Objectives and activities

Charitable Objects

The trustees shall apply the income and such parts of the capital of the charity as they think fit (whether through donations to other charities or by any other charitable way) for or towards the relief of those children in the Indian Sub-continent or in the United Kingdom in financial need, hardship or distress, the relief of those who are sick and the preservation and protection of the health of such children; and the advancement of their education by such charitable means as the trustees determine from time to time, in particular by the provision of housing or other accommodation, education and materials or facilities and the provision or payment for such items, services and facilities to ease their suffering or assist in their recovery or to improve their welfare.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the trustees are required to:

- a) select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- b) make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and

c) prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation. The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities. The trustees recommend that Bharat Shah & Co. remain in office until further notice.
