Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

Gwent Arts in Health (GARTH) is a company limited by guarantee, incorporated on 22 June 2004 and registered as a charity on 24 April 2006. The company was established under a Memorandum of Association which established the objects and powers of the charitable company and is governed under its Articles of Association. In the event of the charitable company being wound up members are required to contribute an amount not exceeding £1.

Appointment of Trustees

The directors of the company are also the charity trustees for the purposes of charity law and under the company's Articles of Association are known as the Council of Management. Additional members are elected by the existing members of the Council of Management. The minimum number of members is no less than three.

Trustee induction and Training

The existing Trustees are familiar with the work of the charity, having been involved for several years, and our new Trustee was provided with Charity Commission guidance advising them of their obligations under charity law.

Any new Trustees would be invited and encouraged to attend a session to familiarise themselves with the charity and the context in which it operates. This would include a brief on their legal obligations under company and charity law, the content of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Council of Management including the decision making process and the latest financial position as set out in the published accounts. Each Trustee would also be provided with the latest Charity Commission guidance on becoming and undertaking the Trustee role.

Risk Management

The Trustees have a Risk Management Strategy which comprises:

- An annual review of the risks the charity may face
- The establishment of systems and procedures to mitigate those risks identified in the plan
- The implementation of procedures designed to minimise any potential impact on the charity should those risks materialise

The main risk identified in 2021-22 relates to financial health, in particular the Charity's continued reliance on a diminishing reserve from Health Board Charitable Funds. There is a need to develop new funding streams to ensure the ongoing viability of the Charity.

Organisational Structure

Gwent Arts in Health (GARTH) has a management committee, of up to 9 members, including our Trustees. The committee administers the charity and is also responsible for the strategic direction and policy of the charity.

Related Parties

The charity has a close relationship with the Aneurin Bevan University Health Board. The Board's Charitable Funds Committee provided core funding in support of the work of the Charity for many years. The continuing representation of Aneurin Bevan University Health Board members and staff on the Committee has proved invaluable to the charity.

Objectives and activities

The objects of the charity are:

- To relieve sickness and preserve and protect physical, mental and emotional health by the use of the Arts, including but not limited to: literature, drama, music, dance, crafts, design, poetry and visual arts
- To advance education and awareness of the role of the Arts in Healthcare for the benefit of the public

Our physical environment has a profound effect on our health and wellbeing, particularly at times of illness or stress. Gwent Arts in Health (GARTH) objectives and activities for the year continued to focus on the delivery of a programme to improve hospital environments and offer direct benefits to wellbeing through the practice of the arts. The programme was designed to both improve the patient experience throughout their care and the working atmosphere for the staff and general public.

Financial Review

Our 2021-22 expenditure was £10,542, and our income was £32,999, so we ended the year with increased reserves of £22,457. This is a better position than last year. However, to remain financially viable it is essential that the Charity become more active in fundraising.

Investment policy

The Charity's funds are generally to be spent in the short term so there are no funds available for long term investment. The Investment Policy is, therefore, such that the trustees will operate a policy of keeping available funds in an interest bearing account specifically set up by the banking institution for charities.

Trustees responsibilities in relation to the financial statements

Company law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity at the end of the financial year and of its surplus or deficit for the financial year. In doing so, the Trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis

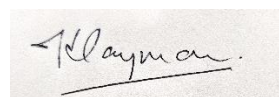

The Trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enables them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. The Trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Audit-Exemption

The company qualified as a small company in 2017-18 and for audit exemption, under section 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985, as:

- Its annual turnover was less than £6.5M
- The balance sheet total was less than £3.26M
- The average number of employees was less than 50.
