Activity

In the last 12 months the Wisdom Project has updated and streamlined IUSTI's document archives, reviewed statutes and values, refined job descriptions, and developed standardised guidelines for meeting bids. The Scholarship committee has created terms of reference, developed a scholarship fund, and aims to assist LMIC delegates to attend scientific meetings. The Communications committee have revitalized IUSTI's digital presence and is working with a web designer to update the IUSTI website and membership systems.

The role of Senior Counsellors has been reviewed and It has been agreed to change the name to Strategic Advisors, with a term of 4 years, extendable to a second term. The Responsibilities of the Strategic Advisors will be to provide strategic advice as needed and to attend a minimum of one Executive Committee meeting in person in each 4-years' term.

Global Newsletters

Four editions of STI Global Update were published incorporating letters from the IUSTI President to members, updates from each region and a listing of upcoming meetings and conferences related to STIs. The newsletters were sent to all IUSTI members via email and made available on the IUSTI website.

IUSTI Conferences

One of the main functions of IUSTI is to organise the major global annual scientific meeting devoted to prevention and treatment of STIs and HIV.

- September 2024, 25th IUSTI World Congress, Sydney Australia Jointly held with the Australasian HIV&AIDS conference, organized by Professor Eric Chow, University of Melbourne, and co-chaired by Professor Jo-Anne Dillon. A total of 903 delegates attended of whom 332 of whom travelled from outside Australia. 356 scientific abstracts were accepted from 39 countries. Scholarships for attendance were awarded to 29 delegates from 13 countries of which 23 were supported by IUSTI. The total scholarship sum awarded was AU$49,800 including a generous AU$22,000 donation from the Burnet Institute to support Aboriginal and Torres Islander attendance. IUSTI awarded prizes for best oral and poster presentations. The congress was well evaluated with 92% of respondents reporting they will apply the lessons learned in their work or practice. Financially the congress generated a surplus of which the share due to IUSTI was AU$57,577.17: a net return of GBP£11,549.08 after accounting for the GBP£15,000 seed money advanced in 2023/24.

- July 2025, 26th IUSTI World Congress in Montreal, Canada jointly with ISSTD
Jointly chaired by Professors Marc Steben and Jo-Anne Dillon a full congress report and budget reconciliation will be presented in the 2025/26 annual report as this meeting straddled the end of our reporting year.

IUSTI Medals

An IUSTI silver medal was awarded to Professor Marc Steben for his work in delivering the Congress in Montreal and an IUSTI gold medal to Professor Jo-Anne Dillon for her services on EXCO and in last 2 years as President

Future World IUSTI Meetings

October 2026, Prague, Czechia, jointly with IUSTI Europe

Collaboration between IUSTI and the WHO:

The WHO Executive Committee continues official relations with IUSTI. The official relations are governed by the Framework of Engagement with non-State actors, according to which the basis of official relations is a plan for collaboration between WHO and the non-State actor with agreed objectives and outlining activities for the coming three-year period structured in accordance with the General Programme of Work and Programme Budget and consistent with the Framework. A collaboration plan for 2024-2026 was ratified by WHO at their triennial review meeting in January 2024.

Summary of finances:

Accounts have been prepared on a 'receipts and payments' basis as the income received is below GBP£250,000.

FY 2024/25 HSBC	Opening 01/08/2024	Closing 31/07/2025
Charitable account xx-8967	£243,018.45	£260,594.93
Business account [aka scholarship]	£35,582.07	£35,540.07
TOTAL	£278,600.52	£296,135.00
Gain in funds		£17,534.48

As at 31 July 2025 the charity held a total of £296,135.00 in cash, of which £5,935.01 is restricted (the Elwyn Hopkin Scholarship fund).

Of note:

- While a surplus was shared from the IUSTI 2024 Sydney meeting, future congress organisers did not request any seed money in 2024/25. We expect to pay out £30,000 for future congress support in 2025/26.
- Subscription income was reduced by around a third in 2024/25 compared to 2023/24 due to configuration error affecting autorenewals on our membership website. This led to around 250 members receiving certificates stating they had full membership, and the membership system reporting they were full members, but in fact their accounts were never debited a membership fee. This error has now been corrected.
- The Trustees have agreed significant capital investment of around £10k in our website and membership system, which has been awarded after a competitive tender. Just under £5k was spent in 2024/25.
- No direct award for scholarships were made in 2024/25 although scholarships were awarded through the IUSTI 2024 congress budget. In the light of the surpluses shared from Sydney and expected from the Montreal meeting, the Trustees have agreed to fund £20,000 p.a. from 2025/26 onwards for the next three years for meeting attendance from low and middle income countries.

Collaboration between IUSTI and the WHO 2021-2023:

The WHO Executive Committee continues official relations with IUSTI. The official relations are governed by the Framework of Engagement with non-State actors, according to which the basis of official relations is a plan for collaboration between WHO and the non-State actor with agreed objectives and outlining activities for the coming three-year period structured in accordance with the General Programme of Work and Programme Budget and consistent with the Framework. A collaboration plan for 2021-2023 submitted to WHO in collaboration with our WHO representatives was ratified by WHO at their triennial review meeting in January 2021.

The president, Dr Janet Wilson represented IUSTI at WHO webinars about the Global Health Sector Strategy for HIV, Viral Hepatitis and Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs) for 2022-2030. These were to define the key priorities and strategic shifts required to achieve the goals of ending these diseases as public health threats by 2030. IUSTI committee members were also involved in the WHO regional consultations, as well as the online survey. In October 2021, IUSTI provided comments to the initial draft of the strategies. The comments and feedback that WHO received helped inform the final version of the strategies, and the World Health Assembly approved the implementation of the new Global Health Sector Strategies on HIV, viral hepatitis and sexually transmitted infections for the period 2022-2030. The strategies are available on https://cdn.who.int/media/docs/default-source/hq-hiv-hepatitis-and-stis-library/full-final-who-ghss-hiv-vh-sti-1-june2022.pdf?sfvrsn=7c074b36_13

INTERNATIONAL UNION AGAINST SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED INFECTIONS

Future plans:

IUSTI should make its beliefs on sexual and reproductive rights clear and visible on the website. Many societies are now becoming less tolerant of LGBT+ rights, gender equality, and women's access to contraception and abortion even in countries where these are legal. It has been agreed that IUSTI should develop a statement explaining our values and principles which will be discussed at next executive Committee meeting and posted on the IUSTI website.
