OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives, principal activities and organisation of our work

The Charity's object and its principal activity is for the advancement of the Christian religion in the United Kingdom and overseas, and to relieve persons in conditions of poverty, sickness and distress.

The Charity operates as a church in the Watford area and currently has approximately 100 members who attend regular services. The Church also welcomes up to 20 visitors on a regular basis who are able to donate to the charity. It is hoped that these visitors will become members.

The Charity raises money through regular tithes from members, and by offerings from members and visitors. Some of the funds are used to assist members of the church who may be in financial hardship, and donations are made to other small charities as determined by the Trustees. The Charity also supports overseas missions, orphanages and schools primarily in Jamaica and Venezuela.

The Charity is organised so that the trustees meet regularly to manage its affairs.
