INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

The Charity Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year, under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- * Examine the Accounts (under section 43(3) (a) of the Act
- * Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 43(7) (b) of the Act; and
- * State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

My examination was carried out in accordance with General Directions given by the Charity commissioners. An examination includes the review of the accounting record kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items and disclosures in the accounts, seeking explanation from the Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently, I do not express and audited opinion on the accounts.

No matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination:

* which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- 1) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
- 2) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirement of the Act have not been met; or

* to which in my opinion attention should be drawn in order to enable proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
