Introduction

This document is the trustees' annual report Fatboys, as mandated by the Charity Commission for England and Wales. It follows the layout guidance provided by the Commission and contains supplementary information where the trustees believe it helps readers to better understand our charity.

Foundation

Fatboys is a cancer charity for children and was established in 1999, in the wake of the passing of Mike 'Fatboy' Lawless, a serving Police officer in Swindon. He died in 1999 aged 31 from cancer. Mike had previously worked as a nurse at a variety of hospitals including Guy's Hospital in London.

Mike was a keen rugby player who captained the Wiltshire Police Rugby team. He played a good standard of rugby in the front row at Swindon Rugby Club, as well as for teams in his home town of Gloucester.

Mike was also a very proficient musician who played guitar and sang for local rock band Animal House, even during his illness. He was an incredibly popular bloke with a great sense of humour and a social animal in line with the band's name. The charity started with rugby and music events, initially intending to be a short term project enabling those who knew him to raise money in his honour for sick children. However, the events and purpose grew in popularity until it became obvious that the charity should be established.

Primary purpose

The stated objective of Fatboys in our governing document is: 'To relieve sickness and the distress related thereto, in particular of children suffering with Cancer, Leukaemia or other serious illness by the provision of toys, games, sports equipment or other items in an effort to relieve their suffering and to make donations to other Cancer related charities.'

This means our primary purpose is to raise money through events and donations to buy Christmas presents for children with cancer and elevate them at this special time of year. None of our trustees or volunteers receive a salary or expenses, so except for our minor overhead expenses such as our Just Giving and Point of sale (POS) terminals rental, all income raised is spent on presents, and small donations to Great Ormond Street Hospital and St Johns ambulance. We meet at each other's homes, so we have no office expenses, and our accountants provide their services pro bono. The current average spend on each present for the period was £107.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit. Our activities benefit the public and no specific private individual. Our activities are solely charitable and there are no commercial or private benefit results.

Policy on grant making

We are a small charity run wholly by volunteers, and our income limits us to our primary purpose of buying Christmas presents for children with cancer except for a monthly donation of £10 to Great Ormond Street Hospital and a quarterly donation of £15 to St Johns Ambulance. Our current policy is not to make grants to other charities, and we have had no requests from other charities to make grants to them.

Policy on social investment

Social investment is the use of repayable finance to help an organisation achieve its social mission. Our policy is not to use social investment. We only spend the money we raise and carry over a surplus to the next year.

Contributions made by volunteers

All effort provided for Fatboys is by volunteers. Our trustees, committee members, organisers and volunteers are unpaid. The main contributions made by volunteers are:

- Effort in preparation for and attendance at events
- Organising and distribution of the presents in the weeks before Christmas
- Other 'volunteers' organise events like reunions, BBQs and golf days and make collections for us at their event or run a raffle in our favour

Summary of main activities for the year

Our activity involves steady fund raising throughout the year, but a concentrated activity in November and December of inviting applications for presents, sifting and screening the applications, then buying and delivering the presents. Delivery is in person to each child by one of our volunteers known as elves, often dressed as an elf, in co-ordination with the child's parent/s or primary carer.

Our specific fundraising for the period included:

- Our volunteers helping with Kington Langley's Scarecrow event in June, serving food and drinks, in return for a donation
- A Fatboys sponsored family cycle ride and live music evening in July
- Our volunteers helping with Christian Malford's family music event in July, serving bar drinks, in return for a donation. We also ran our own stall at the event selling hot drinks and Fatboys merchandise
- Arranging our own live music event (Fatfest) in October at The Victoria pub in Swindon
- Our volunteers helping with Christian Malford's Bonfire Night event in November, serving bar drinks, in return for a donation. We also ran our own stall at the event selling food, hot drinks and Fatboys merchandise
- Our volunteers helping with Chippenham Lions Christmas Carol float doorstep collection nights in December, in return for a donation
- BDO Professional Services choosing us as their charity of the year for all internal sponsored events. This raised almost £4000 for us. They stated that one of the main reasons for choosing us was that we have no salary or personal expenses costs

112 children received presents at Christmas 2024 and £12,003.88 was spent. There were no issues reported but this was lowest number of children for 5 years, which has prompted a discussion about how the process is publicised on social media and in Children's Oncology services.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period

Fatboys is in a financially healthy position. As of 14 April 2025, there was £27,542 in the bank. The trustees consider this to be too much in reserves, with the summer events fundraising events still to come. We need to reach more children in need and a meeting is being held on 10 September to discuss options for achieving this.

