Objects and activities

The Trustees shall apply the funds of the charity together with any additional estate or income paid into the charity in such manner as they think fit, for any purposes which appear to them in their absolute discretion directed to the improvement, efficiency or benefit of the selected charitable causes. The Trustees, in exercising their powers of discretion and applying the funds shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, have regard to the sources of the funds under this scheme and to the purpose for which the funds were originally amassed.

Investment powers

The Trustees have wide unrestricted powers to invest funds for the charity.

Risk assessment

At each trustee meeting a risk assessment is considered and any action deemed necessary is taken.

Donation to Fund

During the year, Mrs Christine Ridgway (Trustee) transferred 192 units in the Findlay Park American Fund into the Foundation. The value of the transfer of £24,958.

Independent examiner

Mr J R M Simcox of Simcox & Co. has offered himself for re-election as the independent examiner to the charity.

Signed on behalf of the Trustees

TRUSTEES' STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITIES Year ended 5 April 2022

Trustees' responsibilities for the financial statements

The Trustees are required to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees should follow best practice and:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in being

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the charity and which enable them to ascertain the financial position of the charity and to ensure that the financial statements comply with applicable law. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

By order of the Trustees

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE CHRISTINE ROBERTS-RIDGWAY FOUNDATION

I report on the accounts of the trust for the year ended 5 April 2022, which are set out on pages 5 to 7.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for the year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and the seeking of explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Acthave not been met, nor
- 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
