Multistory is a community arts organisation; our approach to community art is focused on inclusivity and relevance and we make creative projects with and by local people. Doing this means that both the process and outcomes of the projects speak to the backgrounds and interests of the people taking part and to the people in Sandwell as audiences for the exhibitions, publications and events we produce.

We have been based in the borough of Sandwell since 2006 and the people and place shape our work. We build meaningful connections between local communities and artists to produce creative projects that tell stories of everyday life. We believe in the power of art to reflect the times we live in and tell stories to bring people together.

The projects are created between community groups and artists so they can be produced to the highest creative standard and presented publicly to the wider community. We actively listen to the views and ideas of communities in Sandwell, project partners and the artists/creatives we work with as part of the process, to build meaningful relationships, outcomes and impact.

We work with a wide range of communities, creatives and partners to reimagine the local area, platform under-represented voices and inspire creativity and social change. Our programme of participatory arts projects, workshops, talks and events takes place in libraries, community centres and indoor and outdoor public spaces. The stories told through our projects have a local resonance but are also seen by audiences far beyond, both in national exhibitions and through our digital programme. We support artists through our development programme BCN, which hosts collaborative projects, residencies and skills development opportunities.

Multistory's Mission

To produce high quality community art with and by the people of Sandwell that encourages their creativity and participation in community and civic life and to bring about positive local change.

Multistory's Commitment to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

We are committed to increasing access to, and participation in, the arts for all of the culturally diverse communities of Sandwell. This includes residents, groups and organisations who are participants in our projects; the creatives we employ and nurture; and the partners we collaborate with. We do this because we believe that art is a vehicle for social change.

Multistory has signed up for the More Than a Moment Pledge – the West Midlands Arts sector's response – and its promise – to take radical, bold and immediate action to dismantle the systems that have for too long kept Black artists, creatives and employees from achieving their potential in the arts and cultural industries. We have updated our Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Action Plan; undertaken staff and Board unconscious bias and anti-racism training; and reviewed our recruitment and selection processes. We will continue this work, and attending quarterly learning meetings, as part of our commitment to the pledge.

We commit to creating an environment where everyone feels safe within our workplace, and across our programmes, and we will continue to push the organisation and to challenge ourselves.

Multistory's Aims

- To listen to the needs and interests of communities through access to and participation in creative and cultural projects and to represent their creativity, cultures and lives.
- To work collaboratively and creatively through place-based partnerships with the voluntary and community sector and Sandwell Council, including neighbourhood partnerships, place-making programmes and Sandwell museums and libraries.
- To build skills, confidence and capacity in the creative and cultural sector in Sandwell and the Black Country through ongoing professional development of under-represented creatives and grow employment opportunities.

Multistory's Objectives

- People Heritage and Place / to increase opportunities for people in Sandwell to collaborate with creatives and partners on projects about heritage and place to improve their neighbourhoods.
- Environment and Urban Greening / to promote, educate and influence understanding about the environment and to increase opportunities for people in Sandwell to collaborate with creatives and partners and improve the environmental quality of their neighbourhoods.
- Developing Practice / to support and increase creatives' development and employment; evaluate our projects and practice to learn and develop and share results.
- Sustaining our financial and resilience strategy that rests on three pillars: a strategic approach to partnerships and place-focused alliances; a flexible business model; and investment in the skills our staff, delivery teams and board.

Multistory's Values

- Creativity – to encourage participation and expression;
- Collaboration – with communities, creatives and partners;
- Accessibility – to make art and creativity accessible to communities that might not have access to it; to make our recruitment and commissioning process transparent and open;
- Inclusivity – of diverse communities, perspectives, stories, at all levels of the organisation and its work; and
- Sustainability – social, environmental, economic.

Multistory's Charitable Objects

1. To promote education in music, drama, media, multimedia, the creative visual arts and to promote the appreciation of the arts and creative media amongst members of the community.
2. To provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation and other leisure-time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for the people for whom such facilities are primarily intended.
3. To promote and preserve the health of the general public through music, drama, media, multimedia and the creative visual arts.

How Multistory's activities deliver public benefit

Public benefit is enshrined in Multistory's mission, impact and benefits. We carry out substantial activities to achieve our mission statement and to deliver public benefit. Our arts programme is primarily designed to meet the needs of local people. We create opportunities for people to get involved with the arts closer to where they live, enabling first time and repeat engagement with local cultural activity.

Multistory is based in one of the poorest parts of Britain: Sandwell is the 12th most deprived area out of 317 local authorities in England (The Indices of Multiple Deprivation (IMD) 2019). Census data shows that Sandwell people experience higher than average unemployment, ill health and disability and have lower educational attainment. Sandwell is ranked third lowest in Arts Council England's data on engagement in the arts. Sandwell is a multi-cultural and diverse borough where 42.7% are from Black, Asian, mixed or other ethnic group communities (18.3% in England and Wales) and 141 common languages are spoken in Sandwell schools.

