FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

The main source of funds is the donations from Sadh Sangat and so far, it has been positive and responsive. We thank all the Sikh community for their financial support.

Investments

The trustees' investment powers are governed by the Memorandum and articles of Association.

Reserves policy

We are looking to invest charity's reserves so as not to lose its value by investing in land and building.

FUTURE PLANS

The whole of Irvin House has been purchased and a section of the area is being rented to keep Sangat's burden to a minimum. All plans will be completed with a view to available funds and long-term survival of the Gurdwara. Leases and permissions have now all been secured.

The much needed car park issue is still with us and we must find a solution to address this requirement, pending funding and nearby place availability.

Structural investments have been made and are required to keep the old building in usable order, but we monitor carefully whether such expenditure enhances the building value. We also keep usage permission issues in check.

We will focus more on education and seminars going forward including youth development.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

Appointment by the Trustees from the nominees proposed by the Sangat using a selection process in compliance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association.

Risks

The Board examines the major risks that the charity faces each period when preparing and updating the strategic plan. The charity has developed systems to monitor and control these risks to mitigate any impact they may have on the charity in the future.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 5 April 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

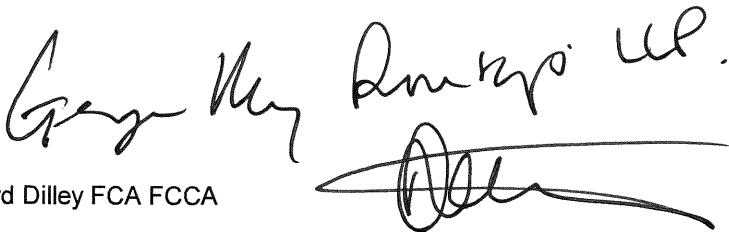

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Principal funding sources

The main source of funds is the donations from Sadh Sangat and so far, it has been positive and responsive. We thank all the Sikh community for their financial support.

Investments

The trustees' investment powers are governed by the Memorandum and articles of Association.

Reserves policy

We are looking to invest charity's reserves so as not to lose its value by investing in land and building.

FUTURE PLANS

The whole of Irvin House has been purchased and a section of the area is being rented to keep Sangat's burden to a minimum. All plans will be completed with a view to available funds and long-term survival of the Gurdwara.

Health and Safety taken seriously; that said COVID-19 is going to take majority of our resources to deal with and protect the Sangat, a nominated person will continue to look at issues to make the Gurdwara a safer place for all.

The much needed car park issue is still with us and we must find a solution to address this requirement, pending funding and nearby place availability.

Structural investments have been made and are required to keep the rather than old building in usable order, but we monitor carefully whether such expenditure enhances the building value. We also keep usage permission issues in check.

We will focus more on education and seminars going forward including youth development.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Sri Guru Singh Sabha Gurdwara Letchworth ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 5 April 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

The main source of funds is the donations from Sadh Sangat and so far, it has been positive and responsive. We thank all the Sikh community for their financial support.

Investments

The trustees' investment powers are governed by the Memorandum and articles of Association.

Reserves policy

We are looking to invest charity's reserves so as not to lose its value by investing in land and building.

FUTURE PLANS

The whole of Irvin House has been purchased and a section of the area is being rented to keep Sangat's burden to a minimum. All plans will be completed with a view to available funds and long-term survival of the Gurdwara.

Health and Safety taken seriously; that said COVID-19 is going to take majority of our resources to deal with and protect the Sangat, a nominated person will continue to look at issues to make the Gurdwara a safer place for all.

The much needed car park issue is still with us and we must find a solution to address this requirement, pending funding and nearby place availability.

The kitchen is in requirement of an update, this will be looked to be addressed alongside the other priorities (Temple roof, metering and drainage)

Structural investments have been made and are required to keep the rather than old building in usable order, but we monitor carefully whether such expenditure enhances the building value. We also keep usage permission issues in check.

We will focus more on education and seminars going forward including youth development.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 5 April 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

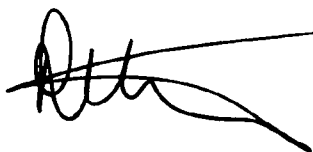

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Sri Guru Singh Sabha Gurdwara Letchworth

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Sri Guru Singh Sabha Gurdwara Letchworth ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 5 April 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by Section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
