FOCUS COUNSELLING (UK) LTD

Report of the Trustees for the year ended 31 March 2022

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Focus Counselling, led by CEO Helen Marton, was founded in Bath in 1999 in response to an identified need for affordable, professional counselling services for local people. At the time, people in distress were unable to access counselling services unless they could afford to pay. This meant that those on the lowest incomes, or who were unemployed, were unable to receive the support they desperately needed.

Over the years Focus Counselling have built a strong track record of raising donations to fund counselling for people who cannot afford the fees. It has also been successful in building up reserves to enable the charity to continue providing services to its clients on a consistent basis even when dealing with unexpected external shocks such as the Covid pandemic. It is encouraging to report that Focus Counselling has come through Covid in a more robust financial position which is a reflection both of the good management of the charity but also the continuing demand for our services.

Focus Counselling provides professional subsidised one to one counselling for children and young people, adults, families and couples in Bath and Frome. Its aim is to improve the emotional and mental well-being of residents in need by putting counselling within the financial reach of all those who would not otherwise be able to afford it. Its services are delivered within the context of a Person-Centred, Christian ethos, which takes people's spirituality seriously and respects the views of those with other faiths or none. Clients can talk freely and confidentially without fear of being judged. Its counsellors listen, empathise, and empower people to explore ways of making real change in their lives.

Following an initial assessment session lasting approximately 30 minutes, clients are referred to a professional, experienced counsellor to help clients with their mental health problems. Drawing from a large pool of qualified and experienced sessional counsellors enables the charity to respond to referrals immediately and match clients to counsellors.

Focus Counselling has offices in Bath and Frome, has a counselling presence in eight schools in Bath and one in Frome. It offers a free Adult Eating Disorders Support Group, a free Young Person's Eating Disorder's Group, Spiritual Direction, and a free Survivor's Group for women who have suffered sexual violence.

Focus Counselling has a strong reputation in Bath and excellent working relationships with local agencies, schools, and service providers; it is widely known and trusted.

It receives referrals from GPs, schools, social care teams, churches, Talking Therapies, CAMHS, NHS, local charities including YMCA/Foodbanks/homeless charities (Genesis Trust and Julian House) and Bath MIND. Adults and young people also self-refer. The charity is supervised by an experienced Board of Trustees. During the course of the year, Michael Fairbeard stepped down as Chair but agreed to remain as a trustee thus allowing Focus to continue to benefit from his knowledge and experience. He was replaced by Andrew Stafford who has a long and successful business career and joined the board this year.

Focus Counselling now contracts with more than 31 professional counsellors and 5 trainees who between them handle more than 530 counselling sessions a month and provide services to 6 local schools.

The charity raised £57,500 during the past financial year in the form of donations which allowed it to provide discounted fees to approximately 70% of clients. (Not including schools)

Over the last twelve months, it has provided approximately 6600 hours of counselling in total across the community and the schools it serves despite the challenges of Covid and remote working.

Public benefit

The trustees believe that they and the charity have met their charitable objective and that the charity continues to provide an appropriate public benefit.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Focus Counselling (Uk) Ltd

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Focus Counselling (Uk) Ltd ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since your charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a listed body. I can confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a registered member of ACA which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

FOCUS COUNSELLING (UK) LTD

Notes to the Financial Statements for the year ended 31 March 2022

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.

Raising funds

Costs of raising funds are costs incurred in attracting voluntary income, and those incurred in trading activities that raise funds.

Charitable activities

Charitable activities are costs incurred on the company's operations, including support costs and costs relating to the governance of the company apportioned to charitable activities.

Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

Computer equipment - Straight line over 5 years

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

Company status

The company is a company limited by guarantee. The members of the company are the Trustees named on page 3. In the event of the company being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £10 per member of the company.