We produce projects that reach people who face class and socio-economic barriers to arts engagement across the diverse communities across Sandwell and the Black Country and we do not charge for people to take part in our projects or to attend our events, exhibitions and film screenings.

We have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the aims and objectives of the charitable company and in planning any future activities. In particular, we have considered how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives set.

This is demonstrated through our charitable purposes in the advancement of education; the advancement of arts, culture and heritage; and the advancement of citizenship and community development. Our Arts Programme is primarily designed to meet the needs of people in Sandwell and the Black Country and to introduce artists to new contexts to develop their practice. We are able to offer our partner organisations innovative, participatory arts programmes that engage with people from the six towns of Sandwell as well as in the Black Country. We are able to meet the needs of local people by providing them with new opportunities for involvement, self-expression and personal development. During 2022/23, we employed 36 creatives on community projects and we worked with a total of 6409 people, as participants in our projects and attendees to our events.

All our projects follow the two key principles of public benefit in that (1) there is an identifiable benefit or benefits; and (2) the benefit goes to the public, or section of the public. Multistory does not charge a fee to any individual(s) or group(s) taking part in, and benefitting from, our projects and there are no unreasonable restrictions on anyone taking part.

Revenue funders' strategic priorities

Our relationships with ACE and Sandwell MBC are fundamental to our success and we make every effort to continue to show both organisations that our work is aligned with their objectives and that Multistory not only helps them meet their objectives but does so in a unique way. We help the Borough attain many of its community development aspirations and show, locally and nationally, that Sandwell is a creative and exciting place to be.

We continue to complement and contribute to the vision of both ACE and SMBC and our priorities are balanced against these to reflect our desire to take continued artistic risks so that '... the creativity of each of us is valued and given the chance to flourish, and where every one of us has access to a remarkable range of high-quality cultural experiences' ('Let's Create', ACE Vision 2030). We have a commitment and passion to enable communities, individuals and groups to participate in the arts as a means to raise aspirations and contribute to a better life so that 'Sandwell is a thriving, optimistic and resilient community ...' (SMBC's Vision 2030).

Public Benefit – we have specific deliverables and targets included in our funding agreements with SMBC and ACE and our activities are monitored and evaluated against these. These activities provide free opportunities and identifiable benefits to all sectors of the community, not unreasonably restricted, to take part in creative arts projects and to celebrate culture, people and places.

Multistory's Arts Programme

Multistory opens up new opportunities for creative imagination and expression and for people to enjoy and take part in the arts, free of charge. The work we produce encourages people to find out about themselves, the people around us and the communities that we live in.

We understand our responsibility for creating the conditions on-the-ground for further equality in the arts in order to lead to a greater diversity of artistic expression and connectivity with a wider audience for the work. We will continue to focus on projects that reach people who face class and socio-economic barriers to arts engagement across the diverse communities in Sandwell and access is always free.

We will continue to create opportunities for people to get involved with the arts closer to where they live, enabling first time and repeat engagement with local cultural activity. All of Multistory's projects are inclusive and relevant to communities in Sandwell; they reflect everyday life and tell local people's stories.

We invite creatives at all stages of their career to work with us in Sandwell. Some are internationally recognised; some have a growing reputation; and others are local, emerging artists that we are supporting at different stages in their careers. The arts programme draws on the particular qualities and strengths of all the artists we work with, in relation to the needs of a particular community or idea.

We are Wednesbury (High Street Heritage Action Zone Cultural Programme) / October 2021 to March 2024: Wednesbury is one of 69 towns taking part in Historic England's National High Street Heritage Action Zones (HSHAZ), a nationwide initiative designed to secure lasting improvements to our historic high streets for the communities who use them. Sandwell Council is working in partnership with Historic England to deliver the Wednesbury HSHAZ and it consists of three components: physical works to buildings; public realm improvements; and a Cultural Programme that enables communities and groups local to Wednesbury greater engagement in, and knowledge about, the heritage of the town.

Multistory is leading on the delivery of the We Are Wednesbury Cultural Programme that invites communities to participate in, and to support the delivery of, the cultural activities, to help make the high street a more attractive, engaging and vibrant place for residents to live, work and spend time. The aim of We Are Wednesbury is to enable local people to express the pride they feel for their town; to celebrate the role and importance of the high street as a hub of the community; and enable people to understand the history of their town and share their memories and stories.

