Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity comprises of a small number of trustees, some who have extensive experience in working in the charity sector. Their experience and extensive material provided by the charity commission is utilised in induction and training of trustees.

The charity does not make any commitment to individuals or projects beyond the scope of the funds raised so major risks are avoided.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Christian faith in accordance with the Statement of Beliefs in Middlesex and in such other parts of the UK and the world as the Trustees may from time to time think fit and other such purposes which are exclusively charitable according to the law of England and Wales and are connected with the charitable work of the charity.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The relief of persons who are in conditions of need, hardship or distress in Middlesex and in such other parts of the United Kingdom or the world as the Trustees may from time to time think fit.

The Rehoboth Trusts supports such causes as:

- Christian Charities
- Christian Ministers or retired Ministers who are not supported adequately
- Christian churches in the UK and abroad (India, Uganda, Israel, etc)
- Christian education/schools
- Ministries involved in Evangelism
- supporting poverty
- supporting orphanages

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

We propose and select individuals and organisations that we choose to support. One off grants up to £3000 can be signed off by one signatory. Any amount above this has to be cleared by all trustees.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The total amount of income during the period was : £32,664 (down 24% from £43,001 in 2019)

Out of this a number of grants and donations were made to a variety of individuals and Christian organisations (as described in summary). This amounted to: £28,363.88 (down 35% from £43,829.33 in 2019)

Section E*Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The costs of operating the charity are extremely low. In the opinion of the trustees reserves are not deemed necessary as the operating costs are not likely to grow in the near future.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The expenditure was made according to the charity's key objectives and included Christian Ministers in financial hardship, Christian education, Christian churches, individuals involved in evangelism and organisations helping Christians in Israel, Africa, India and the Middle East.

As the costs are kept to a bare minimum the vast majority of the funds raised are available to be given away (as supported by the accounts).

The charity does not have an investment policy because the funds are discharged more or less straight away to individuals and ministries in need. This should not change in the medium term but the trustees will re-evaluate should this change.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below~~*) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
