Cross Roads for Human Development – Registered Charity 1116524

Annual Report for 2024/25

Total income of the charity was £33,029 for the year. Many thanks to all of our fundraisers and regular donors for their efforts. Particular highlights of fundraising in the year are the work of our Honorary President Rev Gill Evans, and donations from other supporters. The charity is struggling to maintain the level of income needed to support the projects in India and is trying to find new sources of income.

£32,700 was transferred to the projects in India, the Kids Paradise School, which continues to thrive across eight-year groups, and the Nutan Tailoring Centre in Karnataka. The charity continues to be proud of the outstanding work done in India.

Annual Report for 2022/23

Total income of the charity was £30,080 for the year. An appeal was launched to raise funds to replace the minibus for the Kids' Paradise School. This appeal was successful in raising the total amount required. However, this tended to distract from other fundraising in the year. Many thanks to all of our fundraisers for their efforts.

£47,600 was transferred to the projects in India. The Kids Paradise School, which continues to thrive across eight-year groups, and the Nutan Tailoring Centre in Karnataka. The charity continues to be proud of the outstanding work done in India.

Annual Report for 2021/22

Total income of the charity was £27,098 for the year. Funds this year were increased from the previous year as fundraising activity as lockdown restrictions were lifted. Many thanks to all of our fundraisers for their efforts through the year. £29,000 was transferred to the projects in India. The Kids Paradise School, which continues to thrive across eight-year groups, and the Nutan Tailoring Centre in Karnataka. The minibus used by the school is nearing the end of its useful life and the main fundraising project for the year ahead is to provide the money to replace this.