Multistory has established a consortium of local organisations, creatives, heritage and community groups to co-produce the We Are Wednesbury programme of cultural activities and events to celebrate the local character and heritage of Wednesbury Market Place and the high street, making the high street a key place to experience and participate in culture.

Green Roots (West Bromwich Urban Greening Cultural Programme) / October 2022 to March 2025: this cultural programme is part of the wider West Bromwich Urban Greening Scheme that Sandwell Council is delivering through the West Bromwich Town Improvement Plan (TIP). The Scheme is focused on green public realm improvements that will animate the town with new green spaces that Green Roots will enhance through its programme of co-produced community and creative-led activities will put art and creativity at the heart of things and provide opportunities for local people to grow their creative skills, share stories, and sow the seeds of change in their local community.

The programme will create activities and opportunities for local people to get involved in, and learn about, their environment. Over the period of the programme, this will include a partnership with The Wildlife Trust to manage and deliver two high impact swards, with meadow rich flowers; an 8-week Level 1 training programme for 12 young people to give them skills in surveying and tool handling; opportunities for young people to develop their photography, video, digital skills; and the creation of an interactive digital community map that showcases the diversity of the communities in West Bromwich.

This new programme is part of our longer-term environmental strategy and will be a main theme in our business planning to offer opportunities for under-represented communities to engage with, and find out how they feel about, their local environment. We believe art and creativity can contribute to addressing social and environmental issues and can bring about positive social change.

Blast! Creative Network (BCN) / annual programme: set up as a response to a need that Multistory identified for more skills development opportunities for emergent creatives in Sandwell, the BCN offers a space for knowledge sharing and support. We organise, produce and deliver a rolling public programme of free talks, workshops, collaborative events with partner / peer organisations and social events to offer advice, mentoring, peer support, networking opportunities and to generate discussions about community-engaged, contemporary arts practice. The programme is produced in collaboration with the members in order to ensure that it is supportive and tailored to their needs, and we invite art practitioners, curators and creative professionals to speak about a range of subjects designed to develop practice and skills.

In 2022/23 there were five paid bursaries (through an open call), to create a small piece of work, undertake a period of research or reflection, or to complete an existing project. Bursary recipients receive mentoring from Multistory have the opportunity to share new work in a digital exhibition on Multistory's website and social media channels; give talks to the rest of the network; and, during 2022/23, participated in a residency at the Wolverhampton School of Art and presented to the art school student body.

The network is made up of a diverse group of people based locally, at varying stages in their careers and we are committed to providing concrete opportunities for professional development. This includes offering support for Sandwell artists who have never applied to Arts Council funding before through fundraising workshops and initiating a new series of 1-to-1 sessions with an experienced fundraiser to help artists to shape their applications and demystify the funding process.

We have funding from SCVO's Vision 2030 Fund to make the programme fully accessible, through providing elements such as BSL interpretation, fundraising support for artists with access needs, childcare at, and transport to, in-person events.

We secured an uplift in our National Portfolio Organisation funding from Arts Council England for 2023-2026, part of which will contribute annually to expanding our offer for creatives in Sandwell and the Black Country through the Blast Creative Network, commencing in April 2023. The programme will offer longer paid residencies at Wolverhampton School of Art for the five annual bursary recipients, plus an end of year show and panel discussion at the exhibition opening. We will also offer a further 17 opportunities to local artists through a group exhibition and a publication of newly commissioned writing.

OUTWORK / October 2022 to September 2023: we have been awarded a grant from Historic England through their Everyday Heritage Grants: Celebrating Working Class Histories for a participatory arts project that shares the stories of women workers of the K&J Print Works in West Bromwich and the experiences of working women in Sandwell more widely.

Originally founded in 1878 by John Arthur Kenrick and Frederick Thomas Jefferson, K&J remained open until the late 1990s and is still a local landmark in West Bromwich. Stories of the women who worked at the print works between the 1950s and 1990s have been recorded and photographs and objects collected for a publication – in both print and digital formats – that the women will co-produce with the artist Sophie Huckfield, will chart the history of working women's lives during this period. It will examine links between liberalism and feminism and celebrate local women's contribution to factory work and the town's industrial heritage. Accompanying the book is an outdoor exhibition and a sound piece that incorporates the participants' interviews. The exhibition will open on 21 September, with a celebratory event and sharing of the book and podcast.

Sandwell Stories / April 22 to March 23: an audio project produced by Multistory where we talk with, and share, everyday experiences of local people. For the fourth series, we continued with the free, 12-week course for participants to learn about podcasting including research, how to create a story, post-production and marketing. It took place between November 2022 and March 2023 and the topic was 'going green' to fit in with our wider Urban Greening programme.

