Trustees' Annual Report

The trustees present their report and the accounts of the charity for the period ended 31 December 2022. The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on pages 9 and 10 and comply with the charity's trust deed and applicable law.

Legal and administrative information set out on page 1 forms part of this report.

Constitution and Objects of the Charity

The charity is constituted by trust deed dated 20 May 2005 and registered with the charity commission on 5 September 2005 under charity number 1111180.

The principal objectives of the charity are:

- (a) to advance Judaism through Jewish education and the provision of a community center and/or synagogue for the purpose of worship
- (b) to conduct services, meetings and provide educational facilities to provide for spiritual and religious needs
- (c) to produce and/or distribute literature on Judaism to enlighten others about the Jewish religion and advancing religious educational and charitable activities to be carried out in accordance with the principles of orthodox Jewish laws and practices, and
- (d) such other purposes as are recognised by English law as charitable and to act in association with other bodies having similar objects.

The trustees must use the income and may use the capital of the charity in promoting the objects.

The trustees are aware of the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit reporting as set out in Section 4 of the Charities Act 2011. The trustees believe that the charity achieves a public benefit through these objectives.

Trustees and Governance

The trustees in office in the period were as follows:

The power of appointing a new trustee or trustees hereof shall be vested in a majority in number of the trustees or if there is only one trustee for the time being the provisions of section 36 Trustees Act 1925 shall have affect.

The trustees have been selected as a result of their standing in the community and professional expertise. No training has been deemed necessary during the year to allow the trustees to carry out their duties. Training and development are considered on an ongoing basis.

Charity's Activities and Achievements

During the year the charity has again been very successful in carrying out its primary goals. The educational lectures and presentations have been very well attended and the speakers have covered a diverse range of fascinating topics.

The trustees are particularly grateful to the ongoing significant financial support that has been provided by the supporters of the charity. They recognise that they have been given a significant responsibility by the donors to put the funds to the most beneficial projects. The charity has a low level of expenditure, which is mostly used to cover the costs of putting on presentations along with a small overhead cost. The trustees have made a significant effort not to waste money and have managed to build up cash reserves to cover more than 12 months expenditure which will ensure that lectures can continue, even if there is a fall in the level of donations received.

During the year, the trustees decided to purchase a large library to provide another excellent resource for the educational center. This has led to an expansion of the activities carried out in the center and has increased the number of users.

The trustees have continued to keep expenditure at a low level and at the year-end the charity had £169k (2021: £255k) retained as cash reserves.

Related Party Transactions

The charity had no related party transactions during the period.

Investments Policy

The charity owns a property which functions as a resource and educational center. It also has a bank current account and savings account. There are the only investments to which the charity has title.

Reserves Policy

The trustees aim to retain funds equivalent to at least 12 months expenditure to take account of any potential short fall in donations in future.

Grant and Donation Making Policy

It is not generally the policy of the charity to make grants, however, in exceptional circumstances, any application to charity for grants or donations or loans are considered carefully by the trustees at regular meetings. If the trustees feel that the application meets their approval in principle, they will meet applicants face to face and discuss with them the project for which the organisation is seeking assistance. The Trustees would then have a further meeting before making a decision as to whether assistance should be granted, and if so, to what level.

Risk Management

The trustees regularly undertake a review of the major risks to which the charity is exposed, and systems designed to mitigate those risks are considered on an ongoing basis.

There are two major risks that the trustees have identified, as follows:

(a) Fall in the level of donations

The level of donations is fundamental to the operation of the charity. Given that the charity is relatively new, the consistency of donations is of major importance. The trustees have tried to mitigate against a fall in the level of donations by having as many donors as possible providing their donation by monthly standing order. The trustees are making every effort to increase the number of donors by seeking support from the local community in an attempt to reduce their current reliance on a few key donors. The trustees also make every effort to keep in regular contact with their donors so that they are able to see the difference that their contributions are making.

(b) Misappropriation of funds

The control of funds is key to any charity. The trustees meet regularly and discuss progress. At these meeting the costs of the charity are discussed by the trustees. This helps to ensure that all expenses paid out from the charity are legitimate. It also makes sure that the trustees consider the expenditure incurred to be the best use of funds at that time. The trustees also hope that any misappropriation of funds would come to light in the independent examination.

Since the banking arrangements ensure that only the trustees have access to the bank account, this also reduces risk of misappropriation.

Public Benefit

The trustees acknowledge the duty in Section 4 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to the Charity Commission's published general and relevant sub-sector guidance on public benefit. All activities undertaken by the charity are for the public benefit. With a focus on providing a much needed resource and educational centre for the local, orthodox Jewish community, the organisation's operation is very much geared to providing benefit to the Jewish and wider community as is highlighted by the activities reported herein.

Trustees' Responsibilities in Relation to the Accounts

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial period, which give a true and fair view of the state of the charity's financial activities during the period and of its financial position at the end of the period.

In preparing those accounts, the trustees are required to:

- a. select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- b. make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- c. follow applicable UK accounting standards and the Statement of Recommended Practice, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- d. prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the trustees and signed by their order.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Machon Mayim Chaim (charity number 1111180)
for the Year Ended 31 December 2022

I report on the accounts of the trust for the year ended 31 December 2022, which are set out on pages 6 to 11.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Independent Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
