Review

It has been a very successful year for St James the Less Preservation Trust and Spring Bank Arts, the community arts venue which it oversees.

The AGM was held on Saturday 1st April in line with our regular practice.

The running of the Trust continues to be overseen by a group of hardworking trustees alongside 2 paid members of staff.

One of the main achievements in our management of the building has been the completion of the replacement of the windows which means the hall has become a much warmer space. The walls have been repainted which means it also looks much fresher.

As we continue our rotation of maintenance we intend to ensure our building retains its splendour and functions as a community asset.

We have invested in new sound and visual equipment which has improved the experience of both performers and audiences alike.

Our hirings through the day to local groups are vital to our running costs. We have a wide spectrum on offer and after the events of the past few years it is heartening to see so many old hirers returning. We strive to keep our costs as affordable as possible and benchmark ourselves against other space available locally.

We also have the pleasure of using the space to put in events and this last year has been our most successful yet in terms of audience numbers and the variety of performances on offer. We have hosted music from across the genres, theatre, spoken word, comedy and film with some amazing performers.

We believe that the St James the Less Preservation Trust and Spring Bank Arts are a testament to the strong appetite for the arts that is alive and kicking in New Mills and we look forward to another successful year.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE ST JAMES THE LESS PRESERVATION TRUST

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of The St James The Less Preservation Trust ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31st December 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
