail to comply with relevant accounting requirements and, or are not consistent with the Charities SORP (FRS102)
- any matter which the examiner believes should be drawn to the attention of the reader to gain a proper understanding of the accounts.