Seven podcasts were produced that covered conversations, interviews and stories on how to be eco-friendly as a family; how nature is reclaiming old industrial sites, the positive impact nature can have on your wellbeing and a new, scary story based on local folklore. We held a small launch for participants and partners on Friday 24 March 2023 where we played snippets from the podcasts and all the creators shared a poem, creative writing or song. We have shared on podcast platforms, local radio stations and Sandwell Talking News to increase and diversify our listeners.

Dreaming by Amak Mahmoodian / May 21 to March 24: Amak has worked with people who are newly arrived to Sandwell to facilitate a positive intergenerational community experience through creativity and storytelling. It has encouraged participants to explore the effects of exile and distance on memory, dreams and daily life. This project is about personal stories and a small number of participants have met with Amak for a number of 1-1 to sessions.

We are in conversation with the artist as to how we present the work to tell the participants' stories. We have collaborated with local community groups: Brushstrokes, MARKit and Bearwood Action for Refugees.

Birmingham 2022 Festival / October 2021 to August 2022: we worked with the Festival team on two projects. For 'People, Place and Sport' photographer, Jaskirt Boora, made a collection of photographic portraits and recorded conversations with amateur sports people from across the West Midlands. From 4 April to 31 August the portraits were on display at nine leisure centres and outdoor spaces across Sandwell and Birmingham to coincide with the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games, including at Sandwell Valley Country Park. For 'Generations', we worked in partnership with GRAIN (West Midlands photography hub) and the photographer, Julian Germain. Through our community links and partnerships, we invited four and five generation families to have their portrait made who are representative of the diversity of Sandwell and Birmingham and have commonwealth heritage and feature multi-racial family groups. The portraits were exhibited large scale on billboards across Sandwell and Birmingham from 4 April to 31 August, 2022.

Financial Review

The current financial climate continues to demand a prudent approach to financial management. Fixed costs are kept to a minimum and are reviewed on a monthly basis to make savings and re-forecast where appropriate. All budgets are forecast on a cash accounting basis. Project budgets are held by the project managers but final sign-off of any expenditure is controlled by the Company Manager.

Financial information is produced each month by the outsourced Financial Support Team who report to the Company Manager and it is formally reported to the board at quarterly meetings. Financial information includes:

- Management accounts – actual figures against original and revised budget and a cash position;
- an annual cash-flow that is reviewed on a monthly basis;
- a Balance Sheet; and
- a quarterly financial report.

When required, our unrestricted reserves are invested in a Producing Fund that is the foundation of our artistic achievements; it enables us to invest in developing/piloting new projects/commissions to make new relationships with artists/community groups. It has also been central to how we have developed major new programmes; it allows us to fund the necessary planning and secure matching resources. We have carefully built and managed the Producing Fund through successful delivery of contracts since 2006. Any earned income that results in a surplus is reinvested into the Producing Fund to develop the arts programme.

Principal Funding Sources in 2022/2023

The principal funds were revenue grants of £114,166 from Sandwell Metropolitan Borough Council ('SMBC'); £143,402 from Arts Council England ('ACE') and contract income of £114,480 from Sandwell Council and Historic England (combined) for the Wednesbury High Street Action Zone Cultural Programme.

Investment Policy

Aside from retaining a prudent amount in unrestricted reserves each year, the charitable company's investments and operating reserves are held in low risk, low interest earning bank and building society accounts in order to protect the revenue and project funding invested by our partners and funding bodies.

Reserves Policy and Going Concern

The Reserves Policy is reviewed with regard to risks associated with operating the company in the current economic climate; the security of project funding; and organisational commitments and forecasts. In order to be prudent and ensure a sensible provision for the operation of the charitable company, the policy continues to provide for between 3 months and 12 months of operating costs in the event of a reduction in funding or programme activity. Currently we plan to carry nearer to six months to ensure liabilities of a minimum of six months of operating costs, including salaries, can be met from our unrestricted reserves.

Forecast budgeted operating costs expenditure for 2023/2024 are £251,502 (including contingency) and therefore the Reserves Policy target is £168,690 in general funds. The present level of reserves available to the charity meets this target.

Our year-end position is a positive £18,049 outcome providing us with unrestricted reserves of £292,366 at 31 March, 2023. Our balance sheet remains strong with net assets of £297,046.

We are an Arts Council of England (ACE) National Portfolio Organisation (NPO) and, in February 2022, we were awarded an extension year to the 2018-22 funding period, because of the Covid-19 pandemic, that covered the period 1 April 2022 to 31 March, 2023. In November 2022, ACE awarded us continued NPO funding for the period 1 April 2023 to 31 March 2026, with an uplift of £99,958 per year on top of the standard annual grant. This is to fund two full-time Project Co-ordinator roles and to extend our Blast Creative Network development programme for creatives.

