Management Arrangements

The charity is managed by elected 5 trustee members and is staffed by one part-time employee and 10 volunteers. The office is open for appointment only from Monday - Thursday between 10am - 2pm, and Friday closed for the public.

The Role of Volunteers

Volunteers run office-based advice and advocacy, outreach to connect users with the local services and school link work. They also provide office admin service for the organisation as the trust most of its paid staff.

Activities and Achievements

Advocacy and Guidance for Refugees and Asylum seekers

A four days advice and advocacy service is run for Somali refugees and asylum seekers in the Camden Town area. Two part time volunteers offer advice to Somali families in their 'mother tongue'. A volunteer administrator started working on January 2018 who also is complementing the advice service. An interpretation and translation service is also provided to refugees with language issues. The volunteer, who is just completed his level three interpreting/translation course with Mary Ward Centre, is running this service. This year project supported 106 people who attended our office for help as the trust offers cultural specific services.

Somali School Link Project with Camden Secondary schools and School Exclusion Project:

The Somali Link works closely with school-based Home/School Link Workers and community groups to establish effective links with Somali parents and support schools in identifying and addressing issues facing Somali young people as well as the parents. In this current year 2019/20 alone the project has worked with more than 90 parents and 62 school children. There are also two secondary schools in Camden who benefit directly from the project. They are Regents High and William Ellis Schools. The main source of funding for this project is from those two schools.

Parents received seminars, trainings and awareness campaigns such as Behaviour and Exclusion Management, Female Genital Mutilation (FGM), extremism, and revision guidance for GCSE students. They also receive support when attending Progress review days for KS3 and KS4. Future plan for SCDT this coming year is to reorganise our centre at 62a St Pauls Crescent as a training hub for the community.

Work partners

SCDT works closely with Somali Youth Development Resource Centre (SYDRC), Voluntary Action Camden, Maiden Lane Community Centre and with many more local partners.

Independent examiner's report

For the year ended 31 March 2021

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 March 2021, which are set out on pages 5 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention, which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met;
