Objectives and Activities

Charitable Objectives.

The Charity's objectives and regulation are set by the constitution adopted in 2004 and the charity is an unincorporated association.

Aims of Charity

The Advancement of the religion of Islam according to the principles and guidance laid down by the Quran and the Sunnah of Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him) as recorded in sahih Bukhari and sahih Muslim and all other sahih Ahadith and the observances that serve to promote and manifest it which now is or hereinafter may be

Objectives for the year.

During this year the charity sought to:

- Further improve awareness of it's existence, facilities and services offered.
- To continually enhance the facilities provided. Obtain planning permission for extension
- To develop and enhance the educational curriculum.

Public benefit statement

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the requirements of section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission for England & Wales.

Use of volunteers

The charity uses the services of volunteers in a number of ways;

- To assist in raising the profile of the charity.
- To assist with maintaining the records of the charity.
- To assist with the development of the charity.
- To maintain the buildings.

Achievements and Performance of the Charity

-The Charity continued to provide service and facilities for the Muslim Community in Biscot area of Luton.

Review of charitable activities undertaken by the charity

The main activities during the year were:

- Further enhancement of prayer facilities
- Further enhancement of learning facilities.
- Increasing awareness of the trust and the services it provides.
- Facilitate community counselling and advise on local issues and needs.

Financial review

During the year, the Charity income was £85,342 (2023: £115,054) and after spending of £155,158 (2023: £131,476) the carry forward reserves stood at £739,904 (2023: £809,720).

Policy on reserves

The Trustees have resolved to establish over the next few years reserves to provide for future activities, and to provide funding for the expected expenditure for six months ahead.

Current reserves are adequate based on our knowledge and experience.

Principle funding sources

The principal income was generated through donations from public who attend the Masjid accordance with the objectives of the charity. The principal expenditure related to the cost of providing facilities to the Muslim community of Luton.

Plans for future periods

The Charity will also continue to look at options to diversify in delivering its aims & objectives.

Structure Governance and Management

Nature of the Governing Documents and constitution of the charity

The Charity's objects and regulation are regulated by the constitution adopted in 2004 and the charity is an unincorporated association. Eligibility for membership of the charity, and membership of the board of trustees is governed by the constitution. There are no restrictions in the constitution on the operation of the charity or on its investment powers, other than those imposed by general charity law.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

New Trustees are appointed by invitation based upon the specific requirements and the skill set needed by the charity to help advance the charitable objectives.

Induction and training of trustees.

We have at the moment no policy or procedure for the training of trustees, other than the "do's and don'ts" publication provided by the charity.

Organisational structure and management.

Trustees meet regularly on a bi-monthly basis to discuss and plan objectives and implementation thereof. Matters of general concern are raised with all members. Day to day management and responsibility for implementing policies is carried out by trustees. The Trustees undertake all final decisions with implementation being delegated amongst each other.

Membership of a wider network

The charity has no responsibility for nor is it answerable to any other organisation.

Related parties

Other than the Trustees and those persons connected with them there are no individuals who are related parties. Details of transactions with related parties are shown in the notes to the accounts. This includes remuneration and expenses paid to Trustees.

Risk Management

The trustees acknowledge their responsibilities for establishing a risk management system and satisfied that appropriate systems and procedures are under development and continue to keep the strategic, business and operational risk under review with view to introducing, where necessary, additional procedures to mitigate these risks.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Charities Acts require the Board of Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Board is required to:-

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- observe the methods and principle in the Charities SORP.
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the Charities Act.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved by the board of trustees on 28th July 2025

Independent Examiners Report on the Accounts

Report to the trustees/members of:

AL JALAL ISLAMIC SOCIETY

On accounts for the year ended:

30 September 2024

Charity no: 1105758

Set out on pages:

6 to 10

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- The accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- The accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- The accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Report regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' vi which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

AL JALAL ISLAMIC SOCIETY

Notes to the Accounts

For the Year Ended 30 September 2024

1 Accounting policies

Statement of compliance

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015)- (Charities SORP (FRS 102)), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Charities Act 2011.

Basis of preparation

The Charity meets the definition of public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy notes.

Exemption from preparing a cash flow statement

The Charity opted to early adopt Bulletin 1 published on 2 February 2016 and therefore not included a cash flow statement in these accounts.

Going concern

The trustees consider that there are no material uncertainties about the Charity's ability to continue as a going concern.

Transition to FRS 102

In preparing the accounts, the trustees have considered whether in applying the accounting policies required by FRS 102 and Charities SORP FRS 102 a restatement of comparative items was required. No restatements are required as a result of the transition to FRS 102.

Income and endowments

Voluntary income including donations, gifts, legacies and grants that provide core funding or are of a general nature is recognised when Charity has entitlement to the income, it is probable that the income will be received, and the amount can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Going concern

Donations and legacies are recognised on a receivable basis when receipt is probable, and the amount can be reliably measured.

Volunteer help

The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts but is described in the trustees' annual report.

EXPENDITURE AND LIABILITIES

Liability Recognition

Liabilities are recognised where it is more likely than not there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out resources and the amount of the obligation can be measured with reasonable certainty.

Governance costs

Include costs of the preparation and examination of statutory accounts, the costs of trustee meetings and cost of any legal advice to trustees on governance or constitutional matters.

Fixed assets and depreciation

All tangible fixed assets are capitalised if they can be used for more than one year and are stated at cost less depreciation. Items of less than £1000 are not capitalised.

Depreciation has been provided at the following rates in order to write off the assets (less their estimated residual value) over their estimated useful economic lives.

Improvement of Building 10% Reducing Balance

A regular annual review of the likelihood of asset impairment is undertaken.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Funds structure policy

The charity maintains a general unrestricted fund which represents funds which are expendable at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the objects of the charity. Such funds may be held in order to finance both working capital and capital investment. Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity.