Sandwell Council had been confirming their funding allocation on an annual basis; however, in October 2022, they approved us with a grant agreement up to 31 March, 2024. We have been successful in maintaining our local authority revenue funding when many arts organisations have not.

We have a contract for services with Sandwell Council for £258,997 for the period October 2021 to 31 March 2024 for the Wednesbury High Street Heritage Action Zone Cultural Programme. In Autumn 2022 we entered into a contract for services with Sandwell Council for c.£95,000 for the period November 2022 to 31 March, 2025, for the West Bromwich Urban Greening Cultural Programme. We have a grant of £39,668 from Historic England (Know Your Neighbourhood fund) for the period June 2023 to February 2024; and a grant of £40,000 from the Energy Saving Trust Foundation for the period September 2023 to September 2025.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

Multistory is a company limited by guarantee (with no share capital) incorporated under the Companies Act on 18 August 2006 under registered number 5910607.

Multistory is governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association dated 18 August 2006 and is a registered charity number 1116214.

The directors of the company are also charity trustees for the purposes of charity law and under the company's Articles are known as members of the Management Committee. Under the requirements of the Memorandum and Articles of Association the members of the Management Committee are elected to serve for a period of three years after which they must be re-elected at the next Annual General Meeting.

We will continue to review and monitor legislation, regulations, guidelines and best practice in relation to both company and charity law on an ongoing basis, as well as identify training needs for trustees. The 'Terms of Reference' document for trustees will be reviewed in line with this.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Multistory regularly reviews the appropriate skills and experience to maintain a board that represents the culturally diverse environment in which we work, together with a broad range of skills and experience needed.

The Board of Multistory is made up of the appointed Trustees plus one observer nominated by Sandwell Metropolitan Borough Council and one observer nominated by Arts Council England.

The Trustees of the charitable company, who are directors for the purpose of company law and trustees for the purpose of charity law, who served during the period and up to the date of this report are set out below:

Gordon Bates (resigned 25 January, 2023)

Bhulla Beghal (appointed 19 October, 2022)

Eleanor Cook (appointed 19 October 2022)

Ian Francis (resigned 15 August, 2023)

Joan Gregory-Bartosch (died March, 2023)

Rupinder Kaur (appointed 27 April, 2022)

Louise Kilbride

Sadie Newman

Richard Short

Manjeet Singh Gill

Tom Spurgin (appointed 27 July, 2022).

Paul Sutton

Colin Wells

In accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association, Joan Gregory-Bartosch retired by rotation at the Annual General Meeting held on 19 October 2022, and, being eligible, was re-elected unanimously to a fourth term; sadly Joan died in March, 2023.

Our Board has a wide range of skills and experience in the arts and cultural sector, community development, education, information technology, organisational management and other disciplines.

All Trustees give of their time freely and no Trustee received remuneration in the year. Details of their expenses are disclosed in note 8 to the accounts.

Trustee Induction and Training

New Trustees receive Charity Commission guidelines and publications to brief them on their legal obligations under charity and company law; a copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association; Terms of Reference and Responsibilities for Trustees (produced internally) along with a Trustee Job Description; previous minutes of Trustee meetings; and the current operational plan and recent financial performance of the charitable company. They also meet with key staff and other Trustees. Board away days and training is provided as required.

The 'Terms of Reference and Responsibilities for Trustees' forms the basis for the remit of the Board. This document is reviewed annually, in line with The Charity Governance Code and amended as and when necessary, to take account of the trustees' views and to make sure that duties are carried out in line with statutory law, good practice and due diligence.

The Board regularly review strategic priorities, the outcomes of which feed into the business planning process, and to maintain effective working relationships. The Board receive literature and briefings to keep them up to date with their roles and responsibilities.

Pay Policy for Senior Staff

The senior management team comprise the key management personnel of the company in charge of directing and controlling, running and operating the company on a day-to-day basis.

The pay of the senior staff is reviewed annually and any increases are in accordance with NJC public sector pay awards.

Risk Management

For the financial year 2022/23, the Trustees continued to implement a risk management strategy that comprises:

- a quarterly review of the principal risks and uncertainties that the company face;
- an assessment of any risks brought by Covid-19;
- the establishment and implementation of procedures, systems and policies when required to mitigate those identified risks; and
- the implementation of procedures that are designed to minimise or manage any potential impact on the company should those risks materialise.

This work has identified that financial sustainability is a risk for the company. A key element in the management of financial risk is a regular review of available liquid funds to settle debts as they fall due, regular liaison with the bank, and active management of trade debtors and creditors balances to ensure sufficient working capital by the company. We also meet regularly with our principal funders.

