Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION Incorporated on 27 August 2004 as amended by special resolution dated 26 November 2004. Certificate of incorporation on change of name dated 2 December 2004
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	This is a company limited by guarantee, a charity set up to promote Christianity within the African continent. The company has to comply with both the Companies Act 1985 and the SORP. The charity operates inside and outside England and Wales and Africa.
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	The current trustees have been co-opted; they voluntarily offered their services to create this charity and work together to support the work that it was set up to do. They all have a desire to serve God in the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and were already involved in similar activities in England and in Africa. No time limit has been set by the charity as to their period of service; their continuance will always be subject to their sympathy and compliance with the organisations objectives, beliefs and principles. For the near future, the charity aims to strengthen its base by co-opting other like-minded people.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2024

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Responsibilities and basis of report

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2023

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity’s trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION Incorporated on 27 August 2004 as amended by special resolution dated 26 November 2004. Certificate of incorporation on change of name dated 2 December 2004
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	This is a company limited by guarantee, a charity set up to promote Christianity within the African continent. The company has to comply with both the Companies Act 1985 and the SORP. The charity operates inside and outside England and Wales and Africa.
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	The current trustees have been co-opted; they voluntarily offered their services to create this charity and work together to support the work that it was set up to do. They all have a desire to serve God in the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and were already involved in similar activities in England and in Africa. No time limit has been set by the charity as to their period of service; their continuance will always be subject to their sympathy and compliance with the organisations objectives, beliefs and principles. For the near future, the charity aims to strengthen its base by co-opting other like-minded people.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Friends of Hope for Africa Missions (FHAM), is a non-profit making Christian organisation, whose primary aim is to partner and support the charitable work that is carried out by Hope for Africa Missions (HfAM).

HfAM is a South African Charity, which currently provides spiritual (Bible based), financial and practical assistance to various communities in Northern South Africa, in many African countries, especially in Mozambique, Malawi, Zimbabwe, Lesotho and Swaziland. Its projects are church based and include agricultural development, education for orphans, technical training, and leadership training.

We aim to support HfAM and its programme of Christian, community based sustainable development. In particular we shall be responsible for European activities in co-ordinating:

- the raising and donation of funds by individuals, groups and churches
- visits to HfAM, to give help and assistance in their work
- assistance to those who are called to serve God within HfAM, short or longer term
- provision of pastoral and developmental (spiritual, financial and practical) support, to members of HfAM.

We will work with HfAM as their partners, by following our Lord Jesus' example in providing for their physical need.

We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and by believing in Him we have life through His name.

As children of God, we seek to serve Him, as He would like us to, in sharing the message of His gospel that all should come to him through repentance and faith.

- We believe that the Bible is God's word and desire to live by its standards and practices
- We believe that as the Lord Jesus cared for those with whom he came into contact that we should too.
- We believe that as the Bible teaches, "the prayer of the righteous man is powerful and effective" (James 5:16).
- We believe in the sharing of God's love to all, "for God so loved the world, that He gave his only son" (John 3:16).
- We believe that God has made it possible for all our needs to be supplied through The Lord Jesus Christ

Finance and Administration - The Board of Directors and Trustees have overall responsibility for all the decision making and activities with FHAM. Certain responsibilities and functions have been delegated to directors, trustees and others within the organisation.

Our bankers are HSBC Plc, 26 Broad Street, Reading, Berkshire, RG1 2BU. There is more than one signature to these accounts. We are bound to comply with all the financial regulations, as stipulated by Companies House and The Charities Commission, and as such we maintain proper financial records, and publish regular financial statements.

We are registered for receiving gift aided donations

We are duty bound to ensure that all transactions, or activities undertaken are in the best interest of

'the Charity' and that God's name is not in anyway dishonoured or brought into disrepute.

Fundraising – permission to be sought and given before proceeding.

Gifts and or donations will be refused, which are deemed to be obtained illegally or fraudulently e.g. drug related, prostitution, bribery or if for any other reason that the 'board' may feel unwise to accept such a gift

Accounting for Projects – Projects are assessed, justified and agreed upon by both the recipients and FHAM. In 'the field', they are monitored and tracked by designated individuals.

Training – The present trustees are aware from past experiences of the responsibilities involved in holding the position and, as a body, we constantly remind ourselves of our duties. As new trustees join, training is an area which is addressed.

Relationship with our main beneficiary Hope for Africa Missions (HfAM) – To ensure accountability, credibility and sustainability with HfAM; we work continually on our processes, establishing working procedures and various reporting systems. In addition there are appraisal visits and constant communication with their officials. Recognising and understanding their desires, aims and cultural differences as we work with them and to assist ourselves and any one wishing to be involved, we have introduced a 'Principles and Practices Guideline for UK Short Term Visitors to Hope For Africa Missions (HFAM)'

Relationship with our donors – We aim to maintain contact and keep them up to date. Our website is www.fham.co.uk.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2022

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Set out on pages

1 and 2

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2021

Responsibilities and

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
