

TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT

2022 - 2023

TOGETHER FOR SHEFFIELD

A NOTE FROM OUR TRUSTEES

Dear Friends and Supporters,

As Chair of Trustees at Together for Sheffield, I'm excited to share some updates and thoughts on our journey.

Our team works hard and gets things done, driven by their commitment to see Sheffield transformed. Our progress has been remarkable, but what excites me most is the incredible potential ahead. It is no secret that the inequalities across Sheffield are acute, and we see a huge opportunity to help connect those in the more affluent and those in the more deprived areas for mutual benefit. We want to encourage healthy communities of hope to operate in every area of our city.

A quick overview of our progress this year:

Structure & Management:

- A dedicated team of trustees, professionals, church leaders, and volunteers.

Activities - Serving the City:

- Ascend Employment Programme:
 - Over 100 young adults supported into sustained work.
 - Strong partnerships with local employers and youth hubs.
 - Significant impact on local employers and prosperity.
- Together for Food Provision Network:
 - Transitioned to another organization for sustainable growth.
 - Strong relationships with food providers continue to bear fruit.

Activities - Empowering the Church:

- Arise Sheffield Community:
 - Over 1700 believers from 150+ church communities connected.
 - Arise! magazine fostering connections, charitable partnerships, and employment opportunities.

Our vision extends citywide, empowering every individual to live out their faith and contribute to Sheffield's transformation. Our work with churches has flourished too. Through initiatives like Arise, we bring churches, charities, and ministries together. We encourage people to live out their Christian faith in a way that benefits all around them.

Thank you for being part of this transformative journey. Your commitment fuels our determination to do more and reach farther.

Warm regards,

Pastor Jon Watts - Chair of Trustees

Charitable Incorporated Organisation

Together for Sheffield, originally registered by the Charity Commission on 24th of June 2006 as Sheffield Cross Links, has been a beacon of hope and transformation in Sheffield. On November 13th, 2019, we embraced a renewed identity as Together for Sheffield, reflecting our commitment to working together with people from communities across Sheffield to 'seek the prosperity' of our city.

Objectives

The object of the charity is for the public benefit - the advancement of the Christian faith in Sheffield, through facilitating meetings and gatherings and the sharing of information resources across the churches in the Sheffield area. Providing charitable covering for city-wide Christian initiatives.

Structure and management

Together for Sheffield is governed by a dedicated team of trustees, including professionals, church leaders of various denominations, and philanthropists from across Sheffield.

Our operational team, consisting of a Chief Executive Officer, an Operations Director, and a Communications and Events Manager, work alongside a growing network of volunteers and contractors to bring our vision to life.

With trustees and team members representing a broad cross-section of the local communities we seek to serve, Together for Sheffield models unity and collaborative working both within and outside of the core team.

2 – Activities

SERVING THE CITY

Ascend Employment

As a result of the success of our award-winning pilot employment programme for young adults, we launched Ascend in October 2022.

Like the pilot programme, Ascend blends real work experience with group training and personal mentoring to support young adults to transform their futures.

Since its launch, Ascend has grown from strength to strength, supporting over 100 young adults into sustained work, and establishing strong partnerships with employers and youth hubs across Sheffield.

Jamie's Ascend journey is a great illustration of how Ascend is making a difference to families in Sheffield. When we first met Jamie, he was estranged from his family, unemployed, and struggling with personal hygiene.

With the support of the Ascend team, a local employer offered Jamie a work trial, and then a permanent job. Through Ascend's training and mentoring programme, he has also reconciled with his family.

The Ascend programme has firmly established itself, winning a contract from Sheffield City Council, positioning it for further growth in 2023 and beyond.

“Thanks to you,
my life is so much better.”
– Jamie

2 – Activities

SERVING THE CITY

Together for Food Provision Network

This year, we took the significant step of handing over the Together for Food Provision Network to another organization, exemplifying our commitment to sustainable growth and community empowerment.