We recognise the need to diversify our fundraising base and, in addition to maintaining our relationships with our core funders, a priority in 2023/24 will be to continue to secure additional programme funds through partnership commissioning, national funding bodies and from charitable trusts and foundations, including the Esmée Fairbairn Foundation and the National Lottery Heritage Fund. We will approach organisations whose interests coincide with ours and the needs of the communities where we work. With external support, as necessary, we will take a proactive approach in making proposals to these potential sources.

Organisational Structure

The following people held senior management positions within the charitable company during the year:

Emma Chetcuti	Director
Caron Wright	Company Manager

The role of the Director is to assume delegated authority from the Board (within terms of delegation approved by the Board) to lead Multistory through the strategic decisions and actions required to maintain a sustainable future for the organisation. Specifically this requires the Director to:

- develop and manage key strategic and funding partnerships;
- maintain a 'fit for purpose' organisation;
- create and deliver an innovative Arts Programme;
- develop and deliver a viable Business Plan; and
- manage risk.

Members of the Management Team attend all Board meetings and any sub-committees of the Board when required.

Part of the annual funding uplift (for the period 1 April 2023 to 31 March 2026) from Arts Council England was for the full-time salaries of two Project Co-ordinators and these new members of staff joined the company on 1 June, 2023. The core staff team is now seven employees, organised to ensure that:

- there are strong reporting lines and relationships;
- there are short chains of control and direction; and
- there is flexibility to respond to changes in demand.

Future Plans

Our challenge remains to make artistically powerful work that is responsive and relevant to local people's lives and present stories that have an audience in Sandwell and beyond. People here have few opportunities to enjoy the arts and even fewer to express their creativity and share their stories and ideas in artistically compelling ways. It is our job to enable this creative engagement and to sustain and grow the relationship between creatives, communities and wider audiences. We are committed to working in Sandwell because people here deserve the best artistic experiences we can provide and because – despite its economic and other challenges – Sandwell is full of people and organisations who are passionate about improving people's lives and making the borough a good place to live. And that is a passion we share.

We will build on our success in producing creative projects that attract the support of a number of existing and new partners including Sandwell Council (with Government place-making initiatives like the Town Improvement Plans and the High Street Heritage Action Zones) and trusts and foundations who share our commitment to excellence and equity. We have already successfully tendered to Sandwell Council for the contract to deliver the main Cultural Programme for the Wednesbury High Street Action Zone scheme; and for the contract to deliver the West Bromwich Urban Greening Cultural Programme.

We will also continue to generate projects with the voluntary and community sector in Sandwell.

The High Street has been and will remain a major focus and location for our arts programme and partnerships in this funding period. Sandwell's high streets and town centres face many challenges, but we know that communities value them as places to meet, socialise, access services, shop, work and live. These vital public places boost wellbeing and benefit many different communities, making them some of Sandwell's most important spaces.

We will continue to generate maximum employment opportunities for creatives from under-represented and under-served backgrounds to engage the diverse communities of Sandwell so that both people and place are reflected in our mission to tell interesting, relevant, local stories. We will continue to produce projects with the best creatives at all stages of their career. Some are internationally recognised; some have growing reputations or strong roots in the region; some are promising new voices. Our programme draws on the particular qualities and strengths of all these creatives, in relation to the needs of a particular community or idea, often enabling them to work with each other and extend their practice.

When required, Multistory will continue to use its unrestricted reserves, through its Producing Fund, for the following:

- to strategically develop arts activities;
- to invest in opportunities and in long-term development which cannot be easily or quickly fundraised for;
- to respond strategically to changes in funding and the external environment without being forced into short term cost cutting;
- to manage cash flow peaks and troughs; and
- to produce a balanced annual budget.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees (who are also the directors of Multistory for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditors are unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish the auditors are aware of that information.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Auditors

During the year, Cooper Parry Group Limited resigned as auditors and Muras Baker Jones Limited were appointed in their stead.

Independent Auditor's Report to the Members of Multistory

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Multistory (the 'charity') for the year ended 31 March 2023 which comprise the statement of financial activities (including income and expenditure account), statement of financial position, statement of cash flows and the related notes, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charity's affairs as at 31 March 2023 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice;
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charity's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The trustees are responsible for the other information. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:-

- the information given in the trustees' report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the trustees' report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charity and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the trustees' report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept; or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the trustees' responsibilities statement, the trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charity or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Multistory

Company Limited by Guarantee

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

In planning and designing our audit tests we identify and assess the risks of material misstatement within the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. Our assessment of these risks includes consideration of the nature of the industry and sector, the control environment and the business performance along with the results of our enquiries of management about their own identification and assessment of risks and irregularities. In common with all audits under ISAs (UK), we are also required to perform specific procedures to respond to the risk of management override. We also obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks that the company operates in, focusing on provisions of those laws and regulations that had a direct effect on the determination of material amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The key laws and regulations we considered in this context included the UK Companies Act, UK tax legislation and other laws and regulations identified as risk areas identified from our discussions with management.

