Trustees' Report

Introduction

The trustees present their annual report and financial statements for the year ended 20 July 2024 and confirm that they comply with the Charities Act 2006, as amended by the Charities Act 2011, the constitution and the Charities SORP 2015.

The board of trustees are satisfied with the performance of the charity during the year, the position at 20 July 2024 and consider that the charity is in a strong position to continue its activities during the coming year, and that the charity's assets are adequate to fulfil its obligations.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

Queensgate Islamic Centre was constituted as a charitable trust registered with the Charity Commission in November 2004 under charity number 1106932. It is governed by a constitution last updated in October 2009.

Organisational Structure

The charity trustees are responsible for the general control and management of the charity. With the exception of Mr Bibi Nazia and Mr Saad Aziz, the trustees give their time freely and receive no remuneration or other financial benefits.

Appointment of Trustees

The existing trustees are responsible for the appointment of new trustees.

Objectives and Activities of the Charity

The objects of the charity are set out in its constitution and are summarised as follows:

To advance education by establishing educational centres and to maintain and manage such centres for the public in the subject of the Islamic faith according to the creed of Ahlus-Sunnah Wal Jama'ah.

To advance the Islamic religion by establishing and providing facilities for prayers and other religious functions including producing and distributing literature and also to maintain such facilities for the public.

To advance such other charitable purposes as may from time to time be determined.

Queensgate Islamic Centre Trustees' Report

Achievements and Performance of the Charity

During the year the charity has continued to steadily and successfully raise money via deductions and loans from the Muslim community across the country.

Financial Review

Policies on reserves

The trustees have resolved to establish reserves to provide for the furtherance of the charity's activities.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

No funds are in deficit.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Queensgate Islamic Centre

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 20 July 2024, which are set out on pages 5 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145 (5) (b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Acthave not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 20 July 2024

1 Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities (SORP 2005)', issued in March 2005, applicable accounting standards and the Charities Act 2011.

Fund accounting policy

Unrestricted income funds are general funds that are available for use at the trustees' discretion in furtherance of the objectives of the charity.

Further details of each fund are disclosed in note 11.

Incoming resources

Donations are recognised where there is entitlement, certainty of receipt and the amount can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Resources expended

Liabilities are recognised as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to the expenditure. All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category.

Costs of generating funds are the costs associated with attracting voluntary income.

Fixed assets

Individual fixed assets costing £100 or more are initially recorded at cost.
