Future Plans

The Charity expects to be able to produce a new Strategic Plan in 2018 containing revised strategic aims and priorities. These will be pursued through commitments in Annual Plans. In the meantime, and in a constantly shifting landscape, the Senior Management Team is investigating options for a different business model that would make the Charity viable.

Financial Review

In furtherance of charities objectives, the directors plan to continue applying surpluses to investment in Staffing, equipment and product development in order to maintain and develop new services

Fundraising

Fundraising activity was restricted to project and core funding bids developed by employees. No public or other appeals were made. The charity does occasionally use the services of professional fund-raisers to bring in resources.

Reserve policy:

The charity currently operates with minimal reserves. The trustees are endeavouring to build up its donor base with a view to having reserves equal to four months operating expenditure.

Trading

The Charity raises no income from trading.

Risk(s) Review:

The Trustees have recently reviewed the major risks faced by the charity. This has resulted in efforts to raise unrestricted funds, increase charity's donor base and the Implementation of health and safety review.

The Trustees have a risk management strategy involving an annual review of the major risk to which the Charity is exposed and approval of systems and actions for managing and mitigating them. A risk register is produced and updated at least annually. The Charity has always operated at significant risk of falling to achieve adequate income to meet its commitments and pursue its objectives. None of its income sources can be regarded as secure.

Financial risks are minimized by the procedures in place for authorization of expenditure and Commitments. The charity maintains insurance cover for public liability and trustee's indemnity liability.

An Annual review of the risks the charity may face.

The establishment of systems and procedures to mitigate those risks identified in the plan. And the Implementations of such procedures designed to minimize any potential impact on the charity should those risks materialize.

Investment Policy

Due to the short of fund and cash flow, the charity has no long-term plan for investing its reserves.

Trustees Responsibilities:

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare the financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of its financial activities for that period.

In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

1. Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently,
2. Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
3. State whether the policies adopted are in accordance with the Charities Act, and
4. Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the charity will continue to operate.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the regulations and are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities. This report was approved by the trustees on 28 December 2023 and signed on their behalf by:

Independent examiner's report

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2023, which are set out on pages 6 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act;
- To follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention, which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met;