We communicated relevant identified laws and regulations and potential fraud risks to all engagement team members including internal specialists, and remained alert to any indications of fraud or non-compliance with laws and regulations throughout the audit.

After consideration of the above risks we then carried out audit procedures including the following:

- performing analytical procedures to identify any unusual or unexpected relationships that may indicate risks of material misstatement due to fraud;
- reading minutes of management meetings;
- reviewing correspondence with H M Revenue & Customs;
- enquiring of management and reviewing any correspondence with legal advisors concerning actual and potential litigation and claims;
- reviewing the financial statement disclosures and testing to supporting documentation to assess compliance with provisions of relevant laws and regulations described as having a direct effect on the financial statements;
- in addressing the risk of fraud through management override of controls, testing the appropriateness of journal entries and other adjustments; assessing whether the judgements made in making accounting estimates are indicative of a potential bias; and evaluating the business rationale of any significant transactions that are unusual or outside the normal course of business.

There are inherent limitations in our audit procedures described above. The more removed that the laws and regulations are from financial transactions the less likely it is that we would be aware of non-compliance. Auditing standards also limit the audit procedures required to identify non-compliance with laws and regulations to enquiry of the directors and other management and the inspection of regulatory and legal correspondence, if any. Material misstatements that arise due to fraud can be harder to detect than those that arise from error as they may involve deliberate concealment or collusion.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charity's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

1. Principal accounting policies

Basis of preparation

Multistory (the charity) is a registered incorporated charity in the United Kingdom. The address of the registered office is given in the charity information page of these financial statements. The nature of the charity's operations and principal activities are to produce great art with, for and about local people.

The charity constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland (FRS102), the Charities Act 2011 and UK Generally Accepted Practice.

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention. The financial statements are prepared in sterling which is the functional currency of the charity.

The significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all years presented unless otherwise stated.

Fund accounting

Restricted funds

Restricted funds represent grants and donations which are subject to restrictions on their expenditure imposed by the donor or through the terms of appeal.

Unrestricted funds and designated funds

Unrestricted funds that are expendable at the discretion of the Trustees in the furtherance of the objects of the charitable company. Such funds may be held in order to finance both working capital and capital investment. Designated funds are those funds which are unrestricted in nature but which have been designated by the Trustees to be used in a particular manner.

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when the charity is legally entitled to the income after any performance conditions have been met, the amount can be measured reliably and it is probable that the income will be received.

For donations to be recognised the charity will have been notified of the amounts and the settlement date in writing. If there are conditions attached to the donation and this required a level of performance before entitlement can be obtained then income is deferred until those conditions are fully met or the fulfilment of those conditions is within the control of the charity and it is probable that they will be fulfilled.

No amount is included in the financial statements for volunteer time in line with the SORP (FRS 102).

1. Principal accounting policies (continued)

Income from trading activities includes income earned from fundraising events and trading activities to raise funds for the charity. Income is received in exchange for supplying goods and services in order to raise funds and is recognised when entitlement has occurred.

Income from government and other grants are recognised at fair value when the charity has entitlement after any performance conditions have been met. It is possible that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably. If entitlement is not met then these amounts are deferred.

Investment income is earned through holding surplus assets for investment purposes predominately in bank deposit accounts. It includes interest. Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method.

Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accruals basis as a liability is incurred.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charitable company in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries.

Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charitable company and include audit fees and costs linked to the strategic management of the company.

All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the Statement of Financial Activities on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity comprises both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

VAT

The charitable company is registered for VAT. Value added tax which is not recoverable is included in the relevant costs in the Statement of Financial Activities and tangible fixed assets.

Fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets costing £1,000 or more are capitalised and stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Depreciation of fixed assets on a straight line basis commencing with the year of acquisition at rates estimated to write off their cost less any residual value over their expected useful lives and charged to the relevant fund as follows:-

Office furniture and audio visual equipment	-	3 years
Computer equipment	-	3 years

Multistory
Company Limited by Guarantee

1. Principal accounting policies (continued)

Investments

Current asset investments are short term highly liquid investments and are held at fair value. These include cash on deposit and cash equivalents with a maturity of less than one year.

Debtors and creditors receivable/payable within one year

Debtors and creditors with no stated interest rate and receivable or payable within one year are recorded at transaction price. Any losses arising from impairment are recognised in expenditure.

Tax

The charity meets the legal definition of charity within the meaning of schedule 3 of the Charities Act 2011 and is considered to pass the tests set out in Paragraph 1 Schedule 6 Finance Act 2010 and therefore it meets the definition of a charitable company for UK corporation tax purposes.

