UK Children Aid Trust Fund Bangladesh Independent Examiner Report

Independent Examiners Report

Independent Examiners Report We report on the accounts of the (UK) Children Aid Trust Fund Bangladesh for the year ended 1 October 2024

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's management committee you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993(the Act) does not apply. It is our responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as the management committee concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

1. Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements (i) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and (ii) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met; or
2. To which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Review of Activity:

During the year the charity has made a number of Television Broadcast. This has had significant positive impact, in terms of, increased level of charitable donations and in awareness of its existence amongst the Bangladeshi community in the UK. There has been a great success of nurturing, educating and providing shelter to our 40 plus children. The existing play area at the shelter has had a makeover and is now complete. There is a great operation in place which makes the home run in a smooth and efficiency manner.
