Activities

Objects: To advance education by : Educating children, young people, and the wider public about the causes and consequences of crime, including gang involvement. Promoting and supporting restorative justice initiatives that provide a voice for victims and enable offenders to understand the impact of their actions. Providing support and raising awareness for victims of crime and their families.

Activities: The Chris Donovan Trust is a small charity that was set up after the murder of Christopher Donovan. We run our Five Minutes of Madness / Restorative Justice workshops in prisons, schools, and universities, our aim is to educate young people of the dangers of getting involved in gangs & crime and to see the consequences of their actions, and how Restorative Justice can benefits both parties