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis as the Trustees believe that no material uncertainties exist. The Trustees have considered the level of funds held and the expected level of income and expenditure for 12 months from authorising these financial statements. The budgeted income and expenditure is sufficient with the level of reserves for the charity to be able to continue as a going concern. We have taken into consideration the ongoing Covid-19 pandemic and no material uncertainties exist in relation to this.

Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

The charity's functional and presentational currency is GBP.

Transactions and balances

Foreign current transactions are translated into the functional currency using the spot exchange rates at the dates of the transactions.

Operating leases

Rental paid under operating leases are charges to the Statement of Financial Activities on a straight line basis over the lease term.

Wednesbury High Street Heritage Action Zone Cultural Programme

Wednesbury is one of 69 towns taking part in Historic England's National High Street Heritage Action Zones (HSHAZ) which is a nationwide initiative designed to secure lasting improvements to our historic high streets for the communities who use them. Between October 2021 and March 2024,

Multistory is delivering the We are Wednesbury Cultural Programme for the HSHAZ, funded by Sandwell Council and Historic England. The aim of We Are Wednesbury is to enable local people to express the pride they feel for their town; to celebrate the role and importance of the high street as a hub of the community; and enable residents to understand the history of their town and share memories and stories.

Sandwell Council: Green Roots

Between October 2022 and March 2025, Multistory is delivering Green Roots, a cultural programme that is part of the wider West Bromwich Urban Greening Scheme that Sandwell Council is delivering. The Scheme will focus on green public realm improvements that will animate the town with new green spaces that Green Roots is enhancing through its programme of co-produced community and creative-led activities.

Putting art and creativity at its heart, Green Roots is providing inclusive opportunities for communities and groups local to West Bromwich to have greater engagement in, and knowledge about, the natural capacity of the town centre and will offer training and apprenticeships.

Historic England: Everyday Heritage Grants Programme

Historic England has funded OUTWORK, a project that tells the stories of women employed at Kenrick and Jefferson (K&J) Print Works on West Bromwich High Street and shares the often-overlooked histories of women's work, at home as well as in the workplace. OUTWORK is rooted in the heritage of women's oral storytelling, referencing how working women's herstories are often shared anecdotally and passed down through a spoken tradition, while being left out of official archival records.

Sandwell Council: WSHAZ Banners

We were awarded a public tender contract to produce banners for the Wednesbury High Street Heritage Action Programme.

SCVO Vision 2030 Community Grant

Multistory received funding from Sandwell Council for Voluntary Services in 2021/22 through their Vision 2030 Community Grant to support the Blast Creative Network (BCN) to make the programme more accessible through providing elements such as BSL interpretation, fundraising support for creatives with access needs, childcare at, and transport to, in-person events. This funding continues to support the programme.

Birmingham 2022 Festival

Multistory was commissioned to produce the People, Place and Sport exhibition as part of the Birmingham 2022 Festival, a six-month celebration of creativity which surrounded the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games. It was generously funded by Arts Council England, The National Lottery Heritage Fund and the Birmingham 2022 Organising Committee.

Multistory worked in collaboration with award-winning photographer, Jaskirt Boora, who made a collection of recorded conversations and photographic portraits that celebrate local, amateur sporting communities at the clubs where their grassroots sport activities take place on a weekly basis across the West Midlands. People, Place and Sport was presented in a community exhibition from 4 April to 31 August 2022, at nine leisure centres and outdoor spaces across the West Midlands.

Generations

Our second Birmingham Festival 2022 project was done in partnership with GRAIN (West Midlands photography hub) and the photographer, Julian Germain. Through our community links and partnerships, Multistory invited four and five generation Sandwell families representative of the diversity of Sandwell and with commonwealth heritage, to have their portrait made. The portraits were exhibited large scale on billboards across Sandwell and Birmingham during the Summer of 2022.

Newave Education

Multistory received funding to deliver a Holiday Activities and Food Summer Programme around the theme of Food, Nourishment and Enrichment. We invited creative practitioners to deliver workshops for children aged between 4 and 15 using photography, poetry, movement, play, collage and making zines to learn about growing their own produce, their digestive systems and having a healthy relationship with

We Don't Settle

We Don't Settle is an organisation that aims to empower people between 16 and 25 from under-represented communities in Sandwell, Black Country and Birmingham to change the voice of heritage through the arts, research, and governance. We partnered with We Don't Settle and Wednesbury Museum & Art Gallery to co-produce and deliver a free, creative programme to support young people to grow professionally, help build their CV and gain knowledge of curating and arts management, community engagement and consultation and designing a community consultation plan.