Policy for holding reserves, stating why they are held

Reserves result in years where we distribute less value in Christmas presents than the income we've generated through events and donations. The number of applications we receive for presents is not wholly within our control, although we can influence it with communications.

The policy for holding reserves is to maintain low risk. Until recent years our surplus was low, and the reserves were held in our current account. We are currently examining ways of depositing our reserves to earn interest with no risk and easy access in time for the November/December spend. For example, the trustees agree that we should not invest in shares or other instruments where our reserves could fall in value.

Amount of reserves held

As of 14 April 2025, there was £27,542 in the bank, which is our total reserves. Each year we agree a maximum spend on Christmas presents to ensure we do not have zero reserves.

Statement of continuing as a going concern

The trustees have no uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern. We have minimal outgoings and a healthy reserve.

Principal sources of funds

92% of our income in the period came from donations, including income from sponsored events and donations from local community organisations because we help staff their events.

8% of our income came from profit on our own events including merchandise sales, mainly clothing such as hoodies, rugby shirts and T-shirts

The table below shows our income and expenditure compared with previous years. Our income is rising but the demand from our recipients is not rising as quickly. Our main costs are for bands and merchandise at events. We have invested in bulk buys of merchandise of around £11,000 over the last two years to achieve volume discounts that will result in more profit on merchandise over the next few years. Our merchandise has large logos and we see the clothing as promoting awareness of our charity.

Statement of Independent Examination of Accounts

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Fatboys

I report on the accounts of Fatboys for the year ended 5 April 2025, which comprise the Receipts and Payments Account together with the related notes.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 and the applicable regulations.

I have been appointed as independent examiner under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. My responsibility is to examine the accounts and to state whether any matters have come to my attention as a result of that examination.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act 2011.

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence required in an audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records. I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Introduction

This document is the trustees' annual report Fatboys, as mandated by the Charity Commission for England and Wales. It follows the layout guidance provided by the Commission and contains supplementary information where the trustees believe it helps readers to better understand our charity.

Foundation

Fatboys is a cancer charity for children and was established in 1999, in the wake of the passing of Mike 'Fatboy' Lawless, a serving Police officer in Swindon. He died in 1999 aged 31 from cancer. Mike had previously worked as a nurse at a variety of hospitals including Guy's Hospital in London.

Mike was a keen rugby player who captained the Wiltshire Police Rugby team. He played a good standard of rugby in the front row at Swindon Rugby Club, as well as for teams in his home town of Gloucester.

Mike was also a very proficient musician who played guitar and sang for local rock band Animal House, even during his illness. He was an incredibly popular bloke with a great sense of humour and a social animal in line with the band's name. The charity started with rugby and music events, initially intending to be a short term project enabling those who knew him to raise money in his honour for sick children. However, the events and purpose grew in popularity until it became obvious that the charity should be established.

Primary purpose

The stated objective of Fatboys in our governing document is: 'To relieve sickness and the distress related thereto, in particular of children suffering with Cancer, Leukaemia or other serious illness by the provision of toys, games, sports equipment or other items in an effort to relieve their suffering and to make donations to other Cancer related charities.'

This means our primary purpose is to raise money through events and donations to buy Christmas presents for children with cancer and elevate them at this special time of year. None of our trustees or volunteers receive a salary or expenses, so except for our minor overhead expenses such as our Just Giving and Point of sale (POS) terminals rental, all income raised is spent on presents, and small donations to Great Ormond Street Hospital and St Johns ambulance. We meet at each other's homes, so we have no office expenses, and our accountants provide their services pro bono. The current average spend on each present for the period was £107.

The trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit. Our activities benefit the public and no specific private individual. Our activities are solely charitable and there are no commercial or private benefit results.

Policy on grant making

We are a small charity run wholly by volunteers, and our income limits us to our primary purpose of buying Christmas presents for children with cancer except for a monthly donation of £10 to Great Ormond Street Hospital and a quarterly donation of £15 to St Johns Ambulance. Our current policy is not to make grants to other charities, and we have had no requests from other charities to make grants to them.

