Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

FGT provides Spiritual Support to local communities, provides spiritual education and provides and help promote Christianity as taught by the lord Jesus Christ in its simplest form. FGT also disciples believers into Christlikeness:

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- religious activities like prayer and fasting, evangelism, preaching and teaching the Gospels of Jesus Christ.
- arts and culture like developing skills in music and arts
- amateur sports like basketball, tennis, badminton and recreation
- helping out the poor children to be disciplined children, to be good citizens of the community and this includes young adults, elderlies and young people alike
- the Charity encourages UNITY within the community and its people even with people of different ethnic groups
- assist in providing information about certain benefits and Immigration matters

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

FGT did very well this past year in giving training to many young adults and young people alike especially in the area of music and multi media and public speaking.

Many of the young adults are now excellent singers, guitar, Bass and keyboard players. They are also now confident in public speaking and have become confident in the area of hospitality and cookery.

Section E Financial review

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Section F Other optional information

This year our Finance Officer who is a volunteer, is still sickly and currently on sick leave. She has many health issues and she is the only one who can do and capable of doing our accounts. This is the reason why our submission is still not upto date but will be finished and submitted in a few days time.

She has now spoken to us and reassured the Trust it would be submiited in a few days time.

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/10/2024

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
