Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

No multispecialty health camps were held this year due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Eye operations have instead been arranged for free following self-referral through our network of village schools and social workers, with full COVID-appropriate safety precautions. Support for children with social and educational needs has continued, with regular assessments observing safety for the Trustees as well as families. School fees and expenses for a total of 156 children are currently being funded. The Dispensary at Goindwal Sahib is continuing to run with social distancing and safety precautions, after reopening in June 2020. All the staff are fully vaccinated against COVID-19. First aid camps have also resumed at the Darbar Sahib/Golden Temple, Amritsar, around festivals.

Section E

Largely, money is sent to the Trust's (registered in India) account in India by direct bank transfer. From the Indian account, cheques, drafts and cash are issued to be directly spent on the objects. Some direct transactions for activities occur from UK accounts.

The Trust has fixed deposits in Punjab National Bank, UK, totalling over £70,000, ensuring financial security and buffering.

*(remember: to include the page numbers of additional sheets)Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