Thanks to our close working relationships with a number of food providers across Sheffield, we initiated the Together for Food Provision Network in the early days of the Covid pandemic, working with Sheffield City Council to provide a swift and effective response to coordinating the provision of food and other supplies during a period of crisis.

Having built a robust system around the network, and empowered members of the network to lead the group, this year was a fitting time for us to step back. This ongoing collaboration has not only been fruitful, but also underlines our commitment to working together harmoniously.

The bonds formed during our stewardship continue to bear fruit, creating a win-win situation for everyone involved.

2 – Activities

EMPOWERING THE CHURCH

Arise Sheffield

Now in its third year, Arise Sheffield has grown to be more than an annual prayer-walking campaign: it's now a thriving community. With initiatives like "Wear Your Faith Fortnight" - a collaboration with the Diocese of Sheffield - we're redefining how churches and believers collaborate.

There are now over 1700 believers who connect directly with Arise, from over 150 different church communities. The Arise! magazine has further amplified our reach, fostering connection between churches, as well as charitable partnerships and employment opportunities for Sheffield believers.

Nowhere was this development more evident than in our flagship event, launching Arise:March 2023 at Sheffield Cathedral. Over 150 believers were seated by their location in the city, making new friendships around their tables with other local Christians passionate about transforming Sheffield.

With music from both a solo harp and a gospel choir, and a unity prayer shared by the regional leaders of the Catholic, Church of England, Baptist, and Black & African churches, this event was a brilliant picture of the Church in Sheffield working together.

2 – Activities

EMPOWERING THE CHURCH

Postcode Groups

Through Arise, Together for Sheffield has been working to create connections between Christians passionate about serving their local areas. This year, we launched a new strategy to facilitate the growth of ecumenical meet-ups for Christians who want to work with other believers to serve their communities. So far we've facilitated the growth of four local groups centred around different postcodes within the city, and we plan to continue to support these four groups while also developing new groups in other parts of Sheffield.

Sheffield Business Leaders Network & Sheffield Leaders in Prayer

Our networks are thriving hubs of collaboration and growth. The Sheffield Business Leaders Network continues to be a space where business acumen meets philanthropy. Meanwhile, Sheffield Leaders in Prayer is fast becoming the heart of spiritual leadership in the city, with leaders from diverse denominations coming together in unity to pray for the city and collaborate.

3 – Future Plans

(AND THANKS)

Future Plans

Our vision for Sheffield is clear: a city transformed by unity, compassion, and faith. As we step into the next year, our focus remains on uplifting unemployed young adults, fostering personal growth, and strengthening the bonds within the church community. With plans to expand Ascend and Arise Sheffield, and a renewed focus on fundraising, we invite organizations to join us in this transformative journey.

Acknowledgments and thanks

To the churches across Sheffield, the resilient young adults, and our selfless volunteer mentors - your contributions are the backbone of our success. Together, we're not just changing lives; we're reshaping the future of Sheffield.

For potential funders and partners, we invite you to be part of this transformative journey. Together, we can make Sheffield the place it was always meant to be.

*Note on Reserves Level:

Together for Sheffield is an ambitious small charity committed to working to transform Sheffield for decades to come. As such, here are a few points of context to explain our year end financial report.

Firstly: our main fundraising campaign takes place in February and March each year, and this funds the work we do for the following financial year, so our year end numbers are higher than our typical reserves.

Secondly: it's also worth noting that our income and expenditure have been higher than normal for several years now because Together for Sheffield was a gateway for the government Kickstarter employment programme, which meant that we paid the salaries for nearly 100 young adults on behalf of Christian businesses and charities across Sheffield.

Thirdly: in April 2023 (just after this reporting period) we created a new permanent role within the Together for Sheffield team, taking the number of core staff to four; before we could do this we needed to ensure that we had sufficient reserves available to support this growth.