Policy on social investment

Social investment is the use of repayable finance to help an organisation achieve its social mission. Our policy is not to use social investment. We only spend the money we raise and carry over a surplus to the next year.

Contributions made by volunteers

All effort provided for Fatboys is by volunteers. Our trustees, committee members, organisers and volunteers are unpaid. The main contributions made by volunteers are:

- Effort in preparation for and attendance at events
- Organising and distribution of the presents in the weeks before Christmas
- Other 'volunteers' organise events like reunions, BBQs and golf days and make collections for us at their event or run a raffle in our favour

Summary of main activities for the year

Our activity involves steady fund raising throughout the year, but a concentrated activity in November and December of inviting applications for presents, sifting and screening the applications, then buying and delivering the presents. Delivery is in person to each child by one of our volunteers known as elves, often dressed as an elf, in co-ordination with the child's parent/s or primary carer.

Our specific fundraising for the period included:

- Our volunteers helping with Kington Langley's Scarecrow event in June, serving food and drinks, in return for a donation
- A Fatboys sponsored family cycle ride and live music evening in July
- Our volunteers helping with Christian Malford's family music event in July, serving bar drinks, in return for a donation. We also ran our own stall at the event selling hot drinks and Fatboys merchandise
- Arranging our own live music event (Fatfest) in October at The Victoria pub in Swindon
- Our volunteers helping with Christian Malford's Bonfire Night event in November, serving bar drinks, in return for a donation. We also ran our own stall at the event selling food, hot drinks and Fatboys merchandise
- Our volunteers helping with Chippenham Lions Christmas Carol float doorstep collection nights in December, in return for a donation
- BDO Professional Services choosing us as their charity of the year for all internal sponsored events. This raised almost £4000 for us. They stated that one of the main reasons for choosing us was that we have no salary or personal expenses costs

112 children received presents at Christmas 2024 and £12,003.88 was spent. There were no issues reported but this was lowest number of children for 5 years, which has prompted a discussion about how the process is publicised on social media and in Children's Oncology services.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period

Fatboys is in a financially healthy position. As of 14 April 2025, there was £27,542 in the bank. The trustees consider this to be too much in reserves, with the summer events fundraising events still to come. We need to reach more children in need and a meeting is being held on 10 September to discuss options for achieving this.

Policy for holding reserves, stating why they are held

Reserves result in years where we distribute less value in Christmas presents than the income we've generated through events and donations. The number of applications we receive for presents is not wholly within our control, although we can influence it with communications.

The policy for holding reserves is to maintain low risk. Until recent years our surplus was low, and the reserves were held in our current account. We are currently examining ways of depositing our reserves to earn interest with no risk and easy access in time for the November/December spend. For example, the trustees agree that we should not invest in shares or other instruments where our reserves could fall in value.

Amount of reserves held

As of 14 April 2025, there was £27,542 in the bank, which is our total reserves. Each year we agree a maximum spend on Christmas presents to ensure we do not have zero reserves.

Statement of continuing as a going concern

The trustees have no uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern. We have minimal outgoings and a healthy reserve.

Principal sources of funds

92% of our income in the period came from donations, including income from sponsored events and donations from local community organisations because we help staff their events.

8% of our income came from profit on our own events including merchandise sales, mainly clothing such as hoodies, rugby shirts and T-shirts

The table below shows our income and expenditure compared with previous years. Our income is rising but the demand from our recipients is not rising as quickly. Our main costs are for bands and merchandise at events. We have invested in bulk buys of merchandise of around £11,000 over the last two years to achieve volume discounts that will result in more profit on merchandise over the next few years. Our merchandise has large logos and we see the clothing as promoting awareness of our charity.

Statement of Independent Examination of Accounts

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Fatboys

I report on the accounts of Fatboys for the year ended 5 April 2025, which comprise the Receipts and Payments Account together with the related notes.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 and the applicable regulations.

I have been appointed as independent examiner under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. My responsibility is to examine the accounts and to state whether any matters have come to my attention as a result of that examination.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act 2011.

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence required in an audit and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records. I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
